

Half-Sick

"I first used Ayer's Sarsaparilla in the fall of 1848. Since then I have taken it every spring as a blood-purifying and nerve-strengthening medicine."

If you feel run down, are easily tired, if your nerves are weak and your blood is thin, then begin to take the good old standard family medicine, Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

It's a regular nerve lifter, a perfect blood builder.

Ask your doctor what he thinks of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. He knows all about this grand old family medicine. Follow his advice and you will be satisfied.

FLESHERTON HAPPENINGS

(By our own Correspondent.)

The editor of the Flesheron Advance spent an Easter holiday in Toronto and last week favored his readers with an item which we take pleasure in quoting respecting two young ladies well known in this place. The Advance says: "Miss Maud Richardson of this place has for some time been taking lessons with McGilvary Knowles, of Toronto, one of the best portrait artists in America. Last week while in the city we had the pleasure of examining some of Miss Richardson's work, which is of a very high order indeed. She paints altogether from nature and some of her studies are certainly worthy of hearty commendation. We were simply delighted with the evidences of genius which we saw displayed in Miss Richardson's pictures, and we confidently expect that she will be heard from in the world of art. Another young lady who is making a name for herself in the musical world, is Miss Rita Damude, formerly of this place, who has for some time been attending the Toronto Conservatory of Music. At a recent rehearsal she received much favorable comment upon her performance, which was said by those who understood music to be exceedingly creditable. We also had the pleasure of hearing Miss Rita play—and it most assuredly was a pleasure. We believe she proposes putting in another year at the Conservatory, which will complete her musical education."

At the Easter examinations in Owen Sound Business College Miss Flossie, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Thurston, here, was awarded the silver medal for the "greatest improvement in writing." The medal, we are informed, is a handsome maltese cross with bar on blue background and suitably inscribed. We are pleased to congratulate our young friend on this token of success and honor won by her. Mayor Reid and Mr. A. G. McKay, M.P.P., made the presentations to the successful student.

The annual business meeting of the Flesheron branch of the Upper Canada Bible Society was held in Chalmers Church on the evening of the 6th inst. Mr. A. S. VanDusen, presiding. After prayer by Rev. L. W. Thom and the reading and confirming of the minutes of last annual meeting, the secretary and auditors' reports were read, found very satisfactory and adopted. The treasurer's report showed that the total income for the year was $84.85, made up as follows: Sales in the depository, $18.60; Collections in the churches, $12.12; returns by collectors, $54.10. This was ordered to be forwarded to the parent Society in Toronto, and a new stock of books selected for the depository. The former officers were re-elected, viz: President, Mr. A. S. VanDusen; Secretary, Rev. L. W. Thom; Treasurer and Depository, Mr. W. H. Bunt; Representatives, Messrs. T. J. Sheppard, Wm. Clayton, Wm. Barnhouse, Jas. Felstead, David McMullen, Richard Allen, T. Colquhoun, Chas. Stewart and Levi Betts; Auditors, W. Clayton, T. J. Sheppard.

Rev. W. A. Sinclair, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Sinclair of this place, was, we are pleased to chronicle, on Easter Monday the 18th inst. joined in wedlock to Miss Edna F. Jewett of Toronto. The happy event took place at the home of the bride's mother, 11 Lakeview Avenue, and was attended by a large number of relatives and friends of the contracting parties.

Rev. T. R. White of Eugenia and Miss Edith Jewett, of Toronto, discharged the duties of groomsmen and bridesmaid. The bride wore a pretty gown of white organdie trimmed with lace, and carried a beautiful bouquet of lilies of the valley and bridal roses. The bridesmaid wore white organdie over buttercup silk and carried a bouquet of pink roses. After the ceremony a dainty repast was served and before rising a number of toasts were responded to in a pleasing manner. The happy couple left on the evening train for their home in Thornorton, where Mr. Sinclair was stationed at last meeting of Toronto Conference.

"A pretty wedding," says the Globe of Friday last, "took place on Wednesday afternoon at Uxbridge Avenue, Toronto Junction, when Miss Ella Violet, daughter of Mr. Peter Kline, was married to Roland C. Nelles, of Stouffville. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. H. S. Matthews, pastor of the Queen Street East Methodist Church. The house was beautifully decorated with carnations, palms and other plants and flowers. The wedding march was played by Mrs. T. Nelles, Paris, as the bride, leaning on the arm of her father, came into the room. The bride was dressed in a navy blue travelling suit." Miss Kline, who was for several seasons in charge of M. Richardson & Co.'s military department here and in Dundalk, is well known and has many friends in this community who will wish for her a happy wedded life. The officiating clergyman, Rev. Matthews, was pastor of the Methodist Church, here from 1873 to 1878.

The best only in office equipment as well as in work done for patients satisfies Dr. Murray, the popular dentist of this place. With respect to the former we venture to say that but few country dental offices are so up-to-date and complete in outfit as his is now. At considerable expense he has added a fine gas burner to the laboratory outfit and at the operating chair a fountain cuspidor, the most modern make, which by a system of water-works ingeniously constructed by himself on his own premises can be flushed to perfection. No more remains of unsightly molars left a minute in view, and no more spitting cleaning by the old method for the Dr.; a turn of the tap does it.

Mrs. T. J. Sheppard gave a party to a company of young people on Wednesday evening of last week, and on Thursday Miss Christene Richardson entertained a number of her young friends in honor of her guest Miss Corrina Frost, of Owen Sound, who returned home on Monday.

The town hall, public school and private flags are to-day (Monday) at half mast out of respect to the late Sir Oliver Mowat, Lieutenant-Governor, who died on Sunday.

Mr. Charlie Sullivan, clerk in Boyd, Hickling & Co.'s, left on Monday to take a good position at Indian Head, N.W.T.

Mr. E. Fleming, son of Rev. Fleming, Maxwell, has taken the position of salesman in F. G. Karstedt's here.

Miss Patterson, of Cedarville, is visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. C. Patterson, this place.

Mrs. W. Barnhouse has been for a few days very ill with congestion of the lungs. At the time of writing (Monday) her heart is reported very weak.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Burnett have moved to town to "Mrs. McQuay's cottage, Spring street.

Miss Annie Wilson, who is taking a course in the Business College, Owen Sound, spent the Easter holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Wilson here.

Mr. John Flynn was visited by his daughter Carrie, of Toronto, last week, and on her return accompanied her, to remain for a time.

Miss Flossie Limin, of Durham, is visiting Mrs. Mark Wilson.

Miss Ethel McKay, teacher, Port Hope, spent last week with her cousin, Mrs. (Rev.) Wilson.

Miss Lily Thistlewhite left last week to attend school at Stayner.

Proton Station.

Born—Wednesday, April 8th, to James Medaugh and wife, Twins, both boys. The father's rejoicing however, has been much curtailed owing to the critical condition of the mother and at the time of writing the doctor's opinion of recovering is not very encouraging.

Also at the home of George Wilson, on Sunday, April 12th, great rejoicing on the birth of a son. It is rumored that since the event the C. P. R. section here has a greater number of spikes driven in a day than formerly by one of its workmen.

Mrs. Edward Wellwood, of Shelburne, visited her sister, Mrs. A. Sherson while up at Easter.

Peter Conley, who during the winter worked in the lumber woods at the Soo returned home some time ago.

Miss May Neilson has ordered a new grand piano. May is a good music student.

Mrs. Fred Ryder, who has been spending several weeks with her father John Wright of Durham, and her brother, Will Wright, of Kincairdine has returned and reports a pleasant holiday.

Miss Ewing, of Orangeville and Miss Lockhart, of Shelburne, made a short visit with their cousin, Jas. Lockhart, recently.

Mrs. Robert Lockhart, of Elmville, is at present keeping house for her brother-in-law, John Lockhart.

Geo. Sherson and sister spent Sunday with friends at Whitefield.

Our genial bricklayer, Fred Ryder, has secured the contract of the brick work of the House of Refuge in Markdale. We are pleased to learn that the work is in such capable hands as we may be obliged to visit there permanently some time in the future.

Thos. Mino, of Georgetown, is visiting his son of the same name here this week.

Mrs. Thomas Wyville spent Easter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nicholls of Dundalk.

Mrs. (Dr.) Rosborough spent Easter with her sister, Mrs. Will Armstrong, of Flesheron.

Mrs. Martin Medaugh, of Corbeton, is in attendance on her sister, Mrs. Jas. Medaugh, who is seriously ill at present.

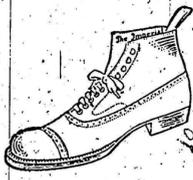

Thos. Wyville attended the funeral of his father-in-law, Henry Mathewson, of Flesheron, last week.

Joe Parks spent last Sunday with friends in Ceylon.

Miss Maud Carson, who has had a severe attack of la grippe, we are pleased to note is convalescent again.

We hear of a few farmers who have sown some grain, but the weather is rather cool for seeding operations.

Wm. Martin, a son of J. J. Martin, south of here, was the preacher at the Methodist church Sunday.

Hugh Hammond is progressing favorably.

S. Thompson and Andy Wallace have begun to smash stone for the Knott barn. These young masons will commence at a building on the farm of Albert Ellis this week.

Miss Lilly Curry and her brother, Lorrie, took a tour to Beaverdale and returned with a pretty Miss Sarah May Boyle to visit her for many a day we hope.

Thos. Simmons and his wife were enjoying Easter hospitality at the farm of Matt Ferguson.

Mrs. James Stuart visited at Dundalk for Easter.

The brick house recently occupied by John McGowan and family is still vacant as the miller, Wm. Plewes, may remain where he is for some time.

Matt Ferguson took a good load of hogs to Markdale recently.

Our mail service will not be changed till the railroad is running here. John Plewes is here again. Miss Mabel and Miss Sadie and Alfred came too. Mrs. Plewes and her two daughters, Misses Bessie and Mandie, will remain at Kirkville a few days longer.

Geo. Stuart is a hustler to buy stock from the farmers. He was in Toronto last week with a load of fat stuff. Jasper started the meat wagon to Rocklyn, and Robt. took his first venture to Heathcote.

William Plewes was a few days at Collingwood last week.

J. McGowan, of Durham was here on business recently.

W. S. Bishop will erect a residence this season. Geo. Proctor and his men will be the masons.

George Walters took a load of stock to Ceylon for the shippers recently.

James Austin, of Thornbury, the implement man, was here a few days ago.

Some attended the Kelly sale above Rocklyn and returned with many articles of value.

John McDougall, of London, Inspector of Canada Trust Huron and Erie Saving Company, drove through here.

H. Hurd sold clover seed to J. Brown recently. The STANDARD had it "oats" last week in error.

Glascott

Fine, cool weather for seeding, which is well advanced. Some will both sow and reap this week.

Neil Livingstone is burning a kiln this week. He is not, it is said, his job.

Rowe brothers moved in their new saw mill Saturday evening to the lumber and timber for San Bernardino.

John Duncan and sons have the timber framed for Will Bell's barn and are away to another. They are busy.

Mr. R. Bradley, who was injured two weeks ago, is not able to be about home soon to see him around again.

Who will have the best heifer drive to Traverson slaughter house this summer? Let all try.

Hope flesh is high. Thomas Morison sold a young horse for $160 and bought a three-year-old from Sam Baines for $147.

T. Priel bought a 2-year-old for $120. It must be a nice one.

Boy number five arrived at John Boyle's on Tuesday of this week, just in time to help on seeding.

Glascott wants three mails a week so says some of our young people. Think of it, an expected letter from Berkeley two days.

HE TOLD THE TRUTH.

A Missouri editor or announced that he would tell the truth.

"John Bonin, the laziest mercenary in town, made a trip to Belleville yesterday. John Doyle, our grocer man, is doing a poor business; his store is dirty, how can he expect to do much. Rev. Styx preached Sunday night. Charity; the sermon was punk; it is the rev. Gentleman would live up a little closer to what he preaches he'd have bigger congregation." Dave Sorker died last Saturday at his home in this place. The doctor gave it out as heart failure; The fact is he was drunk, and whiskey is what killed him, his home was a rented shack in Rowdy Street.

Married—Miss Sylvia Rhodes and John Canahan, last Saturday evening at Baptist parsonage; the bride is a very ordinary town girl who doesn't know any more than a rabbit about cooking and who never helped her mother three days in her life. She is not a beauty by any means and has a quit like a duck; the groom is well known here as an up-to-date bawler, who has been living off the old folks all his life and
