Hints for Xmas. Shoppers.

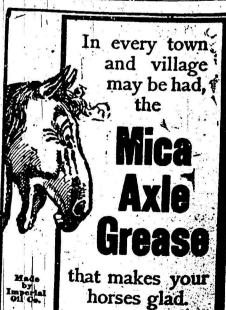

From now until the Xmas. holidays we'll be busy-very busy-as a matter of course. In view of this we'd like as many as can convenient-Is do so, to do their shopping in the forenoon if possible. There's more leisure, smaller crowds and a better service generally than during the rush and crowds of the afternoon. Everything in perfect readiness at 8 p c'clock. Come then if you can, or as soon after as possible.

Church Wedding.

At 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon a large number assembled at the Baptist church to witness the marriage of Miss Florence Truen, only daughter of the hie Richard Truen, Presbyterian minister at Cambridge, England, to Mr. John E. Wright, a well-to-do young farmer, of Ceylon, near Flesherton. This was the first marriage ceremony performed in the church since it was parchased from the Primitive Methodist congregation many years ago. The edifice was beautifully decorated with plants and flowers, and the appearance it presented was, very fine, the bride and groom standing under a canopy of greenery. The bride and her stepfather, Mr. Moses Dodds. who gave her away, came down the aisle to the strains of Lohegrin's wedding march, played by the organist, Mrs. McDonald. ander whose skilful fingers the instrument gave out its most melodious sounds. Then came the fairy bridesmaid, little May Ridley, daughter of Mr. John Ridley, who was dressed in white dotted organdie and looked fairylike and sweet, carrying a basket of flowers, she was followed by the two bridesmaids, Misses Nellie Laughlen. of Toronto, and Mabel McKitrick, the former wearing a gown of white silk with train, trimmed with embroidered chiffon. A white picture hat with white tips completed the costume. She carried punk roses. Miss McKitrick, was dressed in white organdie prettily trimmed with lace, and she wore a white hat. Her bouquet was white and yellow chrysantheums. The bride's dress was white organdie entrain with trimmings of chiffon, lace and baby ribbon, and she wore a long talle veil, caught up by orange blossoms. She held a shower bouquet of white roses, lily of the valley and maiden hair ferp. The groomsmen were Mr. Fred Wright brother of the groom. and Mr. Geo. Truen, the bride's brother. Beside them stood Master Charlie Burrell, who acted as ring bearer, carrying the golden circuit within a calla lily. The ceremony was performed by the popular pastor, Rev. C. E. Burrell, who has had considerable experience in tying silken knots, acted as ushers where Messrs. James Fuller, Alfred Temple, Harry Harding and Will Savage. At the conclusion of the event J. Lynn took a photograph of the church and its principal occupants and then the guests, to the number of about eighty, accompanied the bridal party to the bride's home where a reception was held. The house was made gay with bunting and evergreens, and looked very pretty. A by caterer Frampton. The bride received many beautiful presents, and the groom presented her and the bridesmaids with suitable gifts. The choir sang, "Sweet Silver Bells," as the bridal party left the church. About twents guests were present from Flesherton. Mr. and Mrs. Wright leave for Jome this evening. The members of the choir presented the bride with a beautiful chair .- Orangeville Sun, Nov. 20.

CONSUMPTION AN UNKNOWN DISEASE IN TEN YEARS.

Statement of Dr. John Forguson-The New Free Consumptive Hospital an Immediate Helper to this End.

The statement of Dr. John Ferguson, one of Toronto's well-known physicians, that "if consumptive patients were properly isolated and treated, within ten years from now tuberculosis would be one of the rarest of known diseases," ought to prove an encouraging stimulus to the friends of the new Free Consumptive Hospital to hurry along subscriptions towards the furnishing of this institution, capable of admitting at once fifty patients, and without any charge. The curability of tuberculosis is clearly in evidence in the records of the Muskoka Cottage Sanatorium, under the management of the National Sanitarium Association, and under whose auspices the new Free Consumptive Hospital has been built. In four years 510 patients have been treated, and more than 352 have been cured or so helped that they could go back to work, caring for wife or child or those dependent upon them. The new Free Consumptive Hospital is situated in Muskoka, not far from the Muskoka Cottage Sanatorium, the two gentlemen who have generously borne the cost of constructing the building de-siring that the same benefits that have come to patients of the Muskoka Cottage Sanatorium, by virtue of its excellent situation, should go to the poorer patients, whose only hope is in admittance to the Free Consumptive Hospital.

All that is wanting now is the furnishing of this Rospital with beds and other cessary appointments. The National Sanitarium Association, because of their heavy debt, are unable to undertake this part of the work. Only let the many whose hearts are touched by such distressing cases as are constantly chronicled tressing cases as are constantly chronicled in newspaper columns, send their contributions of $1.00 or, if possible, $5.00, $10.00, or $50.00, and no time will be lost in opening wide the doors of the new Hospital. Contributions will be received by Sir Wm. R. Meredith, Chief Justice, Lamport Ave., Toronto: W. J. Gage, Esq., 54 Front St. West, Toronto: or The National Trust Co., Limited, Treasurer, 22 King St. East.

To My Daughter Ethicen

At last the mountaid day has comd—
A sad November day—
When annlight time in gathering gloom Begin to pass away;
And skies, all brightly fleeked at morn,
Ere nothtide flour to darkness turn.

As with the sunbeams and the skies, When autumn days are come,
So earthly hope in darkness dies,
And sinks into the tomb,
Where all our little dreams at last,
In blast and blight are overcast.

As it has been, so shall it be, Henceforth for evermore; The dream shall reach maturity;

But ere its thrill be o'er, A blast may come, a blight may cast A long deep shadow o'er the past.

It is a sad November day, And in our lonely home a solemn change has brought decay To life's primeval bloom; And withered on life's rugged shore,

Our blossom cheers us now no more. Sweet memories of other days Revive, as in a dream The ever-changing view displays
The shadow and the gleam,
Which gives the picture God's design,
And stamps it all in all divine.

O, could we look beyond the veil, Where dwell the saints in light, Such blissful vision would avail, And charm our ravished sight; And we might hear the ministrely Of harpers on the crystal sea.

How foolish then should seem the tears Of Rachel o'er the dead, Who, in her agony and fears, Would not be comforted;
One look beyond this misty sphere
Would glad the heart and dry the tear.

But for a little while good-bye, My long-afflicted one, Safe in the palace of the sky,

Beyond the radiant sun, Thy brother welcomes thee to-day, Where hope can never fade away.

And there, where vales and mountains In light for thine abode, And by the river which makes glad

The City of our God, Thy Saviour takes thee to His breast, And folds thee in eternal rest. -J. R. Newell.

ONLY THREE WEEKS

BEFORE CHRISTMAS

Trade is in full swing; store crowded every day; salespeople of the jump, and facilities taxed to almost their full capacity. From now on till Christmas the crowds will be greater continually, and elbow room will be at a premium unless you shop early in the day. The comfort, the convenience and the all-round satisfaction are in the shopping before noon. This advertising week after week is intended as sort of a directory, showing where to find suitable things, and the price you ough to pay. Buying in large quantities for spot cash puts us on the ground floor in regard to values, and many prices here cannot be equalled elsewhere. The bargain offerings this week are the best put on sale for some time. Shop early in the day.
