The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Stewart here received a genuine housewarming on Tuesday evening of last week when the sons and daughters, sons-in-law and daughters-in-law of the esteemed couple invaded their new home to do them honor. Mr. Donald McLeod was appointed chairman, and in a neat speech explained, the object of their visit, after which Mr. J. B. Thibaudeau read the following address: TO MR. AND MRS. A. STEWART.

Dear Father and Mother, We have taken possession of your home this evening to spend one more of the many pleasant evenings spent under the parental roof, and feel we should not let the present opportune time pass without some tangible token of the loving esteem in which we hold a kind and provident father, a loving and affectionate mother and withal parents whose constant consideration has been the welfare of their family and who have never thought any sacrifice too great for our present or future happiness. For all those years of loving toil and care we frankly confess we can never repay you, but as a slight token of our love to you we ask you to accept these chairs, hoping they may add somewhat to your pleasure in the afternoon of life, and that as you rest in them your thoughts may go pleasantly back some of the instances of our happy life together in the old home. As we pass on through our lives our thoughts will of times be drawn to many kind acts you have performed; to the many loving words of comfort you have spoken and to the good advice you were capable of giving; and then our thoughts are turned to our kind and merciful Father who has given His blessing those many years and we hope it may be the will of Him who rules on high that you may be spared to us for Vatch repairing is a special department go to the three absent members of the family, and back to the sad spots in the past when we were called upon to suffer the grief we felt at parting with a loving and much loved brother and sister. May we all so live that when we leave this earth it will be to join those who have gone before to the better land. And yet we cannot close without our minds tarning to our prospects for man, more pleasant hours together. Signed on behalf of the family, Mark Stewart,

Flesherton, April 7, '03. Donald McLeod,

Mr. Stewart feelingly replied, but Stewart, Nebraska, offered a few words straw with a white lace drape falling and Mrs. J. B. Thibaudeau gaye a over the brim, which was gracefully recitation. In 1859 he was married to Miss Ann McLeery of Innisheld township, Simcoe county, where he had been living and continued to reside until 1864 when he moved to Artemesia and settled on the farm where he died. To Mr. and Mrs. Mathewson were born eight children, six of whom with Mrs. Mathewson survive him, viz: William, Markdale, Mrs. Wilson of Manitoba, Robert, of Maple, David, Fred and Maggie at home. Mrs. Thos. Wyville and Mrs. Jacob Lever died a few years ago. Mr. Mathewson was a hard-working, honest and industrious man, highly respected in the community where he has long lived. In religion he was a Methodist and in politics a staunch Conservative. Before the days of the railroad here Mr. Mathewson spent much time on the road teaming to and from Collingwood. He delivered the first load of merchandise for Mr. M. K. Richardson, who commenced business here in the fall of 1865. In those days it cost sometimes as high as $12.00 to bring a hogshead of sugar from. Collingwood and sometimes with bad roads and break downs, as once with Mr. Mathewson, there wasn't much profit for the teamster at that. The widow and respected family have the sympathy of many friends in their belieavement. Among those from a distance who attended Line funeral were: Mrs. Mathewson's prothers and sister, James and Robert McLeery, and Mrs. Nixon, of Barrie; a niece, Mrs. Reid, of Barrie, Messrs. John and Alex. Marshall, Innisfil; and Mrs. Wilson, Mr. Fred Wilson and Miss Maggie Wilson, of Arthur. Mr. T. J. Sheppard's millinery opening took place last week, and was, we were informed, the most successful they have yet had. Mrs. Sheppard, who attended the wholesale millinery openings, was not only diligent in her search after new and nobby goods, but made a careful study of the fashions and latest styles many of which she reproduced in a manner which elicted praise from her numerous visitors.
