From South Africa.

The following, tho' not intended for the press, is a letter home from Bliss Williams, son of J. D. Williams, near Holland's entree. We are indebted to Mr. Williams for the privilege of publishing it.

Newcastle, Feb. 27, 1902.
My Dear Mother.—We have passed our first week in Africa. It has been a pretty busy one. The first two days on the train, a day and a night in camp, and then our troupe with a few others had the honor of going to the front first. We went up from Newcastle to Botha's Pass on foot to guard some trenches and are now back in camp at Newcastle. We were crowded pretty well on the train, but came through safe. Our horses had a hard trip. We came from Durban through Buller's fighting ground, through Ladysmith to Newcastle. It was pretty hot at first. A fellow has to rustle for enough to eat sometimes, but generally we have a lot of first-rate rations. The march to Botha's Pass was pretty heavy, but guarding the trenches was easy. Unfortunately the main force of Boers did not come our way so we had only a few shots and heard a few bullets whizz. The Boers broke through 20 miles farther up among some Tommies. There was a very complicated barbed wire fence right through for forty miles, a blockhouse with seven Tommies in every 800 yards, and a trench with six Canadians in between each blockhouse. The Canadians only extended through Botha's Pass and thereabouts. We had a good time. We thought it quite an honor to have our troupe among the first 150 at the front. Our only trouble in the trench was mosquitoes. Our chief fun was cooking and eating fat bacon and sliced potatoes which are delicious. You would laugh to see the Kaffirs and Zulus here. There are a great many interesting things to be seen. Fine apples are about a penny each. Fruit is plentiful. Col. Evans has arrived but his camp is quarantined.

Feb. 29th.—I hear we are to change camp; I don't know, for sure. If we do I think we only go about five miles. I am glad I joined the contingent. It is a very interesting trip; work easy, excitement enough and money fair. It is really a very lazy life—about like school teaching. I am afraid I will be too lazy to work ever afterwards. I am burned and tanned like an Indian. I go about most of the time with shirt collar open and sleeves rolled up. I wash about once in three days and have not shaved since I left the boat. By using a little oil of cedar I think I can hold on to my clothes. I have not washed any of my clothes yet. When I get tired of one change I try another. I am going to turn them all inside out soon and begin over again. I get on fine riding; my horse is like old Belle in temper and color. I call him 'Billy.'

Some of our mail is detained at Evan's camp, where the small-pox is; two or three cases. We are getting a new pair of riding pants each this afternoon. They are an excellent piece of goods, but some are sad misfits; regular bloomers, Mine are alright. We wear a nice broad felt hat that keeps the sun off. I got a letter from Toronto and expect some others from home every day. It is quite interesting sleeping out. We have a small oil-cloth, a blanket and a big overcoat. We roll up with a few tin cans in our haversacks for pillows and sleep until five o'clock in the morning, when 'reveille' sounds. Then we fall in for the stables, feed our horses and groom them; then we breakfast on bread, tea, jam and bacon in small quantities. We have dinner at noon and get bread, tea and jam. At supper we get soup, meat, potatoes and bread. On the march we get hard tack and canned beef or mutton, and coffee or tea. Well I must close as our weekly mail goes soon. Love to all.

Your loving Son,
Bliss.

Death of Wm. R. Crohe.

Mr. William R. Crohe, junior commercial master of the Central Business College, Stratford, died in the city hospital on Thursday, April 10, from acute peritonitis. Mr. Crohe was 25 years of age and was formerly a student in the Collingwood Collegiate Institute. He taught in the public schools for some time and three years ago entered the Central Business College as a student. After completing his course he secured a position as teacher in the Rider Business College, Trenton, N.J. where he remained one year. He returned to Canada and was appointed a teacher in the C.B.C.

Mr. Crohe was a first-class teacher and was held in high esteem by the students. His kind manner and gentlemanly bearing won for him many friends. The funeral service, which was held at the residence of Mr. W. J. Elliott, principal of the college, at 3:30 Friday afternoon, was conducted by Rev. A. H. Goings, B.A., of whose church Mr. Crohe was a member. Four brothers and one sister survive him. Three of the brothers, Richard J., of Ottawa, John E., of this place, and Arthur, of Philadelphia, were present when he died. The remains were taken by the 4:30 train to Ottawa to be interred in the family burying ground.

Three beautiful floral wreaths were contributed by college friends, one by the students, one by the teachers, and one by Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Elliott.

They Father Consumption.

Cold-coughs, colds and catarrh are responsible for more consumption than is traceable, even to heredity. Catarrho cures more quickly than ordinary remedies because it is the only antiseptic yet discovered that is volatile enough to reach the root of the disease in remote parts of the lungs and bronchial tubes, and imprisons every particle of the air breathed with its healing germ-killing vapor. Colds can last ten minutes, or coughs more than thirty minutes when Catarrhozone is inhaled. It clears nose, throat and air passages at once, stops dropping headache, and eradicates catarrh from any part of the system. Two months treatment $1.00, trial size 25c. Druggists of N. C. John Kelly and family have moved onto Mrs. Downey's place on the east back line. John is preparing to go to Yellow Grass, Assa.

Adam Clarke has moved onto the farm, which he has purchased. Robt. Winlaw now has Samuel Martin as head sawyer.

Jim Grant, who got his ankle bone split with an ax at Winlaw's mill, has been sent to the hospital at Owen Sound. It is feared the foot will have to be amputated.

Fruit trees are being delivered. Wedding bells may be heard a week hence.

We very much regret to have to report that Samuel Martin has met with the misfortune of losing his only horse.

The stove pipes in our school came down suddenly of their own accord last Friday. The little accident gave the pupils a holiday.

A real genuine taffy pull took place Friday night at Maple Hill and an enjoyable evening was spent. Music and games followed.

"A Correction."

Editor Standard.—Kindly allow me space in your paper to reply to "A Correction" in THE STANDARD of last week, speaking of the correspondent's informer as he used my name. I take it that Mr. Fawcett means me, so in reply to his correction I would say that he failed to show a correction at all, for he himself says at the first, so we still say two hundred dollars would have settled with Dr. Bibby had it been offered at the time of his discharge, before he (Mr. Fawcett) talked adversely about the Doctor, and that is the time we call the first, and we would say to Mr. Fawcett keep don't take a leap covering a period of three months, and not at first as he would appear to have us believe. It appears a little like getting away from moral training. When we find the minutes say Mr. Davis got the money, $82.90, on September 9th, and after that is the time he (Mr. Fawcett) speaks of, which was about three months after they discharged the Doctor. Now Sir, is this the way to prove that the Doctor could not take two hundred dollars at first, by saying Davis asked in his presence and that of T. B. Carruthers how much he would take and then refers us to T. B. Carruthers. He says it was at the time the money was tendered Dr. Bibby that Davis and Fawcett met in his shop, and he (Carruthers) has no recollection of Mr. Davis asking what the Doctor would take, and Mr. Fawcett told me on September 27th when I asked him why they did not offer more, as I thought he would get more than that, he said we dare not or we could not prove a bargain; and now he would indicate that they would have given more. We think this is not in harmony with the position he told us he held Nomination Day at Rocklyn.

Valuable Advice to Mothers.

If your child comes in from playing coughing or showing evidences of an approaching attack of Grippe, Sore Throat, or sickness of any kind, first thing get out your bottle of Nerviline, Rub the chest and neck with Nerviline, and give internal doses of ten drops of water every two hours. This will prevent any serious trouble. No liniment or pain reliever equals Polson's Nerviline. Large bottles cost only 25c.
