SUMMER VACATION.

The custom of taking a few weeks rest or vacation during the summer season has become almost universal, and perhaps not more general than what our physical being demands. "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy," is an old axiom, and as true as it is old. A problem which meets many, however, is, where and how to spend the allotted time. The average holiday proves more fatiguing than the regular toil or service, and besides is more expensive than is desired. In the cities the idea of a summer cottage in the suburbs, where the family may enjoy a change of surroundings and purer atmosphere during the hot season and at the same time avoid the transportation expense to watering places is greatly in favor. In rural districts in such inviting and cozy points as Eugenia Falls, Kimberley or Walters Falls, where there is an abundance of pure air, pure water, good fishing and hospitable neighbors. We believe the erection of a number of summer cottages would be a profitable investment as well as a boon to those who desire a few weeks quiet restful vacation. There are scores of families in Toronto, and our large cities who would avail themselves of such an opportunity were it available, and we know of families in our own village who would be delighted to occupy such temporary quarters for some weeks during the warm weather. Stocks are exceedingly uncertain and interest low, let some of our men of means look into this question of furnishing summer cottages for rent.

Berkeley

Harvesting is in full swing this week. Miss Penner, of Toronto, and Mrs. Penner, of Desboro, visited the latter's daughter, Mrs. McKinley, for a few days last week. James Leslie, of Owen Sound, visited his mother, Mrs. Thos. Sargent, on Tuesday last. Robt. Speers, near Mount Pleasant, had the misfortune to lose a valuable mare last week.

Mrs. John Pickett returned on Friday last after an extended visit with her sons at Kenilworth.

Jas. A. Gillespie is on a visit from Toronto. He expects to remain a week or two.

Thomas Wiggins, of Owen Sound, and his brother Louis, of Toronto, spent a few days last week with friends in this locality.

Mitchell Bros. have finished cutting their stock of logs here, and are this week sending a gang of men and teams to Corbetton.

The garden party under the auspices of the Methodist church, held on the lawn of Mr. Ed. Sargent last Thursday night, was not as largely attended as on former occasions, the cold disagreeable weather no doubt keeping many away who would have attended had the weather been fine. The Presbyterians at Holland Centre held their garden party the same evening, which no doubt also affected the attendance. A good program was given in which addresses were delivered by Revs. Berry and Hunter, and Mr. R. W. Equis, of Markdale. The Markdale band was billed to be present, but failed to put in an appearance. The musical part of the program was well looked after, Miss Boggs, of Holland Centre, being the organist. Thomas Leonard occupied the chair. Proceeds amounted to $76.00.

Walters Falls

Mrs. James Mower and Miss Orrie visited with friends in Heathcote, Thornbury and Meaford last week, returning on Monday accompanied by Miss Raper, of Detroit.

Mr. Percy Brown and Miss Cora Moffat, of Owen Sound, visited the former's parents here on Thursday of last week.

Miss O. Wilkinson, of Owen Sound, is visiting Miss G. Bonnell here.

Mr. Mack Strain, of Owen Sound, spent Sunday in our village.

Master James S. McCullough, of Georgetown, is spending his vacation at his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Silas Hill and son Reginald, of Markdale, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Olmstead on Sunday.

Mrs. J. R. Wickham is visiting this week with her sister, Mrs. Francis, of St. Vincent.

Mr. and Mrs. Bush, Miss Annie Bush and Mr. Charlie Bush, of Markdale, spent Sunday with friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Campbell have gone to Midland to spend a month with their son, T. J., of that town.

Mr. T. G. Prowd returned home from Winnipeg last week. The North West did not make a very favorable impression on him, and he is now satisfied to remain in Ontario.

Mr. S. J. Grier and family moved to Meaford last week.

Mrs. Crowe and son, of Oshawa, are the guests of the former's sister, Mrs. C. W. Reynolds, at the parsonage.

For an up-to-date binder, mover or rake go to Jackson, he sells the Meaford.

Shelburne

The farmers in this locality are through haying and some have started their harvest. The weather has been a little unfavorable for haying. The masons are busy building the tower on the Methodist church at present. Mr. Wm. Marshall, living on the 4th line, Melancthon, about six miles north of this town, met with what might have been a serious accident. He had just hitched to a democrat and had left his horses only a few feet when they started. He jumped and caught them by the head, but they knocked him down and ran away. He will be laid up for a few days, but he had a narrow escape from being killed. Rev. Mr. Anderson and wife are off on their holidays at present. Rev. C. W. Watch and wife are on a three weeks' holiday to Muskoka. His pulpit was filled in the Methodist Church on Sunday morning by Mr. Maunders, and in the evening by Rev. W. W. Wallace, of Horning's Mills. Mr. W. P. Mathews is rusticating in Muskoka for a week or two. Some person or persons entered the Queen's Hotel on Sunday night by prying off the iron bars of the window, and helped themselves to the contents of the till. They succeeded in getting about five dollars in silver and bills, besides about fifty coppers. This thieving is becoming far too common, and it would be a good thing if some of these rascals could be caught and an example made of them. Mr. Thos. Shields met with a serious accident on Monday afternoon about 1.30 o'clock. He was engaged attending the masons in building the Methodist church tower in this place and while emptying a hod of mortar he lost his balance and fell head first off the wall, a distance of 15 feet, on some brick bats. He was picked up and placed on a stretcher and carried to the Mansion House, and it was an hour or more before he recovered consciousness. It is not known yet to what extent he is hurt, but it will likely lay him off for a few days anyway.

Dundalk

Mr. S. J. Halbert and Mr. Thomas Mathews, of Markdale, attended the garden party and also the Gamey banquet. Your cor. was too sick to attend either the garden party or banquet, so therefore we are not in a good position to report; but, listening to conversations from those who were present at both the garden party and banquet, it would leave the impression that the majority were delighted with Mr. Gamey's address. The banquet was largely attended by people from different parts of the county, so as will be seen it was not simply a local assembly. Mr. Gamey is a fluent speaker and a very convincing reasoner.

Mrs. E. White, of Markdale, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. Williams. Miss Eva Boyce, of Markdale, was in town Monday. She gave your cor. and his family a friendly call.

Mr. and Mrs. Frazer, from Conneaut, Ohio state, left for their home on Saturday morning, after visiting for a couple of weeks with friends in this town.

Mr. Adams, of the state of Georgia, visited his daughter, Mrs. Ridley, recently.

Wedding bells are ringing and ere this appears in print two of our young people will have united their hopes for time.
