Berkeley

Mr. Robert Lackey, of Owen Sound, and Mr. Wm. Jackson, of Port Law, came to Berkeley to be with their lodge on the 12th. Mr. Joseph Lund, of Thornbury, drove over on Saturday to see the place and renew old acquaintances.

Statute labor has been the order of the day in this locality for the last couple of weeks. We think it is about time our council took a step forward and adopted some other system of improving our roads.

Harry David, who has been under the weather for some time, is at work again.

While Hamilton Acheson of Boggor was hitching his horse at Thomas Sargent's barn on Monday, an engine on the railroad gave a shrill whistle and the horse not being used to it took fright and ran away.

The Orangemen of the District of Holland together with L.O.L. No. 801, Chatsworth, celebrated the anniversary of the Battle of the Boyne in this place on Saturday last. The day was fine and a more orderly crowd could not have been gotten together anywhere.

The members of St. Matthias Church took in $30 for lunch and refreshments.

give an address and began by saying that Orangism was purely a religious and patriotic institution. When the order was instituted there was this fundamental principle insisted on, viz: That the person asking admission to the Orange order should be a member of the united Churches of England and Ireland.

Mr. Jas. Ryan, sr., is enjoying some well earned holidays. He is visiting his brother Patrick and family in Linesville, Penn.

The frame of J. J. Livess' monster barn is being put into position this week by means of a block and tackle, and is manipulated by that expert framer, Will Banks.

Mr. and Mrs. Samnel Patterson, of Egrement, Sundayed with Mr. and Mrs. George Peart.

The Delaney home has been made lively and bright the past fortnight by the presence of winsome Miss Marguerite O'Reilly, niece of the obliging post mistress, and Mrs. Wm. Presnail and Master Norman, all of Hamilton.

While the curses freely slip from the angry farmer's lip as his wagon swirls and slips, in its tide, in its tide.

'Tis at the stock yard gate, where is dumped the living freight, and for ten years has it deeper grown, wider grown;

Many a pig and many a lamb have through the murky waters swam ere they reached the sagging gate, the dragging gate.

Our young ladies held an ice cream social on the lawn of Mr. Frank Loughton on the evening of the 12th. All report having a good time.

Miss Clara Price returned home on Saturday after a short visit with friends at Ceylon and Markdale.

We are glad to report that Mr. John Watson, who has been on the sick list for some time is somewhat better and will soon be able to be out again.

We understand that Mr. S. Leach, of Owen Sound, has bought out Mr. Paul Wardell, and will take possession the 4th August.

It was with sadness that we learned of the accident which befell Mr. R. H. Olmstead on Tuesday evening of last week. Accompanied by Mrs. Olmstead and their daughter Cora they went down to the pond to catch some fish.

They had but reached the bank when R. H. stepped on some long grass on the sloping bank of the pond, slipped and fell, breaking his arm in the old wound, after eight months of suffering, care and anxiety from the shooting accident of last fall, and just when hopes were growing brighter that this arm would be little the worse of the former accident.

Much sympathy is felt for Mr. Olmstead and family and we wish him a speedy recovery.

Mr. George Smith, of Halifax, is the guest of his brother, Mr. Myles Smith, of the Queen's Hotel here.

Mr. Geo. Hanbury is spending his holidays at home. He has been teaching school up near Sault Ste. Marie.

Miss Lynetta Haubury is visiting her sister, Mrs. Wilson, in Alliston.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Noble and family left to-day (Tuesday) for Orxow, Man., to attend the golden wedding of Mr. Noble's father and mother.

Mr. Samuel Wilson, his daughter Minnie and son Herbert of Providence Bay, Manitoulin Island, visited Mr. Wilson's sister, Mrs. J. W. Whitty, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Beeton and son Gordon, of Flesherton, and Mrs. Annie Nesbitt and her two boys, Garry and Walter, of Markdale, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Whitty on Sunday.

The Battle of the Boyne was celebrated in loyal style in town on Saturday last. The town was beautifully decorated with arches, flags, bunting and evergreens.

After dinner the procession, headed by the Citizens Silver Band, paraded to the grove where the following speakers delivered addresses: Reva. Ross of Orillia; Mills of Ceylon, and the resident ministers, Messrs. Hill, Wellwood and Buchanan.

The crowd which was large and orderly dispersed about five o'clock and wended their way home; and thus ended another celebration of the glorious victory at the Boyne.

Does Your Baby Cry at Night? If so it is well to know the great value of Polson's Nerviline, a household remedy for stomach pains, cramps, toothache, sick headache, and the manifold ills peculiar to children.

A few drops of Nerviline in sweetened water makes a pleasant drink and never fails to quickly relieve. Nerviline is as good as the doctor in emergencies, and costs only 25c. a bottle. Get Nerviline from your druggist to-day. Dr. Hamilton's Mandrake Pills for Headache.
