A STORY OF CHRISTMAS EVE

but a mark of a general carelessness, tion. That thought an for things lay at loose ends all over made her smile to herself. the kingdom. The nighways were infested with gentlemen of fortune; said suddenly. even some of good birth had taken to the road as a place which promised adventure and as easy living. upon a journey alone.

pon a journey alone.

Lady Mary had been upon a visit faces. ter was to have ridden with her to citing, he said. toin in the Christmas lestivities at Chudleigh Manor, but the day before aunt's presence in London, so it tell one would live. out that Ludy Mary started alone. The Manor lay about twenty miles honestly. By your voice you are a north of Warwick. Her vehicle was gentleman." a hired chaise ariven by a post-boy, of danger!

There had been a light shawfall in women?" the morning, and the gray clouds were scudding in the heavens driven for company would be nd great comby a masterial wind. The horses, fort," she retorted. though no better than they should have been, made fair headway, and ter Richard, driven to repeat himby four of the clock, had covered the self. greater part of the distance and were within five miles of the Manor. But Newgate," said Lady Mary; and with already at that hour and in that sea- that they both fell silent. son dark had begun to fall.

rugs and furs looked eagerly out of in sight of the lights of the Manor the window for familiar landmarks; and rode up the long avenue under The land thereabout is rullied up in- the bare beech-trees. to ridges quite bare of trees and When they were within ear-shot of moor-like, and the long road skirting the house Lady Mary motioned Masas it does these neights is in some ter Bullock to stop. places uncommon dreary. Whatever down here," she said; and she added Lady Mary's thoughts were, they with a touch of mischief in ner voice, were interrupted very suddenly by a "I am obliged to you for bringing sharp crack, as of the extra loud me." snapping of a whip. The chaise Master Richard gave her a hand stopped with a jerk. As the occu- down. "I wish you a Merrie Christpant put out her head to inquire the mas," he said, soberly. cause a man upon norseback rode up to the side of the carriage and she what with the adventure of riding found a pair of pistols thrust into with a real highwayman I nad welland the sudden apparition caused her inn," he answered. At this the rider himself appeared no less startled than and lowered the pistois. Then, poer-spend this night in such a fashion.

for that of Lord Craven, of Coven-me on the spot?" try, who should be riding this way. tor. He was a youngish man with little trace of his calling in his to escape on one of the horses. The other had been shot dend.

lion she stamped her foot. "Here is had rescued her and brought her a pretty mess indeed! As well be sobbed as left upon a lonely road at talk for the company, who looked this time of night, and five miles upon Master Richard as a hero; but from home!" "I am sorry—" began the man.

not put butter upon bread! And if from the instant he clapped his eyes you are sorry, that does not get me on her he never took them off. She home in time for the Christmas sup- stood there, a slight little figure, the "I am the Lady Chudleigh, of Uhudleigh Manor," she said, proudly. firelight, her fluffy, snuf-colored hair but very much at your service." head which sent the blood to her he held his head high and carried rode, and a thought popped into her himself with a suggestion of bravacheeks; but she was a girl who acted do, a shame for his trade had taken har'd upon impulse and she gave hold of him.

"Will the mare carry double?" not heard aright.

you will have to walk and lead the voice that seemed everywhere about mare while I ride, for I am going to him as he made his way to supper be at home in two hours."

laid back his head and laughed, and season, and Master Richard looked his voice was so round and merry sharply about him for a familiar that Lady Mary fell into his humor face. But he saw none, so he made and laughed too, a rippling bub his mind easy, accepted very grabling, provoking laugh, of a sort to clously the compliments of the ladies, set a man's heart thumping and his and by the side of Lady Mary made

With the coming of the night it had It was a little atter midday on the faired up, the stars twinkled sharply twenty-fourth of December in the in the blue-black heaven, the air was year 1738 that Lady Mary Chud- clear, cold and frosty; on all sides leigh set out upon what was to be stretched. the wide, pale moor; and for her a momentous drive. In that the road wound-ahead into the disyear His Majesty George II. was tance a dusky line traced on the King of Englands the great Walpole whiteness. The cold sent the blood was his minister and the land flowed into her cheeks and Lady Mary bewith fat and plenty. It was a morry came more and more conscious of a land where the gentry looked most distinct exhibitration in thus riding to the enjoyment of life. It was lax, through the night, Strangest'of all, too, in its morals; the King was a she felt no trape of fear but to her cynic and a high-liver, and this was own mind was mistress of the situa-That thought and another "You will miss Lord Craven," she

"I shall be of service to a lady." "One who is so careful of his con-Things being in this state, even in duct toward ladies might well give the most settled parts, it was a a thought to his dealings with men. hardy thing for a woman to start I could find a better use for my pistols than poking them into people's to her aunt at Warwick, and the lat- Master Richard smiled. "It is ex-

"There are the Wars." "Poor you go and poor you come a matter had come up requiring the back; and one must have guineas if "There are ways of getting them

"You will find more than one such and in spite of the lonefiness of the upon the road. After all, what callroad Lady Mary had never a thought ing is honorable when the very bishops buy their bishoprics of the King's "To go to the bad with a bishop

"It was dull at home," said Mas-

"It would be duller in a cell at

As the mare was obliged to carry double she made way but slowly, Lady Mary leaning back among her and it was an hour before they came nigh forgot that it was Christmas Now, although Lady Mary was a eve. But where will you spend it?" fearless person, she was a woman, "In a barn or at a cross-roads

He could see her shake her head in his victim, for he neid back a pace the darkness. "It is an ill way to mas like a Christian." As they talked they were walking got to the Lady Mary's side. toward the house and before Master The highwayman bowed again. "I warm house rushed to greet their the chaise had been set upon by high- said he. As Lady Mary realized the situg- waymen, but that this gentleman come?" home. This of course made much to him it was all one if they said one thing or another. For the first "Fine words," she interrupted, "do time he saw Lady Mary fully, and front of her jacket thrown back her dark gray eyes flashing black in the "And might I ask your destina- wet with frost and tossed about her 'I am master Richard Bullock, his heart gave a great bound, a flush sometime of Yorkshire, now a rover, rose to his eyes and he thanked heaven that it had sent him into the She cast a look at the mare he presence of this lady. And, though

. A servant led him to a room where he made what hasty toilet he could: The man hesitated, as if he had but all the while it was the vision of Lady Mary that he saw in the ot heard aright.
"If she will not," said Lady Mary, mirror, and it was the tinkle of her The house was as full of guests as On this Master Richard Bullock a great house is in the Christmas blood dancing.

"You shall ride, My Lady," answered Master Richard. With a jerk of the sain he brought the mare to the chaise's side; then he slipped back to the crupper and gave Lady Mary a hand to the saddle, where he steadled her with his sim.

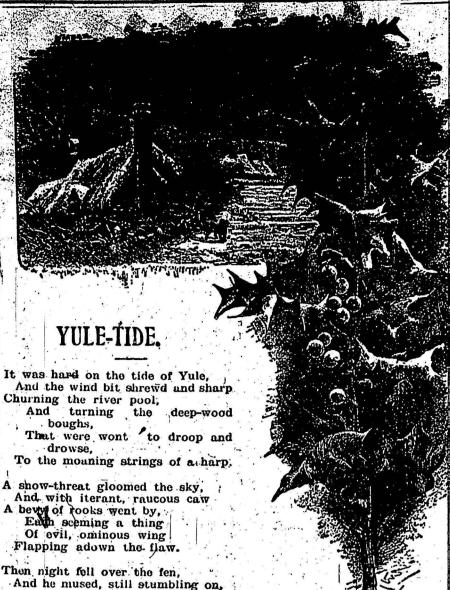

In this fashion they took the road again, leaving the chaise and the dead horse until the postfory should be come for them. As for Lady Mary's feeling glowed and spect to the great men and the pear.

In this fashion they took the road again, leaving the chaise and the great five place at one end in which calling a she answered again. It is to blook the following glowed and spect for the postfore of the fashion they took the road of Lady Mary. The hall was a long room, with a great five place at one end in which calling as a answered are they were a mixture of the great men and the pear.

In this fashion they took the road of Lady Mary heart. The hall was a long room, with a great five place at one end in which calling as a answered.

The hall was a long room, with a great five place at one end in which calling as a answered.

It is it bold to ask one thing more? It is it bold to ask one thing more? It is it bold to ask one thing more? It is it bold to ask one thing more? It is it bold to ask one thing more? It is it bold to ask one thing more? It is it bold to ask one thing more? It is it bold to ask one thing more? It is it bold to ask one thing more? It is it bold to ask one thing more? It is it bold to ask one thing more? It is it bold to ask one thing more? It is it bold to ask one thing more? It is it bold to ask one thing more? It is it bold to ask one thing more? It is it bold to ask one thing more? It is it bold to ask one thing more.

And he grimly laughed, when lo, And there before them all . Did his enemy give him mea And bread of the finest wheat As the Leacon beckoned him. "Well. and golden wine of the best.

> Then he was brought to a room Where rugs were soft on the fle nd a fire made fair the gloom; And warned with a stern behest Of the sacred rights of a guest, A guard was set at the door.

Through the black night-watches los Did he wait on sleep, but when Came the peal of the matin song No slumber had kissed his brow So he girded himself, for now The sunlight lay on the fen.

Then once more did his foe A word from a tongue abhorred-Then back swung the outer ward, Proffer him drink and food: Forth to the court below Did his enemy lead the way. Where as one for a fray, Chaing, a charger stood.

> "Hate-it is burned into shame Scorn-of myself is the scorn; Blame!-I confess the blame; Vengoance is thine !" he said And with averted head heads, and the antlers of stags, his own pleasure.' vants had all come in, and an old that this has covered?" fiddler seated on a little raised plat- "Good-bye," said Lady Mary.

He rode out into the morn.

'Out of the world of men-

Into the shades I go !'

Succor were likely as bread

Or hope in the heart of hell!"

A corpse in the morning air,

He clanged a summons clear,

Keeping his grip on hate:

And he wavered not to hear

Hung as when war-fires rule

Then, ere the wrath-flame died.

"For this is the eve of Yule."

He was bid as a chosen guest:

Welcome !" his enemy cried,

Eyes upon burning eyes

Under the angry skies;

Into the banquet-hall

Frozen as rigid as steel,

A light on his pathway shone !

To be had from a shard or stone.

Or meat from a wolf-gnawed bone,

Yet he steered him sheer on the flare

With a "Here or there, 'tis one!

Or a form on gibbet or wheel-

What matters it how 'tis done !"

And his enemy stood in the gate.

'Mine enemy's tower !" he said, a blunder. I mistook your carriage meeting some one who will recognize with a sour-faced old lady who was aunt to the family. But if his hand By this time Lady Mary had some ter all, it is danger that you court. reel his eyes were all for the niece; "The danger is but little, and, af- touched hers now and again in the what regained her composure, and in Come, you shall spend your Christ- and at the end of the dance he left the aunt with some apruptness and have not yet got so far as robbing senses. Master Richard Bullock lift- honest man," he answered, as he a house and lands in Warwickshire women," he said. As he spoke there was a clatter of and he had no more thought of go- the window bayed, put back the cur-, and Bullock, dated January of the toofs on the opposite side of the car- ing back. His horse went to a ser tain and looked out into the night; year 1774, and the third is an entry riage. The frightened postboy had vant; a minute more and he was and then, though his heart was full under June 17 of the same year taken the opportunity of the parley shaking hands with a bluff, round of speech, he could not bring one the parish register of Hampton inman who was the Lord of the Manor word to his tongue. At last "I did Arden of the marriage of Lady Mary and Lady Mary was explaining that not deserve such good treatment," Chudleigh to Sir Richard Bullock

"In the Christmas time all the exercise the Christmas spirit even to world are friends." "I would I might have you for my ness all round....

friend always," he answered. Even as he spoke there was a murmur of the guests near the door, and MORPHINE HABIT IN FRAN the word, passed from mouth to mouth that the post-boy had arrived Its Frequency Due to Use of Nar with the sheriff and the bailies. Our friend who ran away has returned," said Lady Mary. "But he will not recognize you." But the sheriff knows my face as largely due to the unrestricted u he knows his brother's, for I once of the narcotic in hospitals, is be-voice trembled. "He will not touch amount of morphine taken in pro you. You are a Christmas guest." fessional and society circles is "That he will not, but it is beconsiderable, and added that women cause I will not give him the were his best customers. chance," said Master Richard, quietly; and his voice did not tremble, for known hydrotherapoutic established hers.

kitchen." "And how will you explain?" "I shall tell the truth; but by then you must have ridden out of dan-They slipped out a rear door and into a big kitchen. It was deserted, for the servants were in the great hall; there were no candles, but the log made a dim flicker of light. All about lay remnants of the servants'

"Twere enough to make one an French Army; the second is a deed "Why did you ask me to All of which plainly shows that good often grows out of evil, and that to one's enemies is like to bring happi-

The growing frequency of the phine habit in France, which is face in a fine disorder. As he looked gave him cause. If he lays hands on ginning to cause uneasiness among me up to London I go, and that is those who study the signs of the Lady Mary went white and her Rue de la Paix, Paris, says that the times. A fashionable chemist in th cotics in Hospitals.

Dr. Paul Rodet, head of the he had put his hand down and touch mont in the Rue Boileau, instance as leeply addicted to the drug women "You can go by this door and the of fashion, army men and colonials journalists and politicians, and medical men. Dr. Jacquet adds to this list. Paris working girls, milliners and dress makers to whom chemists sell mor phine too freely and both medica men are agreed that stricter me sures should be enforced with a vi to staying the terrible ravages this dangerous habit.

OVER THE DANGER LINE

"Weary," said Shiney Patches the two were resting as usual, this is my birthday and I draw a deep orcath of relief, for I am out langer." What are you talking about?

T am thirty-live years old or some time I have known that be tween the ages of twenty and thirt

The accessories may be coffee, pop- put desponds of visite dressing on corn, lady apples, peppormints and the top 12 the saint German peppernuts. · ... The menu may be as follows:

Clear Brown Consomme with Snow- and slidblight is a lively unneces.

Cranberry Molds. Celery in Cream Sauce. Rice-balls Popped.

Sauce. Everybody, of course, knows how sugar and particle to make brown consomme, but this verently, but dint we especial consomme is good enough to had been pacrolly hitter away in copy. Take a knuckle of veal and a will become spelland ship of beef, extract the marrow from the prozen while the product which the bones, and brown a few small is mide of ore come of pugar and pieces of beef in it; add these pieces of supply of said to the bones in a kettle of cold threads, her pour water, and brown in the remaining willes of three ty marrow half a carrot, an onion and till stiff: when marrow half a carrot, an onion and ti stiff; when is thoroughly a turnip, all cut in thin slices. Pour better and do do to is added one this, marrow and all, into the soup, pint of wallped credit of transponadd a few sticks of celery, a sprig, ful of valually a two hold cupful cach of parsley and sweet marjoram— can of parsley and sweet marjoram the fresh leaves if possible—and sim- list walker as and a point and canmer-tour hours; then add one table—diet cherriss the points and raisspoonful of salt, six peppercorns and six cloves, simmer another hour, and water, for the six paratin pour through a colander and cheesecloth into a jar. In the morning remove the fat, clear the jeny with around the edgette revent saltegg-white and shell, and when ready water first creeping pack in its to serve heat, fill the plates and put and rocks ft, and least it three or one spoonful of whipped cream mixed four hours to right ten remove with beaten egg-whites and salt on from the woold, we it on a glass nut flavor is not liked; if plain it centre. So we will a space made of should be delicately seasoned with beginns. The property of water until herbs, leaving sage out altogether. laged sign with water until The chestnuts for the garnish are it three it pour his to the well-boiled until tender, but not soft, bedien you's of the land the then dipped in some of the consomme making property of six resonances, and jelly ntelted with a suspicion of gela- engight when the lo give flavor; tin. They are a pretty addition to just a suspecion of s. the turkey, and are just a little more proteinent this will may we used which served as racks for guns and "And it," said Master Richard with a few drops of lemon-juice. The third fishing rods. Here was a gay com-boldly, "if I do this, and one day pany. Besides the family, the sercome back, may I ask for the hand ther pretty, so we must have them. ther pretty, so we must have the line with the balls the time will be the time with the control of the line with the line will be the line ing into the chaise and seeing that its only occupant was a woman he offer that night she had an impulse offer abov.

Madam, says he, "I have made"

"Good-bye," sail Lady Mary, with holly into round balls, the figure of the second form, which was spread with holly and evergreens, was making music he kissed her fingers, she gave him a come in with the;" she averred.

"Good-bye," sail Lady Mary, with boiled rice, mould into round balls, the little raised platlowered eyes. But on a sudden as fry in deep, hot fat, and when cold the fingers, she gave him a come in with the;" she averred.

"Madam," says he, "I have made haster Richard laughed "And risk er's son, and Master Richard danced the raised platlowered eyes. But on a savory croquette mixture of our catural boiled rice, mould into round balls, the little raised platlowered eyes. But on a sudden as fry in deep, hot fat, and when cold the fingers, she gave him a country in the second form, which was spread with holly in deep, hot fat, and when cold the fingers, she gave him a country to the dance.

"You shall the plate of white gelatin and language again into the hot iet until be bons and language again into the hot iet until be bons." the gelatin sticks have all popped. led popper have we Now, for those readers who hold Of course, no one will eat the trim- country ad mars.

that a story is worth little without mings, although they are not bad, be cater; This in a careally a conclusion, I set down parts of but the balls should be all right. called any many be percented three documents, which bear dates in But whatever is left out, the salad but it is appeared to the salad but it is appeared. the forties. The first is a grant of should not be "it" for the salad, it it at least knighthood conferred by His Most an appropriate one, is the "it" in a resolved to feet out it on Richard Bullock, Esq., for gal the sun is now pressed into service about form to part to the sun is now pressed into service about form to part to the sun is now pressed into service about form to part to the sun is now pressed into service about form to part to the sun is now pressed into service about form to part to the sun is now pressed into service about form to part to the sun is now pressed into service about form to part to the sun is now pressed into service about form to part to the sun is now pressed into service about form to part to the sun is now pressed into service about form to part to the sun is now pressed into service about to the sun is now pressed into service about to the sun is now pressed into service about to the sun is now pressed into service about to the sun is now pressed into service about to the sun is now pressed into service about to the sun is now pressed into service about to the sun is now pressed into service about to the sun is now pressed into service about to the sun is now pressed into service about the sun is now pressed in the sun is now pressed into service about the sun is now pressed in the s face. Mayhap it was something she saw there that made her say, "Since you cannot rob Lord Craven you can for I have a purse and jew-les."

Saw there that made her say, "Since rob me, for I have a purse and jew-les."

Cracious Majesty King George II on one Richard Bullock, rsq., for gallant conduct on the field of Detting the roar of laughter, the smell of baked meats and the cheer of the conduct on the field of Detting the roar of laughter, the smell of baked meats and the cheer of the conduct on the field of Detting the roar of laughter, the smell of baked meats and the cheer of the conduct on the field of Detting the roar of laughter, the smell of baked meats and the cheer of the conduct on the field of Detting the roar of laughter, the smell of baked meats and the cheer of the conduct on the field of Detting the roar of laughter, the smell of baked meats and the cheer of the conduct on the field of Detting the roar of laughter, the smell of baked meats and the cheer of the conduct on the field of Detting the said that lady, as she smiled into the cheer of the conduct on the field of Detting the roar of laughter, the smell of baked meats and the cheer of a personality by artistic touches individual to herself throughout, but for him to recommend with so the she may take chances with her salad worn a tracket that would be extremely hazardous covered that here in any other course. Therefore, let hyrienic contary will go the salad be a novelty, but not an this piece should is absurd one. The contents thereof tal and similar may never be guessed, but there the discusses of should be congruity at least. A de- slill be appeared in licious novelty is a mixture of canned green peas boiled in their own juice, drained and cooled, then mixed with cut (not chopped) walnutmeats. These should rest in a marinade of French, dressing for one inade of French dressing for one hour, then be put into halves of wind the bet will lemons which have been scooped out in the lease in and their outsides denuded of every in a sach of imp particle of yellow cuticle line shear wen these lemon cups total on leaves of very white lettuce and to cook to indicate two hours.

ATTACKING SANTA

Clear Brown Consomme with Snow- and strategy in the same balls in Each Dish.

Small Turkey Stuffed with Chestnuts two swints we will break over in honor of the say and at the same time favor twentiet contary taste. A mince pie we mus tion's 50 see, for centilities ago it was Salad of Peas and Nuts in Lemon-the most serous cupact to the cups.

Only street in the called An Oblong Mince Pie Covered with a street was hard was hard oblong to White Frozen Plum Pudding, Banana for bald cars a a org, square tin come it with ristling and enjoy. distilled until it souly over the beaten uneach one, piling it up so as to look round discound ground with holly.

The turkey may have a plain bread look quite the deal toward the tiful women of the house; below these i "The man who carries it must tiny round-bottomed cups or glasses. may be used to refined than a sausage garnish. The house is the plane-pud-cramberry jelly may be moulded in district the property of the chase boars' serve his King and country and not heads, and the antiers of stags, his own pleasure.'

ateral. for so much by a miracle il opped corn;

Waters and Salan cakes calreally unne-Win hardly pe pelicetica, time to SteP erfect in dethese cre is usfied.

COOK SC UNTIL WATER water was his by a residen peath surface of the 1 he pudding the whole eat of Vio came in conis sufficibil roronth, Doc. 17.—The wheat marlet is less active, with buyers holding off at 75t to 75c middle freights.

No. 2 goose steady at ooc middle,
No. 3 goose steady at ooc middle froight, and No. I spring is quoted at 73c east. Diam toon wheat easier. with No. 1 hard spiling at 890 and rail, via Sarand Lynner, No. of Actthern at 85c, and No. 2 Northern at Bie all rail, via Surpia. E Via North Bay to less. Bay ic less. ces weaker. Ao. 2 white soul it york. The market is steady, (ver lew oliering. No 2 quoted at Sign rest, and at 824 to Soc 1000 the top 12 the same the end of sources and the cond of saveries and the conduction of sweets, beights. corn-The market is strong. 2 yellow Canadian sold at 62 to 6. west. Barley-Market dull and camer. No. quoted at 50c, and No. 2 3-r. in s extra at 50c, and No 3 he 1 mudle reight.

Rye—The market continues Hidie for tradiwith prices at bos to obe here freights. Buckwheat-There is a tale degree freights. with sales at 542 to ble at freights. per cents., in buy ers' bugs, 'q granulated . at $2.50 middle treight with ings small. Locarty apaleon t and when it Province trade dadise between > at 83.90, and strok; base $3.80, Toronto freight Oatmeal-Samuel unclaiment lots on track 85005 mil 85.50 in wood Lroken, to ... bu extra.

>
> Millied—Bran is tirm at 81% bu extra. freights for export, Ani at 11 Shorts, $20 low treath the and $21 here. | Manity-in Line and shorts $22, Toronto ... sluding sacks. PRODUCE. Potatoes-The market firm. Cars are quoted at hag on track here, and the prices are 80 to 85c. Dried Apples-Market in lers, in wood, are Simulation

Manitoba flours are bits. A.

Roses selling at $4.20; fell

THE MARKETS

Prices of Grain, Cattle, etc in Trade Centres.

Prices are 51 to 60 per line 1. ated sell at 11. to 10c. Hops-Business quiet, v steady at 13c; yearlings, Sec. Honey—The market is a start of to 10c. Combs. Si $2.50 per dozen. Peans-The market is the and handpicked at $1.75.

picked are jobbing at Stall ... Cranberries - Market Market with Cape Cod at So to Call. Echadian, $6.50 to $7. with good demand. Sallthy at $9.50 to $9.75. etc to.

firm. Car lots on tratt $6.25 per ton. Poultry-Trade is quiet mand limited. We que! (dry picked) 7 to 8s; person lucks, 60 to 70c; chickens, ; 20 45c; old, 25 to 35c.

THE DAIRY MARKING Butter-The market is copes are fair, but chice ; good denland and him. The que choice dairy tubs and rolls, it tected 1-th rolls, 1 a to 18. Ball s, 11 to 13c. Pacades eed, I to be per 10 less than alquotations! Creamery problem. 22c; do solids, 20 to 20 c. legs-Market min. . we fresh, 22 to 23c; cold store; to 19c, and limed, 10 to 1,000

Cheese-the | market as ch. prices firm at 92 to 10% Hogs AND PROVISIONS Dressed hogs are unclassification in car lote. Hog Prophet Ne quote: Bacon, tong at 10gc in ton and care ! pork, $19.50 to $20; do +

Smoked Meats - Hans, 1: cm last bacon, 14c; rous, file. 14c, and shoulders, 101c. Lard-Market | winning quote: Tierces, 104c, this pails, 111c; Fearman's, 8.

UNITED STATES MARK Duluth, Dec. 17 .- Crossic Cash, No. 1 hard, 77.6. thern 71 c; No. 1 North tember, 741c; May, 77, c. Oats Not quoted. close, No. 1 Northern, V. 100 No. 2 Northern. 76 to 801d. Ryd-Dull; No. 1 622 12

Barley-Duil; No. 2, 62c; in the to the. Corn-May, 66,1 19 (Toledo, Dec. 17,-William cash, 821c; Lecember, Sale 871c. Corn December. 4. Oats December. 4. Cloverseed-December $5 March, $5.80. Buffalo, Dec. 117.-- Flour - Piles.

demand. Wheat-Spring, with 1 Northern, 83c. Corn Plant, to yellow, 711c; No. 3 do, 71c; No. corn, 701e; No 3 do., 70c. O. Weak; No. 2 white, 52c; No. 3 6 19c. Barley-65c to 70c; fair to .. ry nil Ryc-No. 1, 70c. Detroit, Dec. 17.—Wheat- C. No. 1 White, cash, 811e; No. 2 10 ash and December, 831c; Juin 941c; May, 86c. St. Louis, Dec. 17. Wheat Cles Cash, 821c; December, 8216 Me

LIVE STOCK MARKETS. Toronto, Dec 17 .- At the Wester tattle market to-day the receipt were 78 carloads of live stuff, in cluding 1,200 cattle, 1,300 sheep an ambs. 800 hogs, 15 calves, and dozen failch covrs

There was a good demand for sh ers at from 41 to 5c per 1b, and 5