Miss Sarah Moorhouse, of Toronto, is visiting relatives here.

Miss Ruby Sharp has gone to spend few weeks with relatives in Toronto. Mr. Samuel Irwin, east of the village, and Mr. John Flynn, Collingwood Road, have each been favored with an addition to their family. In both cases

Rev. Mr. Smith, of Durham, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hickling on Sunday, and Mr. A. McClocklin, who drove Mr. Smith over, visited his sister, Mrs. Mark Wilson.

Mr. Alexander, tailor, who a few inary College. Treatment of ring bones months ago gave up business here, a specialty. Office and rooms over recently started again in the shop formerly occupied by Mr. Joseph Smith on Collingwood street, and is enjoying a good patronage.

The fall of the beautiful last week was generally more welcome than the dale, or addressed to Alton will receive tax bills which preceded it. Its presence created pleasing activity in business and we have no doubt helped the tax collectors in their work.

> The Presbyterian Sabbath School commenced practice last week for their usual anniversary on Christmas night. The Methodist school is to take preliminary steps this week for their anniversary on New Year's night.

> Mr. W. J. Boyd moved his family last week from their home at the Saugeen mill to his handsome new residence here. Mr. Boyd, though living in town, will continue the management of the Boyd Bros. business at the mill.

Rev. Ivison Wilson conducted month. Has 99 members. A visit anniversary services in the Methodist from other lodges solicited. Joshua Dodds, Master. C. W. Rutledge, Re- was accompanied by Misses Allie, Minnie and Annie Joy, who gave their assistance in the praise part of the

A final prohibition rally was held in the town hall on Monday evening, England.) Specialist Eye, Ear, Throat addressed by Prof. Clarke Braden, of Illinois, who sustained his reputation as convincing and most inspiring platform speaker. The hall was crowded to the doors. Rev. Mr. Wilson occupied the chair.

The Medical Hall business has changed hands, the proprietor, Dr. Christoe, having disposed of the stock and leased the premises to Mr. W. J. Douglas, the well known druggist and Court Markdale I.O.F. No. 991 seedsman of Collingwood. Mr. Douglas continues his business in

> The Flesher sash and door factory which has been standing idle for some time is soon to be humming again under the management of Mr. Thompson Wilson, who has leased the property for a number of years. Mr. Wilson is full of push and energy, and being an experienced mill man we have no doubt he will do a good business

Mr. John E. Wright, of the west back line, joined the army of benedicts e few days ago and has since with his bride been receiving the congratulations of numerous friends. The young lady of Mr. Wright's choice was Miss Trueman, of Orangeville, at whose home the happy event took place. We wish the young couple a happy and prosperous life.

The Flesherton public school staff have been doing efficient work and could remain if they so desired. Principal Fawcett and Miss Martin have been re-engaged for 1903, but Mrs. Brown does not wish to remain longer than the present year. Another has been engaged to take her place. In the neighborhing sections, Mr. Reid with his good record of 14 years in No. 4, Mr. Colquett at Ceylon, and Miss Stafford at Rockvale, have all, we understand, been re-engaged.

Rev. Wray R. Smith, of Durham, preached eloquent and deeply interesting sermons in the Methodist church here on Sabbath last. Mr. Smith's text in the morning was Sam. 3: 63, "I am their music," and the sermon, the central thought of which was, Jesusmusic for the soul, was a beautiful production, soul stirring in musical sentiment, inspiring and uplifting in spiritual tone. In the evening Mr. Smith chose for his text Jer. 5: 80, and gave an animated and well reasoned discourse in behalf of the Referendum issue. In the Presbyterian church Rev. Mr. Thom also spoke in behalf of the Referendum, basing his serm on on Acts 9: 6. "Lord, what wilt thou have me to do.'

The Halifax Wesleyan of the 19th ult., reporting the Faculty Concert of Mount Allison Ladies College, Sackville, referred in the following interesting manner of Miss Annie Richardson, formerly of this place, who is on the College staff, and took part in the programme: "Miss Richardson's graceful stature and cultured voice," says the Wesleyan, "aided by superior instruction, easily places her in the first rank as an elocutionist. Her selection, "Browning's Youth and Art," required the highest art, and s'ie succeeded well in clarafying a characteristically obscure poem. In response to a hearty encore she quoted that fairy trifle, "The Wind and the Moon," in a manner fresh and breezy as the wind themselves."

Mr. W. Lawrence, who has for near Ceylon, left last week to take a too. similiar position near Malton. Before leaving a number of the members and from Scotland this summer to visit friends of the L. O. L. at Ceylon waited on Mr. Lawrence at the home of his parents and presented him with a beautiful watch chain, accompanied by an address expressive of their goodwill and wishes of his future prosperity. Mr. W. L. Wright made the presentation and Mr. R. J. Sproule read the address to which Mr. Lawrence made a suitable reply. Mr. Ed. Thompson, of this place, catered to the inner man after which toasts were drank and replied to in a pleasing manner. "God be with you" brought the proceedings to a close.

Dr. Torrie spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in Sullivan.
