Rev. L. W. Thom attended meeting Presbytery at Orangeville, Tuesday. Mrs. A. McGirr, of Feversham, paid here daughter, Mrs., G. Mitchell, a visit last week. Mrs. M. K. Richardson entertained number of elderly lady friends at tea on Monday evening.

Mr. M. K. Richardson, M. P. attended an A. O. U. W. banquet at Dundalk on Monday evening.

We were sorry to learn on Saturday that Mr. Colwell Carson, a very highly respected old gentleman, on the Meaford Road, is seriously ill.

Mr. A. Munshaw and daughter, Miss Mabel, spent part of last week in Toronto, and Mr. W. J. Bellamy visited friends at Collingwood.

Mr. Jas. McMullen, west back line, who has recently come through a severe illness, was in town on Saturday | this week. and his friends were pleased to see him able to be out again.

Rev Wilson and a number of our young people attended a Referendum neeting at Port Law on Monday evenng. A series of meetings, is now ar ranged for throughout the township. An oil stove, used for heating soldering irons in F. G. Karstedt's hardware store, exploded one day last week and Mr. J. McLennan, salesman, got a blast in the face which gave him a pretty severe burn. It might easily have been mu worse with him.

The W.F.M. Society in the Methodist church had a specially interesting time at their monthly meeting on Thursday last. Arrangements had been made for refreshments and a short program, both of which were carried out and enjoyed by all present.

A big stump in J. H. Heard's lot opposite his residence on Durham street, was the scene of interesting blasting operations one day last week. Several shots were fired, but the big snag, though shattered, as tenaciously clung to its seat as does the member for North Grey.

Mrs. W. E. Southgate, of Toronto, who is visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. G. Mitchell, missed her footing while descending the stairs on Sabbath morning last and fell considerable distance to the bottom. Fortunately no bones were broken, but a number of severe and painful bruises were sustained.

The Presbyterian C. E. Society of this place is now conducting a week night meeting on the east back line, which is being well attended and much appreciated in the community. A parlor social is to be held under the auspices of the society on Wednesday evening of next week at Mr. A. Thistlewaite's, east of the village.

Rev. W. Ayers occupied the Presbyterian pulpit with the pastof on Sunday afternoon last and preached an excellent sermon to a full congregation. In e beginning of his address Mr. Ayers paid a loyal and fitting tribute to Britain's Monarch, who was that day celebrating his 61st birthday. The National Anthem was heartily sung for the closing number in the service.

On Friday last at Orangeville, Mr. Win. Large, of Listowell, formerly of this place, and Miss Reenie Munshaw, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. Munshaw, of Eugenia, were happily joined in wedlock. Mr. Large, who is a mechanic of rare skill, is at present employed at Shelburne, where, we understand, he was given a hearty reception on his arrival with his bride.

At the close of the prayer meetings on Thursday evening last a meeting of prohibition workers was held in the Methodist church to arrange for getting out the temperance vote on December 4th. A committee of nine was appointed to canvas each ratepayer in the polling division in which Flesherton is Mr. Condy on Main street. situated. A prohibition rally is to be held in the Methodist church on Wednesday evening this week when Rev. W. A. Rodwell, of Markdale, and others will deliver addresses.

On Monday evening of last week there passed away at his comfortable home on the 4th line, Artemesia, Mr. W. R. Dyson, who went down rapidly with general tubercolosis which developed into an alarming condition only about a month ago. Mr. Dyson was born in London, England, 66 years ago. At the age of 22 he came to Canada and remained 8 years. He then returned home where he married and remained till 1888, when with his family he returned to this country and purchased the fine farm on which he has since lived. He was an intelligent, upright and highly respected gentleman, and will be much missed in the community. A widow and two sons, Herbert and Harman, at home, and son Arthur in Australia, survive him. On Wednesday afternoon a largely attended funeral took place to the Elesherton cemetery where his remains were laid at rest. His pastor, Rev. Ivison Wilson, assisted by Rev. Mr. Ayers, conducted the burial services at the house and grave. Contracts to let for cutting and hauling part way to mills of the saw logs on 30 acres, lot 8, con, 8, and a similiar

After a couple of months spent in New Ontario, near Port Arthur, Mrs. Chas. McClocklin is expected home Miss Mary Delaney has an excellent position as musician in the Hamilton asylum. Miss Maggie is, also, one of its skillful nurses. There was a big bee at Zion on Saturday afternoon. Nearly a score of the smartest fellows met and while one gang cleaned chimneys and stovepipes, the other force put a new roof on one of the sheds. They worked with a will. Traverston mill re-opened last week, after being closed some months for repairs. Mr. Ross is a worker and has made a job thoroughly up-to-date. He has torn out the old flume and bulkhead and put in a new one 114 feet long, 41 feet in diameter. It is made of first quality pine. The chopper is busy now day and far into the night and in a few days the flour department will be in shape. Besides Mr. Ross intends to keep in stock the finest grade of oatmeal made on the continent.
