Surprise Party.

A genuine surprise party took possession of the home of Rev. W. N. Chantler on Friday evening, Nov. 7th. The company consisted of twenty-five of the members and friends of New England appointment, who came to spend the evening with their pastor and his family. Mr. R. J. McAfee was elected chairman. He explained the purpose of the gathering and presented the pastor with a well-filled purse From full baskets, which the friends had brought, an ample repast was spread, to which full justice was done by all. The evening was spent in most enjoyable and pleasant manner. Such gatherings tend to strengthen the bond binding pastor and people. May prosperity attend the work in which they are interested.

Mrs. Nesbitt Dead.

Mrs. Neslitt, widow of the late Andrew Nesbitt of the suburbs, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Armstrong, in Orangeville on Thursday Nov. 6. Deceased had been in poor health for several months and left here some five weeks ago intending to visit and spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Weeks in New York state, but stayed off at Orangeville on the way there to visit relatives for a few days. Here she was taken ill and passed away as above. Her body was brought to Markdale Friday and interred in the Public Cemetery the following day. Deceased with her late husband have been respected residents for 40 years,

This annual event which is alway looked forward to with much pleasure and expectation by school children and parents, took place in the Marsh Hall on Friday evening last and was in every particular a genuine success. It was evident that the teachers and Mr. J. H. Dundas-to whom much of the success attending these annual events is due—had spared no pains and time in training the children; and their efforts, which culminated in the successful concert on Friday night, apparently was much appreciated by the parents and others who turned out in large numbers. The programme commenced at eight o'clock and every number was exceptionally well rendered and all were enthusiastically applauded. The following were the numbers on the programme in the order given: Opening Prayer, Junior Pupils: Chorus. "His Majesty the King," School; Readings, Harold Mercer. Ethel Armstrong, Harold Haskett; Piano Solo, Eileen Trelford; Motion Song, "The Bee," Sixteen Little Tots; Solo. "Hide Behind the Door when Papa Comes,' Gladys Cæsar; Readings, Gertie Kelly, and Willie Trelford; Solo, "Coon, Coon, Coon," Dell Ego; Part Song. 'The Skating Song," Boys; Readings, Mary Hunter and Mary Stafford; Piano Solo. Fred Lucas: Valedictory, Ida Ethel Gibson; Presentation of Prizes. Diplomas and Medals by Rev. Mr Hunter, Dr. Ego and Dr. L. G. Campbell. A pleasant feature of this part of the programme was the presentation by the pupils to their principal, Mr. Rowe, of a fountain pen and a nicelyworded address to which Mr. Rowe feelingly replied. Miss Lolita Brown read the address and Miss Mary Hunter made the presentation. The remainder of the programme was as follows: Chorus, "Tally Ho," School; Motion Song, "Tip-toe," Miss Macpherson's class; Solo, "Daddy," Lolita Brown; Chorus, "Under the Flag," Boys; Solo, "The Cradle Song," Nora King; Flag Drill, Miss Giles' class; Reading, 'Seein' Things at Night,' Willie Brown; Pantomime, Six little girls; Solo, "Stay-in Your Own Back Yard," Fernie Watson: Chorus. "Evening Bells," Senior Girls: "God certainly be a treasure in some quiet; coppers, nickels, dimes and quarters, Save the King." The band was in home where the prattle of children is which totalled up the sum of $51. His attendance and gave several selections not known. Clubbing Rates. Newell left Markdale with the remains of their daughter en route for Port Dover, where the last sad rites were to be performed. On the morning of Saturday, the day of the funeral, a celebration of the Holy Communion was observed at 7.30 a.m. by the Rev. Robert Herbert, rector of Port Doyer, at which the immediate friends of the family were present, at the home of Mr. E. J. Low. At 10 o'clock the weeklies except Family Harald, funeral-service was held in St. Paul's Church when the rector was assisted by the Rev. Rural Dean Hicks. B. D., and the Rev. Canon Young, D.D., both of Simcoe, the county town. The floral tributes both from Markdale and elsewhere were numerous and beautiful, and attested the affection in which Ethleen was held. One special mark of respect must have special mention here. On the morning of Mr. and Mrs. Newell's departure from Markdale Mr. Rowe, principal of the school. marched the pupils of the school to the rectory, where they lined up on either side from the front door to the street as the casket was borne to the hearse. .They then marched to the depot in the procession. For this kindly mark of respect and for the many other tokens of goodwill and sympathy on the part of his many friends, the Rev. Mr. Newell desires us to return his sincere and heartfelt thanks.

Horse and Buggy Stolen.

One day last week two picture agents called at the livery stables of M. Oliver of this place and hired a horse and buggy for the day, promising to return same night. It appears, however, that for only a short period before her Nelson, who died on Friday hatt, and such was not their intentions, as they failed to come back, and during the following day Mr. Oliver strongly suspected that the strangers were dishonest, and started a detective in pursuit. They were traced to Durham, suffering from the fatal disease, dia- headquarters while superint hiding the thence to Hanover, but no further trace could be found. Cards bearing a description of the men and turnout word issued and sent through the mails, and in answer word came from Shelthe description given, had driven to the Royal Hotel leaving the horse and buggy and had decamped. This proved to be Mr. Oliver's property and on Monday of this week the horse and buggy were returned to their owner. No further tidings has been gleaned of the whereabouts of the picture agents. and continued efforts to capture them have been abandoned, unless they return to ply the picture business, which is not likely.
