The 12th at Christ Church. The Orangemen marched in a body headed by the Markdale Citizen Band, to Christ Church on the fore noon of July 12th to attend morning s.rvice. The church was adorned with banners and orange lillies for the occasion. The musical portion of the service under the able leadership of Mr. J. H. Dundas, were well rendered by a full choir. The solo by Mr. Dundas, accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Hovey, was very much admired The church was filled to its ntmos dapacity, benches being placed in the aisles, and still many could not gain admission. The Rev. J. R. Newell rector, took for the subject of his discourse the "Qualifications" for membership in the Orange Association to be found in the Constitution of the Order. He read and expounded clause by clause, those qualifications, and showed that Orangeism was essentially a religious institution and intended to conserve and build up the principles of the reformed religion. The 12th July was only one day in the year were 364 other days; and Orangeme should be just as loyal and true to that pertinent and practical remarks.

Presbytery of Owen Sound. The regular quarterly meeting of the Presbytery of Owen Sound was held in July. There was a fair attendance of the members and considerable business was transacted. A call from Latona and Burns church, Rocky Saugeen, in favor of Rev. W. W. Atcheson, of Seaforth, was sustained and arrangements made for Mr. Atcheson's ordination in Latona, on the 21st of July at 2 p.m., in case of his acceptance; Revs. Mr. Nelson to preside, Mr. Mathewson to preach, Mr. Currie to address the minister and Mr. Hunter the people. The Clerk was instructed to ask for explanations from any session failing to send its records for examination annually. Messrs. Currie, Mathewson and Fraser and the representative elders from Annan and Keady were appointed a committee to visit Brooke and report to the next regular meeting of the Presbytery as to the desirability and practicability of organizing a Presbyterian congregation there. Messrs. Currie and McNabb were appointed to take the necessary legal steps for perfecting the title deeds of Church property in any congregation where it may be found necessary and pastors of such congregations are requested to co-operate with them. Mr. Smith was Toronto Street requested to report to the next regular meeting of Presbytery on the continuance of services at Caven Church, St, Vincent, and if thought advisable to discontinue, on the disposal to be made of the church property there. Interesting reports of the recent meeting of the General Assembly in Vancouver, were given by the Commissioners who represented the Presbytery, and the Treasurer was instructed to pay their travelling expenses, as agreed on at the March meeting. Those not yet returned or unable to be at this meeting will report at the next regular meeting, which will be on the
