

RAAL OF THE CHIEF MAJUNDA DISTRICT.

ONTARIO MINING. for Last Nine Month Breaks the Record.

greatly increased development metalliferous mines i the returns of production past nine months of the year, ported to the Bureau of Mines show an aggregate of $2,822, compared with $2,541,181, for hole of 1900, or a proportion rease of about 48 per cent. the highest production yet by the mines of this Pro-The increase has every sign manency, as it is made of iron and nickel, of which is an abundant supply for the The following table shows roduction and value of the reve minerals :-Quantity. ons... 216,614 $ 224,546 on, tons... 1,296,3446.513,191 737,2145,950,428 286,376 s... ... 975,054 30,432 11,008 186,294 ounces... 98,200 58,791 ons ..

$2,822,008 heaviest increases are in iron rose from $111,805 in ; pig-inon, from to $1,296,344 For the period; nickel from $756,626 to $737,214 for the first nonths of 1901, and arsenic rose from $22,725 to $30,432. were 156,731 tons of iron ore or 50 per cent., was from mines, the remainder being ekgl-copper ore 222,133 tons ised and 158,194 tons smeltmatte product being 20,723 Canadian Copper Com remains the chief producer, Mond Nickel Company is ing out converter or hightte. There were 10,100 non-nickelliferous copper . or during the nine months.

REFITES OF KISSES.

with plenty of time on has conceived the idea of brough the works of all the a English novelists for the of gathering all the adjecwhich to qualify the word The result of his labor is ssek can be as follows :- Cold, burning, chilly, cool, lowlifferent, balsamic, fragrant. ssionate, aromatic, with lewed. long, soft, hasty, indissembling. delicions, der, beguiling, hearty, disfrantic, fresh as the morneathing fire, divine, glad, suquiet, loud, fond, heavenly, ominous, fervent, parchyous, soulless, stupefying. ircless, anxious, painful, freshing, embarrassed, shy, ishing, holy, sacred, tithless, narcotic, feverish e. sisterly, brotherly, and . The task seemed and he gave up at this

A BETTER STORY.

see . the account of that lightning that burnt the hair boy's head without othercheerful liar, "and I was to notice the incompleteness dory. Now, 1 happen to case that is really re-The lightning entered hop and not only under he task of singeing a man's it rung up the proper the cash register.'

Bronchitis, Sor

of Linseed and Turpentine is dren love to take it. reness, irritation and inflainto have in the house some reth the hollow, croupy cours Chase's Syrup of Linscod

POWER OF EVIL HABII

Once Formed it is a Very Difficult Matter to Give Them Up.

A cospatch from Washington says -Rev. Dr. Talmage preached from the following text:-Proverbs xxiii Wuen shall I awake? I will seek mental processes of a man who has

About a mile from Princeton, N.

thin, a farmer living near by warned a long riginarole, which some people the young men of the danger of skating at that time. They all took the warning except one-young man . He in the spirit of bravado said, "Boys; one round more. He struck out on his skates, the ico broke, and his lifeless body was brought up. And lurement it is not a prolongation that is proposed, but only just one more indulgence, just one more sin. Then comes the fiatality. Alas for the one round morel "I will seek it yet it yet once more."

OUR LIBRARIES

years ago and you are greatly dis born in the country. And what and Sinai give us a most profitable dents of my story, there was heartened. You are ready with ey-glorious news might these young men Bible study, as do all the mountain a large gathering of the village the clinches his fist in a determination to keep to his purpose. He not look at the bottles in the of a wine store. ely free the old inclination upon him like a pack of all their muzzles tearing t the flanks of ONE POOR REINDEER.

ve also to say if a man wants return from evil practices society The prodigal, wishreturn, tries to take some

The prodigal, wishing to get into Some good man without much greets him by saying: ou here? You do not know anyabout this, unless that you lave learned that when a man tries o return from evil courses of conuct he runs against repulsions in-these dainty, fastidious hristians in all our churches are to get into heaven I do not unless they have an especial ans and sinners. your lip of scorn on the fallen. you plainly that if you had surrounded by the same influinstead of sitting to-day amid cultured and refined and the stian you might have been

A CROUCHING WRETCH. stable or ditch covered with filth abomination! It is not because are naturally any better, but bethe mercy of God has protected think also that men are often and a bad angel continding for the iddiverance has not yet came. As a well, we can send him a dinner, and from returning by the last inistery of his spirit, and there was stor God His ways a perfect, and He will never be to "He stops me whenever I pass denominations, and they rush the course of the street." Conic flate in anything that He does but He gave me flowers twice, and I am when they see g man about to along with me." said the good angel we need patience and must be con-like somebody he knows. He told think also that men are often ered from returning by the lack ask him how he is going to be bap-tized, whether by sprinkling or imsprinkling or immersion and what kind of a church he is going to join. It is a poor time to talk about Presbyterian catechism and Episcopal liturgies and Methodist love feasts and Bantist with an insight into human nature immersions when a man is about to such as no other man ever had, Sol- come out of the darkness of sin inomon in these words is sketching the to the glorious light of the gospel.

Now, I have shown you these or stepped aside from the path of recti- stacles because I want you to un tude at would like to return. Wish derstand I know all the difficulties ing for something better he says: in the way. But I am now going when shall I awake? When shall I to tell you how Hannibal may scale get over this harrible nightmare of the Alps and how the shackles may iniquity" But seized upon by une be unriveted and how the paths of radicated appetite and pushed down virtue forsaken may be regained hill by his passions he cries out: First of all, throw yourself on Gol. Will seek it yet again. I will try Go to him frankly and earnestly and tell Him these habits you have and ask him if there is any help in all there is a skating pond! One the resources of emnipotent love to. winter day, when the ice was very give it to you. Do not go on with

Go to God and cry for help.

The, also, I counsel you, if you want to get back quit all your bad was now 80 years of age, having associates. One unholy intimacy will spent 40 years in Egypt and 40 fill your soul with moral distemper. Years with Jethro as shepherd. His in all matters of temptation and al- In all the ages of the church, there shepherd life reminds us of Abel and has not been an instance where a Jacob, David and other shepherds of man kept one evil associate and was the Bible; each of whom in some way reformed-among the sixteen hun-suggests to us the Good, Great dred million of the race call prayer, made up of ohs and ahs, and forever and forever amens.

NOT ONE INSTANCE.

Give up your bad' companions or ward us at His appearing. The give up heaven. It is not ten had shepherd life is of necessity a lonely Are adorned with elegant literature companions that destroy a man, nor addressed to young men, pointing out five bad companions, nor three, but its ways and gives great opportunity the shoals, the rocks, the quick-young man I saw along the street, I kings xix, 8, in connection with sands. But suppose a young man is four or five young men with him, in Elijah's visit to it. It is mentioned already shipwrecked, suppose he is i- front of a gregslop, unging nim to in Mal. iv, 4, as the place where God ready off the track, suppose he has go in, he resisting—violently regave Moses the law, the statutes and already gone astray—how can he be sisting — until after awhile they judgments and in Ex. xix is called got back? That is a question that forced him to go in? It was a sum- Sinai. In verse 12 of our lesson remains unanswered, and all mer night, and the door was left God told Moses that after he had the holds of the libraries I find not open, and I saw the process. They brought the people out of Egypt one word on that subject. To that held him fast, and they put the cup they would serve God upon that class of persons I this day address to his lips, and they forced down mountain. In Ex. xvii, 6, we read the strong drink. What chance is that there Jehovah gave them water You compare what you are now there for such a young man?

heartened. You are ready with ey- growth to their parents that this stories of the Bible, such as Carmel, Mrs. Wilson's, who, having no discussion like this. Be of good afternoon they had surrendered them- Olivet, etc. a discussion like this. Be of good alternoon mey had surrendered them.

The right comes of the Lord appropriate to the life ! I know how it is in the counpeased unto him with flame of fire friends far and near to dine the come.

The right comes of The cate out of the midst, of a bush? The nd rescue. I put the silver try. The night comes on. The cat- out of the midst of a bush." training to the gospel to my lips the stand under the rack; through Lord our God is a consuming fire be necessary to introduce some and blow one long, loud blast, say- which burst the trusses of hay. The (Deut. iv, 24). He desires His peo- my characters, before they appeared to the gospet to my characters, before they appeared to the gospet to my characters, before they appeared to the gospet to my characters, before they appeared to the gospet to my characters, before they appeared to the gospet to my characters, before they appeared to the gospet to my characters, before they appeared to the gospet to my characters, before they appeared to the gospet to my characters, before they appeared to the gospet to my characters, before they appeared to the gospet to my characters, before they appeared to the gospet to my characters, before they appeared to the gospet to my characters, before they appeared to the gospet to my characters, before they appeared to the gospet to the go Whosoever will let him come horses have just frisked up from the ple wholly for Himself that lie may gala dress.

It him come now." The church meadow brook at the nightfall and bless them to the full. He consumes when wife of God is ready to spread a banquet stand knee deep in the bright straw in His people only that which hinlittle village of W—, occurving upon your return, and all the hier that invites them to lie down and ders their true happiness. They, like the largest house, which had been archs of heaven fall into line of banof fowl, their feet warm under their than Daniel's friends were consumed any more built by her husband for his pride, said, half in soliloguy.

There was a property of the largest house, which had been at, without one to love built by her husband for his pride, said, half in soliloguy. the flames clap their hands above the their bonds and set them free to Her sister, Hetty Payne, and Effic, of evil doing resolves great backlog and shake the shadow walk with the Son of God. Why, all the forces of of the group up and down the wall. s are allied against him. He Father and mother sit there for half g is down on his knees at midnight an hour, saying nothing. I wonder in the bush' (Deut.xxxiii, 16), may He what they are thinking of. After suggest that Joseph, like others who Mrs. Wilson returned from Htaly his lip. He grinds his teeth, awhile the father breaks the silence have come through great tribulation. and says, "Well, I , wonder, where our boy we in town to-night." the mother, answers : "In no bad It is one place, I warrant you. We always exhaustive, hand to could trust him when he was at ight with inflamed, tantalizing home, and since he has been away him out of the midst of the bush and ss habit. When he thinks he there have been so many prayers offered for him we can trust him still." they retire, for they go early to bed, uel.

to that God who watches in country pared of God (Gen. xli, 32 and marand in town, ON THE LAND AND ON THE SEA. Oh, despise not paternal anxiety 1 of the special attention we should The time will come when you will give them. If Moses had not turned of religion by the hand, have neither father nor mother, and aside to see, think what, he might professor of religion looks at you will go around the place where looks at the faded apparel, they used to watch you and find d he marks of dissipation, and them gone from the house and gone steed of giving him a firm grip of from the field, and gone from the he hand offers him the tip end of neighborhood. Cry as loud for forlonger fingers of the left hand, giveness as you may over the mound 15, which, I think, is found only in is equal to striking a man in in the churchyard, they cannot an-Oh, how few Christian swer. Dead ! Dead ! And then you about to lead Israel out of Egypt ple understand how much gospel will take out the white lock of hair and to Joshua as he was about to is in a good, honest handshak- that was cut from mother's brow lead them into the promised land. Sometimes when you have just before they buried her, and you need of encouragement and will take the can with which your Christian man has taken you father used to walk, and you will artily by the hand have you not think and think and wish that you sold a piece of land he took of his thrilling through every fibre of had done just as they wanted you mind and soul an en- and would give the world if you had (Ruth iv, 7). It seems to me that uragement that was just what you never thrust a pang through their God says to Moses and Joshua in dear old hearts.

name! God pity the young man who has broken his mother's heart! Bet-You are about the ter that he had never been born st person I expected to see in a Better if in the first hour of his life. Well, the dying instead of being laid against the meeting. Well, the dying instead of being laid against the was saved, and there is hope warm bosom of maternal tenderness; he had been coffined and sepulchered. by all the memories of the past and of cars cushioned and upholst- would yield your heart to God! May go with the great herd of God be your God foreyer !

swings wide open. Hesitate not a pointed time. moment. In many a hesitation the loss of all. At the corner of heard, for I know their sorrow, and could see he had an intelligent forc-head. He had a stout chest and a robust development.

SPLENDID YOUNG MAN! every young man has a good singel it is because the best time for

"I will take you home. I will spread tent with John to learn the signifime once to go home and pray God my wings over your pillow." I will cance of the kingdom and patience of to make me hideous, and said: "No, lovingly escort you all through life Jesus Christ (Heb. x, 36; Rev. i, no, it is true, good deauty." inder-supernatural protection. will bless every cup you drink out of, 9, 10. "Come now, therefore, every couch you rest on, every loor- I will send thee unto Pharaoh way you enter. I will consecrate thou mayest bring forth My people sweat when you toil, and at the last it, and now He says Moses will I will hand over your grave into the it, for He will do it in and through hand of the bright angel of a Chris- Moses, and this is the lesson we are tian resurrection. I have been sent so slow to learn—that "it is god of the Lord to be your guardian who worketh in us, both to will and spirit. Come with me," said the to do of His good pleasure" (Phill in, good angel in a voice of unearthly 18; Heb. xiii, 21). He worketh symphony. It was music like that things according to the counsel which drops from a lute of heaven His own will (Eph. i, 11), and thith gel sent forth by Christ, or the had What an honor is conferred upon us angel sent forth by sin get the victory over your soul ? Their wings are interlocked this moment you contending for your soul, as above the Apennines eagle and condor fight midsky. This hour cides eternal destinies.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

LESSON, INTERNATIONAL DEC. 1.

Text of the Lesson, Ex. iii. 1-12. Golden Text, Ex. iii., 12.

1. "He led the flock to the back side of the desert and came to the mountain of God. to Horeb." According to Acts vii, 23, 30, Moses Chief Shepherd (John x, 11, 14; Heb. xiii, 20; I Pct. v, 4), who saves us, works in us His will and will relife, a life apart from the world and for fellowship with God. Horeb is to their all the dangers and perils of one.

life. Complete map of the voyage of What chance is there for that again called the mountain of God in from the rock that they might drink. with what you were three or four Some of you, like myself, were The events associated with Horeb > phrase in the blessing upon Joseph, "the good will of Him that dwelleth are burning bush saints, never con-And samed because God is in them (Isa.

xliii, 1, 2). 3, 4. "When the Lord saw that he turned aside to see, God called unto said, "Moses, Moses." Observe the double call in Gen. xxii, 11, and I. Then at 8 or 9 o'clock, just before Sam. iii, 10, to Abraham and Sam-Joseph told Pharaoh that they kneel down and commend you doubled meant established by or pregin). We think of the Lord's 25 double amens of John's gospel and have missed.

5. Put off thy shoes from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground.". Compare the same instruction in Joshua v, these two places—to Moses as he was To tread upon a place meant that the place was given that person So when a person shee and gave it to the purchaser these words something to this effect: God pity the young man who has This whole matter is Mine, not society, enters a prayer meet-brought disgrace on his father's yours. I will see it through. You come with Me and relysupon Me.

6. "Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look upon God." A deep sense of unworthmess is an accompaniment of a revelation of God (Jgb xlii, 5,6; Isa. vi, 5; Dan. x, 8; Luke v. 8; Rev. i, 17). God revealed There is no balm powerful enoughto Himself to Moses as the God of heal the heart of one who has Abraham. Isaac and Jacob, the God face to meet her mother's kiss brought parents to a sorrowful grave not of the dead, but of the living I have one company myself to and who wanders about through the (Math. xxii. 32). He told Moses to row?" dismal cemetery rending the air and say to Israel. 'I am hath sent me wringing the hands and cyving anto you" (verse 14); I am that I "Mother!" Oh, that to day am He is Jehovah who changes not; Jesus Christ the same yesterby all the hopes of the future, you day, to-day and forever (Mal. ili, 6; Heb xiii, 8). Men pass away from each one a car to himself. They your father's God and your mother's earth and great changes come, but He continues, and every purpose of O ye who This hour the door of mercy His shall be performed at His apa street I saw a tragedy. A young I am come down to deliver them and man avidently doubted as to which to bring them unto the good land."

direction he had better take. His Note carefully the whole of these hat was lifted high enough so you two verses, that which He sees and hears and knows and that which He filled with tears illidig not mean it. ache to see, and then with gracewill do for His name's sake Every Every body calls him so and the ful courtesy she introduced him to child of God may take comfort from these assurances : Whatever be your Those that are brought up in Cultured young man! Why did to sorrows or your circumstances. He stan circles and watched by stop there while so many were going sees and hears, and thouse and it is an parentage should not be up and down? The fact is and the permits hard things to continue

7, 8. "I have surely seen and have tears when you weep, your God had just said that He would when a scraph breathes on it. just allows God to work and quictly Oh, young man, will the good anabides with Him for His pleasure. when He selects any one of us work through.

11, 12. "Certainly I will be thee. I have sent thee." Moses not understand. He has his shoes on at once and asks, "Who am I that I should go unto Pharaoh and that I should bring forth the children Israel ?" See him also in Num xi, 22, xx, 10, and you see at a gla that his shoes are on. He is thinking of himself, not of God. three signs given him, as recorded in the beginning of the next chapter, should have shown him his importance and the power of God, yet hear him objecting and refusing though God said, "I will be thy mouth and teach thee what shalt say" (iv, 12), so that finally God gives him his brother Aaron be his spokesman or prophet (iv 16; vii, 1, 2). I know nothing go er in the Lord's service than th surance of the Lord's presence that He sent us. As to the firs Joshua i, 5; Judg. vi, 14, 16; xli. 10. 13; Jer. i, 8, 19; Hag. ii, 4; Math. xxviii, 20, and as you may find them.

A THANKSGIVING STORM

Thanksgiving Day was one th villagers of W- always with a white stone. All the honored customs were kept up family parties were invariably by all who had families to around them.

whose doings gave rise to the incia large gathering of the village The my story clear to my readers, i rreely an income The the only child of the house, consti- idly. the day when she issued her invitawhere she had accompanied her band in a vain search for h bearing with her the body of Wilson, who died in Florence, the babe, whose childish loveliness now made the sunshine of her home. Hetty was housekeeper during sister's absence, and now a loved inmate of that sister's home.

It was the day before the one apson was seated with Hetty in pretty sitting room, both busy ur.on the dainty fashioning of som knots for Effic's white merino dress. ty. Features delicate and pure by large eyes of the deepest blue. while long curls of the true g tinge, fell in profusion over olden shoulders. A child, too, of that matured, winning loveliness of charac ter that seems only fitted for a higher sphere, yet which sometimes on earth to draw souls to Him. The only darling of true Christian women, whose gentle and remarkable sweetness made universally beloved, it was not deriul that the young heart mind were developing beauties and form.

Now, as she stood in the dop it was evident there was weighty request trembling on her lips. Her eyes were eager. cheeks flushed, and the mouth was quivering with xcitement.

"Mamma," she said, lifting may

"Crie company, dear ?" "One person to dinner, just to invite all myself." "But. darling, everybody know, is already invited. "Not everybody, mamma.

to invite old Hunchy !" "And who is old Hunchy nan that has taken the house Will's Lane." "And is it my little Effie calling anyone by an odious nicks continuance." name that is a mockery of misfor- is am very grad you need by "Oh, memma," and the blue shuts himself in so, nobody knows her guests. But why do you want to invite body went home well pleased with remy had already hear

"And you want to ask him here?" "Yes, please." "Well, you may; e will come."

The child bounded off, and a deep silence fell upon the sisters. widow's voice first broke it. "Hetty."

'I know, Lucy. I am afraid, too. Who is this man?' 'All I can tell you is that he took the house that has stood so vacant on the lane nearly a month ago. He is terribly deformed, dirty sure she would s and ragged, and so morose and sur- great even to he ly that no one of the children dares tight sent through Effic to him an awful name."

Yet Effic says he is a gentleman. and you know we have often been compand lignored amused at her intuitive knowledge of true refinement."

Yes-it is best for us to see him, we can. Perhaps-Yes-yes; don't talk of it now !

said Mrs. Wilson, nervously. In the meantime Effic was speeding new but its winning sweetness of down the wide avenue to the gate, out upon the road, and down to had to find flerse slighted for her the cottons where the cottage, where her deformed more billiantly friend lived. She was so much the stathad grown time pet of the whole village that no res- squity, but at traint was ever placed upon her goutle, wanderings, and every inch of the way was familiar to her. The of allo thin unly siect of her visit was seated upon in ments. It was a n low bench before the cottage door, looking out upon vacancies; but of the respe with such an expression of bitter coursesy of a gentle han revenueful passion upon his face same face was ample that the child shrank back involun- for the defects, of his tarily. He was an object to inspire whose noble heart or cultivated a gentle girl with fear as he thus mind were opened gradually, as the sat. Over his forchead the hair fell home atmosphere were sway the ice in a heavy neglected mass, and the of reserve. great black eyes glowed like living chet student, and coals. Upon the deformed shoulders eller one who could the clothes hung in loose folds, fad- yet give varied person ed, soiled, and worn and the hands could cloak pedantil, supporting his head were soiled and learning. His love or Mic was alchehed. Suddenly looking up, he most indiatry, yet has the months saw the child. In an instant his wire away, Lucy market with plea-

"Eloise!" he whispered. am Effie Wilson," she said; oming forward. "True, true, I was dreaming," and he drew her to his side. "It is my

"Why should I be afraid? would not let you hart me."

"No, no; I could not hurt you if gilling to Europe. I would," and he stroked her hair softly.

T came to invite you to our Thanksgiving party, she said -presently. "I-I-" and he hughed a bitter mocking laugh, that made the child | poor | ou d tremble. "I am a pretty figure for a "But it is Thanksgiving Day." "And I have nothing to be thankful for !" and he pushed her away.

"Oh, please." she pleaded; "do not God gives everybody something."

Poor, deformed, hated, mocked been at, without one to love me !" he There was a moment Then she crept up to his arms;

"I love you !" she whispered timtuted her family. Ten years before He clasped her in an embrace so passionate that she almost screamed with terror. "Once," he said hoarsely. "a, face as beautiful as yours lay here, a voice as sweet said 'I love you.' was young, rich and handsome then; now-child, do you love me now?' and he held her where she could see his deformity. "Yes," she answered, simply. "Then I will come to your party, and thank God for your love." "May I go home now?" she said, for his violence had terrified her.

"Yes, go! I will come to-morrow. Can-can you kiss me?" She threw her arms around him, and pressed the fresh, dewy lips upon As they worked, the door opened his, and then went slowly home softly, and the object of their ward. He watched her out of sight, thoughts and busy fingers came in. then turning he went into his home, She was a child of wonderful beau- bolted his door, and, throwing himas self upon the floor, sobbed with the some piece of statuary, were lighted fearful throes of a man in mortal agony, Often, too, broken words escaped him - Eloise, Eloise-loved, trusted, heartless;" and then, lingeringly, the name of the child-"Effe! Effe Wilson-the child says she loves

There was already a large number of Mrs. Wilson's guerts assembled, she is my wife, when. Effic's friend came into the low, by a lighty, handsome parlors. The was radiantly beautiful in her pure dress with its pretty fluttering blue ribbons, came forward at once to meet as him. There was a little blush of bleeding agony he list pure and perfect as the lovely face pride on her face as she noticed his forward upon the appearance. The fair hands were He was still scated now white as a lady's; his hair, carefully arranged, was glossy and when a hard fell thrusingly clustered in heavy natural curls above a broad, white forehead, while the face, calm and composed, was won's voice very handsome. Upon the twisted, frou deformed figure was a suit of hand- frou, some broadcloth, gut to conceal as months after she far as possible the defects of form mank into a construction, first beand the easy grade of his bearing coming the mother of a lovely proclaimed Effie's unerring instinct

> "Mamma," said Effic; leading him forward, "this is my friend, Mr .- " and she hesitated.

"John Mansfield, madam," said, courteously Then, unheeding circled promised with the deathly pallor that came over Why, you know. The humpback her face, he said: "Your little and the word fell with touching on daughter's kindness induced me to power apor the hear so long lonely day to break through a retirement product will have something to day to break through a retirement from society of nearly eleven years' be thankful for."

"I am very glad you honored us," an effort that it made Hetty's heart

It was a successful party. Everythe hostess and entertainment. Yet Tike Holes, yet different, I scarcely Is nobody else to ask him." I was to bed and servants out of the way in him is voice aske sent to bed and servants out of the Anna now Mrs. Wilson paced her parler in an agony that it was dreadful to soid, bend rly

He told in answer to Hetty's tearful sympa- far away none.

God thy 'I thought he was sure he was deal. I tell him?" Oh, Wait a little Lucy. it was a conditional promise. Test his love first, hald his subity," added, in a lower tone. For how long Het'y ?'

The tone was a imploring as that of a crimical plotting for a delay of sentence.

Suppose we sa And we must hivite him often, Hetty. It. only lustice. But it was not long before the act of justice became to Helty a pleathe invitaapproach him. The villagers give accepted and the hune back was soon a constant,

day

eeks' a lov

son's and before

wish t could make something of the Hity Payne's c She had never been beautiful and now in her Unitieth year the was nothing to refrem her face drift pe sitive plainmittractive sister. reserved in was the Lender. ic woman whose quiet graces more valuable than bay tills gentle woman drop egotism. experience: ace lighted up with a look of love sure that Herty's which at-first it seemed incapable of called up to his face. that Herty's No spression of eper emotion the wir to waken. November came, pige again there were preparations foot for Thanksgiving party might before the ex Betty was in the illear when John Mahstiell entered uniffer dunced. Thate come us ifd you h

n Effic hac

She rese from het

the Poice langed. mock me olbu will. Hestler P diales I campt br She sloor Very great light bining g aqually her swel this. Oh, do | matt burse me 1 1 i, and I nevn not free to love inought invhoci dould love me cutly, air tell i Something in he ce and tare him a strange f Why should I tel Hot as I love you, almost worship ove of manhood, w blind idolathy of a so like Effic vonderfully beautiful lders me. that shinetimes it row, and I had large yealth, inher foir, and I had larke Bo died, leav fted from a father Mense factory ng me hely to an Ohe year but in the factory n the endea for to save my pr v. I went hi too late. stunned ices I awolle, the Deggt red to nd I becam revolting to her. never love mer; and when I re of agony to he fled away from the to her father's house. I never how, by a lighty, but by wealth hies dle. I have no hearth o spend, no ight to love !! And having finished is story, told with the alrupt brivey that hides e' before him. maware that Fletty and glided prop the room, his shoulder Jobn Mans eld uelly descrited laved who si ls cousin. Six child. She died in Italy a month be-It was evident this was a gentle- fore my nusband, and I adopted nouse where we the child.

him with Itme Hetly stood before by the band. One something to

The ensyler was willing, brace "Just one year tolly," said Mrs Wilson

"E nce you linkt came here. I was won over by the to send the invitation, though Thad to come.

's voice asked TANOT, Ty ove.

will leave her sec in one usually calm. with the nother who "After so many years," she said, place the ster who loves, to rewill come to my

of Dr. Chase's. | Be sure ottle; family size.