Flesherton Dr. Ottewell paid a visit to the City the end of last week. Mr. and Mrs. J. Neff, of Nottawasaga, visited at Mrs. Bulmer's last week.

Miss Osborn, of Guelph, has returned to again take charge of Messrs. Boyd, Hickling & Co.'s millinery department.

There was a fair sized audience in the town hall on Friday evening to witness the Laing Bros. life motion pictures exhibited here that evening. We are informed the programme was very fine and highly pleasing to the audience.

Mr. and Mrs. Archy Cairns, who visited the past two or three months with friends in Ontario, left here last week for their home at Manor, Assa., and Miss Jackson, who lived with Mr. and Mrs. J. White, left for British Columbia.

On the 4th inst. a son was born to Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Blakely. Their son Elmo, who a few mouths ago sustained a fracture of the leg which for a time did not improve satisfactorily, is now doing well and will shortly be about again.

Mr. C. Patterson's livery horse Dextor got so badly calked coming from Markdale last week that from loss of blood he was hardly able to stand when he reached his own stable. He is, however, recovering, and the old roadster will likely be good for many trips yet.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Smith have re moved from Collingwood street to Mr. VanDusen's residence on Spring Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Moore have moved into Mrs. Flesher's resicence, and Mr. Flynn and family have taken possession of the residence vacated by them at the drill shed.

Mr. Archie Boyd, east back line, eccived the sad news on Saturday that his sister, Miss Flora Boyd, had died suddenly of heart failure. at Acheson, Kansas, at the home of her brother-inlaw and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Alf. Malloy, who with Miss Boyd were for many years residents of this place.

Rev. Ivison Wilson left on the 5 p.m. train on Saturday for Brighton to see his mother who is dangerously ill. His pulpit was supplied here on Sunday by Dr. Christoe in the morning and Rev. T. R. White in the evening. Mr. Jas. Felstead of this place took Mr. Wilson's work in the afternoon and Mr. White's in the evening.

The Methodist Ladies' Aid had arranged for a social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Duncan, back line, on Tuesday evening of last week, but bad roads and rain that evening frustrated the plans. An invitation from the pastor to spend the evening at the parsonage was accepted; a goodly number in the village turned out and spent a very enjoyable time together, The principal officers of Prince Arthur Lodge: F. H. W. Hickling, W.M.; W. A. Armstrong, S.W., and John Wright, J.W., spent Friday last at Shelburne attending a Masonic lodge of instruction held there by the Grand Master and his District Deputy, Mr. Alex. Carson, of Barrie. The members of the Craft here were sorry to learn of the death last week of their distinguished brother, His Llonor Judge Creasor, of Owen Sound, who had been D.D.G.M., and during his term of office visited Prince Arthur Lodge.

eye foremost below the knee cap and broke off, leaving nearly half an inch embedded in the flesh. Dr. Carter endeavored to remove the broken piece but was unable to locate it and as later the knee became more painful he recommended the X-rays for the removal of the trouble. Accordingly on Friday Miss Munshaw was accompanied by her father to the City where in the hospital on Saturday the X-rays were applied and Dr. Bruce removed the piece of steel which was found clinging to the bone. Miss Munshaw's friends are pleased to learn that she will be able to leave her ward in the hospital in a week or so.

Wodehouse

We are pleased to note that Mr. John Buskin is improving nicely.

Mr. T. A. Carruthers imported two Jersey cattle in the neighborhood. Plowing has begun, Mr. R. H. Wiley being the first to start in this locality. Mr. Wm. Woods has returned from Lions Head after a successful winter's work in the lumber camp.

Our postmaster, Mr. Joseph Heitman, has been confined to the house last week with lagrippe, but is some better now.

Woodbees are the order this week. Mr. Joseph Cherry begins this Monday and there is one nearly every day the rest of the week. Farm laborers are in good demand."

Friday of last week was a big day with the Masonic Order in this town A District Lodge of Instruction was Proton Station on Sunday evening but noon and evening. Most of the lodges of the district were represented. The Most Worshipful Grand Master, Judge Harding and Right Worshipful D. D. G. M., were present on their official visit. The first degree was worked by Lorne Lodge, of Shelburne, at 2.30 p. m., Mr. R. Jelly being the candidate, after which the lodge was opened on the second degree by the Alliston lodge. and worked the 2nd, furnishing their own candidate. At 8 p.m. the Beeton lodge took the reins and worked the third degree, Mr. R. J. Watson, of this place, being the candidate. All lodges had their work up in first class style to learn that Mr. Oswald is taking a and received great praise from the both grand officers present. After the close of the lodge at 10 p.m. a grand banquet was given by the home lodge to the visitors in the town hall, where a very enjoyable time was spent until the wee sma' hours. The Shelburne orchestra was present and furnished some most excellent music. The Ladies Aid of the Methodist church furnished the simple but troublesome little accident supper and it was got up in first class
