MEMBERS WHO SMILE

"Canadienne," with the assistance of McConnell, Saturday Night's bright young cartoonist had a very interesting article in that journal recently, depicting the legislators and we quote the following:

To the visitor, our Local Legislature is usually a thing of dullness and a jaw breaker. But after the famous eleventh hour, the big brown buildings in Queen's Park afforded a variety of entertainment. Scrap iron and pulp provided from view, and the Gamey, enlivened the debate. Put there were other things to attract as well as the strenuous oratory, and to those who looked and listened, the smiles of certain worthy members were an interesting study.
