Coughs

"My wife had a deep-seated cough for three years. I purchased two bottles of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, large size, and it cured her completely."

J. H. Burge, Macon, Ga.

Probably you know of cough medicines that relieve little coughs, all coughs, except deep ones!

The medicine that has been curing the worst of deep coughs for sixty years is Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

Three sizes: 25c, enough for an ordinary cold; 50c, for bronchitis, hoarseness, hard coughs; $1, great strength for chronic cases and to keep on hand.

J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

SPECTACLE FITTING at my counter is always a pleasure to the general public: 1st, Because of my ability to fit you successfully; 2nd, If you need any further attentions you know just where to come to make your requests known. Your eyesight fitted on the most approved methods. Lenses exchanged for those who have not received a perfect fit. Why pay a supposed specialist $3.00 for a pair of spectacles when I will sell you the same goods for $1.00.

Ametesia is noted for pretty weddings and the record was well sustained on Tuesday afternoon of last week, when, at the residence of the bride's mother, west back lane, Mary Ellen, youngest daughter of the late William Wright, Esq., was happily joined in marriage to Mr. Archibald McPhatter, a popular young tradesman of Owen Sound. Promptly at 4 o'clock to the strains of the wedding march, pleasantly rendered by Mrs. Robt. Wright, the bridal party entered the room and took their places beneath a prettily decorated arch of evergreens. The handsome bride was given away by her eldest brother, Mr. William L. Wright. She was prettily gowned in white organdie with train, trimmed with ribbon, lace and chiffon, and wore an embroidered veil with a wreath of natural flowers. She carried a beautiful bouquet of bridal roses. Miss Jennie Hemphill, of Toronto, acted as bridesmaid, and looked pretty in a gown of grey muslin, trimmed with silk applique and allover lace. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Mr. John Coates, of Owen Sound, discharged the duties of groomsman and the bride's uncle, Rev. James Skine, of Hillsdale, tied the mystic knot. At the conclusion of the ceremony and congratulations which were showered on the young couple, a wedding breakfast was served, at which the tables were literally laden with delicacies of the most inviting character. Mrs. Hollingshead, of Markdale, catered on the occasion. The breakfast room and house decorations throughout in which great pains had been taken, were artistically done in green and white. About sixty guests were present, among whom were Mrs. McPhatter, Miss Maud McPhatter, Owen Sound; Mr. Wm. Hemphill, Toronto; Rev. L. W. and Mrs. Thom, Dr. and Mrs. Carter and editor Thurston, of this place. The bride was the recipient of a large number of costly and beautiful presents. The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl crescent, and to the bridesmaid a pearl brooch. Preparatory to going away the bride donned her neat travelling suit which was a tailor made, navy blue homespun, with trimmings to match. Mr. and Mrs. McPhatter left on the evening train for Owen Sound, followed by the best wishes of their numerous friends.

The scholars of the senior department in our public school closed last week's studies with a pleasing concert on Friday afternoon. Master Charlie McEvilley was elected chairman and conducted the program in a manner very creditable to one of his years. Mr. M. K. Richardson was among the visitors and the alert young chairman, thinking it a good opportunity to enrich his program with a word from the people's representative, called on him for a speech, which, of course, he was compelled to give, and to the pleasure of all present.

Mr. T. Stodd, of Nottawasaga, is moving to the George Dinnody farm, west of the village, purchased by him a year ago. Mr. Joseph Blakely, who has occupied the Dinnody farm for a term of years, bought Mr. John Whitten's farm, east of the village, and is moving to the same. Mr. Whitten is moving to his brother Robert's residence in the suburbs.

Mr. John Flynn has rented Mrs. Moorhouse's residence on Sydenham street and will move his family from LeGard's corner in a few days. Mr. Flynn is at present in very poor health.

Mr. Jerry Thompson, of Rockdale, is moving his family to Collingwood this week.

Mr. Henry Mathewson, Toronto, line reported in the Standard last week helpless with paralysis, shows signs of improvement, in his condition, but owing to his advanced years little hope is entertained for his recovery. His son Robert J. and wife of Maple, and other members of the family are visiting him just now.

The Methodist League here paid their sister society at Markdale a fraternal visit on Monday evening.

Rev. E. R. Steinbauer, a native missionary among the Indians at Fisher River, N.W.T., is to speak and sing in the Methodist church here on Sabbath evening next, and it is expected there will be a large congregation to hear the zealous and gifted missionary.

The Sons of Temperance intend holding a concert in the town hall, Rocklyn, on March 10th. A good time is expected.

Miss Flynn is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. J. Gordon, this week.

Miss Curry, of Toronto, is visiting friends in Rocklyn at present.

We are sorry to report Mr. James Boyd sr. seriously ill at present.

Eugenia

Snow, snow, and still it snows, and our roads are filled right up with snow about four feet deep. If our township fathers do not do something to remedy the inconveniences of blocked roads, a few suits for damages may be the result. Many have had their horses' legs cut and cutters damaged in endeavoring to get through the drifts, and we think it is high time something was done to make our roads passable in winter time.

St. Valentine's Day was celebrated here in a right worthy manner, the old and the young alike being remembered by the patron Saint.

Mrs. A. Smith gave a very nice rag carpet bed to her many friends the past week. As the ladies fingers and tongues can go at the same time a great amount of work was done and an enjoyable time spent by all.

Mr. Robt. Haney has returned to his home after a pleasant visit with his parents and friends at Eugenia.

A large number of our young people took in the number at Mr. Geo. Gorley's last week.

March has come in like a rude, blustering boy. No signs of a lamb about him this year.

Mr. Samuel Pedlar has been very poorly for sometime past, but is some better now.

We are pleased to hear that railroad matters are still maintaining. Prospects are good for operations to begin as soon as spring opens, as some of our business men have had a letter from the manager of the company to that effect.

Shetburne

The beautiful new Knox Church of this place was duly opened and dedicated on Sunday by Rev. Dr. R. P. McKay of Toronto, by preaching two very interesting sermons morning and evening. His text in the morning was from John 1st chap. and 43rd verse, "Follow Me," and that of the evening Romans 3rd chap. and 14th verse, "Put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ."

There was a service held in the afternoon conducted by the pastor, Rev. P. W. Anderson, assisted by Rev. C. W. Watch, pastor of the Methodist church.

At all services the church was filled to the doors. The choir did their part very nicely. The contributions for the Ladies Aid has plagued in the church a beautiful pipe organ costing about $500.00 which they paid cash for, which speaks well for the ladies.

Mr. Herbert Fawcett of Collingwood visited his parental home on Sunday.

Walter's Falls

Messrs. Harvey & Smith, of Chesley, have bought up quite number of horses in this vicinity at fair prices.

A quiet wedding took place at the home of Mrs. Wm. Ward, Sydenham, on the 25th February, when her daughter Emma was united in marriage to Edwin Jack, of Griswold, Man.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. W. Reynolds in the presence of their most intimate friends. Mr. and Mrs. Jack will shortly start for their new home in the West, taking with them the best wishes of their many friends.
