Address and Presentation.

The residence of Mr. John Beckett, 11th line, Euphrasia, was the scene of a pleasant surprise on Friday evening last. A company of about sixty assembled and were entertained during the early part of the evening by dancing and games of various kinds. Following this came an excellent supper provided by the ladies of the neighborhood, but the most interesting part was the presentation to Mr. and Mrs. Beckett of a magnificent mantle clock and to Miss Edna a silver cake plate. The following address was read by Miss Jean Struthers and Miss Nellie Bradey, and Miss Linda Struthers made the presentation. Following is the address:

Cherry Grove, Jan. 17th, 1902.
To Mr. and Mrs. JOHN BECKETT.
Dear Friends:—For some time past we have known of your departure from among us, and the prospect of this has weighed heavily upon us. We have come together this evening to express our regrets. We will miss you, especially in our social circles. We have recognized your influence over us as elevating, to meet you was always to meet a smile. You have always been diligent in promoting the interests of each one of us and we can truly say we are better for having known you. Permits us to wish you God speed in your new home and that you may long be spared to enjoy the richest blessings which this world can bestow. We now ask you to accept these presents as a small token of the esteem of the people of Cherry Grove and surrounding country. Signed: Jean Struthers, Nellie Bradey, Linda Struthers.

When the address was concluded Mr. Beckett, though taken completely by surprise, expressed their gratitude by a few well chosen remarks. The guests now resumed their amusement until the small hours of morning came, when all dispersed to their homes.

Does It Pay to Buy Cheap?

A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the only remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles. "Bosche's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, give a good night's rest and cures the patient. Try one bottle. Recommended many years by all druggists in the world. Sold by R. L. Stephen, druggist, Markdale.
