CHAPTER XVIII Continued. Mrs. Denman, "was she killed?" "No, ma'am, she warn't killed. Be good luck they was only stunned and couldn't.

dreadful skeared but no bones was broken. Mrs. Denman relief in a

found

haire the sparks they get out, night there's no tellin what they ond thing is, to wrap a blanket do the duty of host, while he himself tune made as well as mine." won't light up. It's my opinion, what's best to do?" rs. Denman nodded her old head "That is precisely the quesif you've got to look for it better. things for the first time when the ly that you'll find 'em. Now, d'ye get into a front room, where you will know, or do the servants know, or where the trap in the roof is?"

she rather thought there was an old one in the pantry, but they had long ma'am-keep cool." kept a cat, and so didn't require it. "Och!" exclaimed . Joe, with a broad grin, "sure it's a trap-door stances was uncommonly small,

I'm spakin' of." Mrs. Denman professed utter ignorance on this point, and when told recital of such horrors! that it ought to be known to every one in the house as a mode of escape in the event of fire, she mildly requested to know what she would have to do if there were such a

"Why, get out on the roof, to Be get along the tiles to the next bedding she could lay hold of couldn't be took away, and ye should have some dozen fathoms o' half-indescribable because inconcainable inch rope always handy, 'cause if ye was cut off from the staircase by know how to knot sheets and blan- dreams! kets together, so that the ties won't slip, for if you have no tope they'd be better than nothin'. You should ground-just as a pinter dog goes-'cause there's more air than overhead; an' it's better to go in wi' the hand-pamp the first thing. Don't wait to dress, ma'am." "Stop, stop, Mr. Corney!" cried Mrs. Denman, holding up her hand. The little lady was stunned with the rapid utterance of the enthusiastic fireman, and with the dreadful suggestion that she, Mrs. Denman, should, in the dead of night, get upon the roof of her dwelling and scramble over the tiles, or let herself down by a rope from a window into the public street, or creep into a burning room on her hands' and knees, with her nose to the ground other choice words which it is quite

"it wouldn't be easy-though, for less characters, given to scandal and the matter o' that, it's wonderful slander; so the reader must not al-

what people will do for their lives; "Gracious!" replied the horrified but I was tellin ye, ma'am, what ought to be done, so as somebody else in the house might do it, if you

But suppose, ma'am," continued Joe, without waiting for a reply,-"suppose that the house is alight. Well, the first thing you've got to Well, ma'am," continued Joe; "let do, is not to get into a fluster! That when sparks get out of a windy be deliberate in all ye do. The secround ye, an' get out of the house ma'am, your house gots alight in without yer clo'se than to be burnt spite of you-well then, the question alive in 'em. Then be careful to shut all doors after ye as ye go.

six or seven times, as though to and so smothers it down till the ingines come up. Also keep all winup the forefinger of the right ground as possible, an go along on were well looked after impressively. 'In the first yer hands and knees A bit o flan- "Humph!" ejaculated cry of 'Fire' is raised, it's not like- door, or the trap in the roof then be more easy to b got at wid laddoes anybody in the house know, ders or fire-escapes, an' see that every mimber o' the household is there. Mrs. Denman appeared to meditate Many a wan has been forgotten in for a minute, and then said that she the hurry-skurry of a fire, and left was not sure. She herself did not asleep in bed, ignorant o' the dangknow, and she thought the servants er till too late, when a cool head might be ignorant on the point, but might have missed 'em' and wakened 'em, in time. Whatever ye do,

The probability of poor Mrs. Denman keeping cool in such circum-

was to jump from a window (a somewhat unnecessary poor Mrs. Denman thought), and hope?" that, when she was compelled to take such a step, she should first of sure" (Mrs. Denman shivered), "and all pitch over all the blankets and ting out lights, that he had been house" (Mrs. Denman shut her eyes make her fall easy. He wound up ises in the course of a few years, had a tendency to chatter when he three years out of four. Certain and shuddered), "an' so make ver with an emphatic resteration of the He was quite a martyr, as it were, spoke, but by a strong mental effort tural laws are always exerting indescribable, because inconceivable, went through the whole of the dreadfire an' from the roof by smoke ye ful processes which Joe had describmight have to let yourself down from the windy. It's as well, too, to presence of mind and energy—in her a bucket of water, always handy, ance, are totally devoid of peculiar- his care and attention to business. To convince his hearer of its truth. will grow just in proportion : cause if you take a fire at the beity. He was a middle-sized, thickHereunon Gorman said "Good- Now then," said Gorman, with a feed them, the sooner will come ginnin' it's easy put out. An' it's set, commonplace, grave, quiet man; night," and the deputy returned to business air, "first of all; how cess in growing them. Oats as well to know that you should go very powerful—but not apparently the counter, where besotted men and stands the stock in the shop?" into a room or, fire on your hands so; one whom it was impossible to women awaited his attendance. find out, unless he chose to let nimself be found out. Above all, he was a reserved man.

CHAPTER XIX.

Everybody knew well enough, at least among his intimates, that he was named Gorman; but not one of shop of Mr. David Boone. the number knew what his Christian whether the "D" represented David, dastard, drunkard, or demon, was a No," said Boone, "cept the boy. matter of pure speculation to all, a few of his female acquaintance ex- then we can be alone." cepted (for he had no friends). who dirty, driveling, de perate, and a few sultation with his friend. "Well, ma'am," returned Joe, cool- opinion, were comparatively worth-

Many Helpless With Paralysis

Who Could Now be Well Had They but Known of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

We do not claim that every who is paralyzed can be cured partially paralyzed and to those who all who use it. are slowly but surely developing the symptoms, which indicate the approach of such ailments that we would suggest the advisability of using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, the cures which it has brought about

When you find yourself lying awake nights, suffer from indigestion and is sure to find it of inestimable headache, feel drowsy after meals value as a nerve restorative and and losing energy, ambition and courage, it is time to pay attention to the nerves. You may find your-while using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food self irritable at times, worried over you can prove that new, firm flesh little things, unable to concentrate and muscular tissue are being added d, disheartened, and discouraged. boxes for $2.50, at all dealers, or prevents paralysis and locomotor Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous receipt book author, are on every box.

one ing unconsciousness and unnatural by sleep. It addes not deaden the using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, for nerves as do opiates and narcotics. many are beyond the each of any But, on the other hand, by assisting medical treatment and must finish nature and supplying the elements their days in helplessness and suffer- from which are formed new blood and nerve force, effects thorough and It is rather to those who are only lasting cure and is bound to benefit,

Seldom, if ever, has any medicine dull. secured such hearty endorsement of physicians and people alike. great food cure for diseases of the have often been most extraordinary, and anyone who regularly and persistently uses this great food cure blood builder.

By noting your increase in weight anyhow." Better give some attention to the Edmanson, Bates & Company, Tor- it. onto. To protect you against, imi-Dr. Chase's Nerve Food cures and tations the portrait and signature of finite question, and became a shade to god control to the low himself to be biased too much their report. Certain it is, however, that when 'D" to be distinguished from the last half.' other Gormans who might chance to exist in the universe.

People were not at all shocked at nis bold statement of unbelief; be Gorman. cause, in the circle in which he movsame disbellef was pretty

Besides many other traits and Gorman had the power of assuming days. the appearance either of a burglar of the lowest type, or a well-to-do con- twenty years ain't much better." tractor or tradesman. A slight change in dress and manner were sufficient to metamorphose him him beyond recognition. Everybody knew, also, that Gorwent about "other business," which mightinave been seen at the "Golden and sighed deeply. This Swan;" but, never for longer than keeps the air from gettin at the fire, a few minutes at a time, when he said he at length; "I really haven't tonnage an equal milk flow that Il tell you, ma'am;" here Joe shoke ye, git yer nose as near the that tended to convince them they

"Humph!" claculated Gorman, as every one in a house ought to nel or a worsted sock held over yer he finished counting the dirty copknow all the outs and ins of it, mouth an nose, will help you bear pers and pieces of silver which his agent had delivered to him, and If ye can't escape by the street- dropped them from his dirty fingers into a dirty leather bag; "Business is dull, I think."

"It ain't brisk just now, sir," plied the deputy-landlord of the 'Colden Swan. Gorman received this reply with another "Humph," and then putting the bag in his coat pocket, prepared to leave.

"No one bin askin' for me?" inquired Gorman. "No, sir; no one." "I'll be back to-morrow about this

The deputy knew that this was

"And mind," continued Gorman, piece of advice, uncommon careful about that, I

It is worthy of remark, in refer ence to Gorman's anxiety about putto burned out of several sets of prom- what green instead. His teeth too, grow cowpeas as a profitable escape. Then you should have a lad- assurance that her only chance lay to fire. Unaccountably worried, he prevented this, and said in a influence, no matter what our only pursued, and damaged by it,-no, not damaged, by the way, because to do whatever his landlord pleased may succeed in modifying the Gorman was a prudent man, and al- to command. ways insured to the full amount. His "That's all right," said Gorman, loss. We must, therefore, in not to the gas and that he felt quite been up to that sort o' thing." Gorman was one of those peculiar part out himself at being asked the It did not require the diabolical impressed with the fact that in also have a hand-pump, ma'am, and chalasters, who, in personal appear-question, as it implied a doubt of leer that accompanied this remark ly overy section of the east asserted roundly that it represented reply, but walked straight into the the front is real, but all behind is should say, beware of all nitrogen ing to go the length of saving that reply boxes. Gorman opened his even a little on us manures, including stable minutes. ing to go the length of saying that called the boy, and bade him mind. Gorman opened his eyes a little on the shop, while he held private con- hearing this.

"Anyone inside?" asked Gorman.

ing and peculiarly observant ones of wasnou-out youth, with a disposition on, and the same, for the place looks pretty should always be sown with a "But you forget, fireman, it is impossible for me do any of these who thus pronounced their idet, but Roddy was not quite such if it was all sold off you wouldn't one-half bushels oats and one bushes."

The baye enough to new images manner.

The baye enough to new images manner.

The will be a suppose, now, If peas are to be used, use one particularly their idet, but Roddy was not quite such if it was all sold off you wouldn't one-half bushels oats and one bushes.

The will be a suppose of the an idiot as they took him for. He have enough to pay up my loans?" obeyed his master's mandate by sit- "Nothink like it," said Boone tempting to carve a human face on again' me.

the head of a walking-stick. "Glad to see you, Mr. Gorman." said Boone, scating his tall hody on a low stool at the side of his riend, who, with his hat on, had thrown himself into an arm-chair, and spread out both legs before the "Very glad to see you indeed, in my-my little sanctum, my with- half-soled and heeled yesterday. The farm that are commonly fed slopply drawing room, if I may venture to corporal has long been noted for his food, and it is undeniable that they use the name, to which I retire daring the intervals of business."

"Pretty long intervals, I should We are gratified to hear that Mrs. other farm stock? Why not give suppose,'

pipe and lighting it.

Boone admitted, with a sigh, that will remain in town. they were, and observed that trade

"Why, would you believe it, sir, I have not sold twenty shillings' worth o' goods all last week, and only one wax doll within the month, although it's gettin' well on for Christmas-time? One would a most fancy the childr'n was about to give new maid-of-all-work. The young the height of the water in the trough up such vanities an' devote themselves to serious business. It's a get, and is unusually affuent in cous- plan may not be feasible, though it serious business for the like of us,

Again Mr. Boone smiled, and again failed to make an agreeable impresthe mind, forgetful and absentmind- to the body. 50 cents a box, six a surly tone if le had been thinking over it and made up his mind to do > paler than it was by nature, as he replied, hesitatingly, that he had heen thinking over it, and that had made up his mind not to do it "Oh. you have, have you?", orman was asked on one occasion Gorman in a tone of irony. "Very what his Christian name was, he re- good; then I'll trouble you to pay plied that he had no Christian name; me the three hundred pounds you didn't believe in Chris- owe me by this day next week, and tianity, and that he signed himself the rent of this here tenement for Boone's face became still paler. "You're a hard landlord," said he.

"You're a soft tenant," retorted

You know what the punishment is by law," continued Boone.

'Yes death," said the other, dryly; "but you know as well as I do qualities, definable and indefinable, that it's never carried out now a-"But penal servitude for ten

"Some men think it's worse." plied Gorman, with a savage grin; "but you've no need to fear. If you only take the right precautions it's writes Mr. H. E. Cook. To be impossible to find it out, an' I'll en- it does not require but an hour me advise you to sweep yer chimleys can't do no good, you know, and is public house at the corner of a dirty a way that there won't be a scrap proportionally less for 40. was the landlord of a small gage to put ye up to doin' it in such day to cut and feed ten cows. street, not far of from London the size of a sixpence left to convict same time, a dairy farmer is That's the first thing, ma'am; and Bridge; and that he kept a stout, you. Only put a bold face on it fellow, and $25 a month plus by middle aged man on the premises to and the thing's done, and your for- and care of a man, means that ma'am, that them as makes the laws as fast as ye can without stoppin' to nobody knew of, and which no one encd a little as he said this, for he he takes chances that pastures should more nor double the fines for dress. It's of no use lookin' put out, could find out, although many had thought he perceived symptoms of furnish chough coarse food, chimleys goin afire. But suppose, ma'ath; for it's better to escape tried to do so with all their might. wavering in his tenant, who covered they seldom do. Every day in the year, Gorman his face with his large thin hands

"Come, don't be hard on me," inspected the books, received the got courage to go through with this secured from pasture grass. gines come up. Also keep all win- cash drawn the day be ore; and made Only give me a little more time, and dows shut. If the smoke is like to an impression on all in the premises, I'll-" "Very good," interrupted Gorman, with an oath, as he rose and dashed his pipe into fragments on the hearth; "if you won't burn yourself; out o' this scrape-" "Hush! hush, man!" said Boone in a hoarse whisper; "not so loud; think of it. "Will you do it ?" demanded the 71 per cent., as compared to other fiercely. "You know the alternative if you don't." "Exactly so; and that without de-

"Ruination either way," murmur- form of concentrates. ed Boone sadly to himself, as though ie were counting the cost. "Tut, man," faid his landlord, be- stalk are not as palatable and coming more gentle, "it's nothing of less valuable. Much has been If you only take my advice, it'll be a jolly blaze, which, in- should be. Occasionally some for false, for his employer invariably stead of ending in smoke will end in plant is strongly advised. profits she was at that moment hot all over, and her face flushed at the mere order to take "the house" by surmencing business again on fresh capulation order to take "the house" by surmencing business again on fresh capulation of the mere order to take "the house" by surmencing business again on fresh capulation of the mere of the mere of the house of the mere of the mer stances was uncommonly small, for his employer invariantly stead of pounds and complete hot all over came at a different hour each day in some thousands of pounds and compression on fresh canfor you, so you'd better say yes, else planting crops not adapted t that you put the lights out. You're I'll go and have a talk with a legal friend of mine who is screwing gold northern standpoint. Cowper out of most unpromisg mines."

David Boone's face had by this always qualified their advice. time become so pale that it not become paler, so it curned some- expecting to make a living, subdued voice that he was willing or ambition may be, and while enemies semetimes said above it; resuming his seat in front of the fire; ern latitudes, expect the greater but neither they nor we have any "now you speak like a man. Sit growth from those plants that plotted means of proving or disproving that, down and I'll go over the matter ally flourish under low temper this The deputy protested that he al- with you, and make your mind easy RELIABLE AND SAFE CRUIT ways exercised the utmost precau- by showing you that it ain't either in putting everything out every a difficult or risky piece of work. night from the last beery lingerer, Bless you, it ain't the first time I've the texture and plant food conte

"Rather low," answered Boone, haps our most reliable supplement Three quarters of an hour sufficed who had re-seated himself on the crops. Of all the annuals. to convey Gorman from the east to stool; "in fact, I've got little or no hesitation in saying that the

the west end of London. Here he nothing more than what is visible. plant offers the fewest failures, sought the well-known precincts of T've bin so hard-up of late that I've do not do their best every ve Poorthing Lane, and entered the had to crowd overything into view Corn calls for much extra labou, a an' make the most of appearances. clover is at times freaky. That worthy received him with a All the dressed dolls has got their name was. A few were aware that look of glad surprise; but with a frocks spread out, and the undressed large growth, sown early, as solved ones their arms an legs throwed the soil is in workable condition about to make 'em take up as much the amount per acre must disc I'll call him to mind the shop, and the wonkboxes is open, the slates upon son conditions. They wanted and puzzle-boxes stuck up in single stand an excess of nitrogen, a rows is all inflated. Everything in asserted roundly that it represented reply, but walked straight into the the front is real, but all behind is should like a pointer, and all this, too, in unneces any tox mention. Only a Robert Roddy. He was a soft-faced you for. I thought you was well els oats per acre, graded seed, her night-dress, so she begred of him few and those were among the know. Robert Roddy. He was a soft-faced you for. I thought you was well els oats per acre, graded seed, of and I'm sure the neighbors think ed with formalin for smut. "Good," he said, after a pause: potash if the soil requires it. The shopboy enjoyed the name of "you're a cleverer fellow than I took from two to two and one-half has her night-dress, so she begged of him few, and these were among the know- to stop, and said:

| A compared to stop and said: | I consider the stop of the place looks profit | Should always be sown with the same for the place looks profit | Should always be sown with the same for the place looks profit | Should always be sown with the same for the place looks profit | Should always be sown with the same for the place looks profit | Should always be sown with the same for the place looks profit | Should always be sown with the same for the place looks profit | Should always be sown with the same for the place looks profit | Should always be sown with the same for the place looks profit | Should always be sown with the same for the place looks profit | Should always be sown with the same for the place looks profit | Should always be sown with the same for the place looks profit | Should always be sown with the same for the place looks profit | Should always be sown with the same for the place looks profit | Should always be sown with the same for the place looks profit | Should always be sown with the same for the place looks profit | Should always be sown with the same for the place looks profit | Should always be sown with the same for the place looks profit | Should always be sown with the same for the place looks profit | Should always be sown with the same for the place looks profit | Should always be sown with the same for the place looks profit | Should always be sown with the same for the place looks profit | Should always be sown with the same for the place looks profit | Should always be sown with the same for the place looks profit | Should always be sown with the same for the place looks profit | Should always be sown with the same for the place looks profit | Should always be sown with the same for the place looks profit | Should always be sown with the same for the place looks profit | Should always be sown with the same for the place looks profit | Should always be sown with the same for the place l ting down on a tall stool near the earnestly. "I've slaved night and if put in 4 to 5 inches. With crdin-window, and occupied himself in at-day, an' done my best, but luck's ary rainfall, if sown with a disc drill."

SOCIETY PERSONALS.

Mr. G. A. Gazzam forgot to wind his watch the night before last. Corporal Sabertash had his boots nobby foot-wear.

Boone said this with an air of us that her kitchen tea-kettle boiled suggests the question, is there, any pleasantry, and smiled, but his visi- over one day this week and caused good reason why the feeding of pigs weekly only the full moon twice as much as she did with the saved by the use of self-feeding doold ones. Mrs. Brown, of No. 12, Discomfort supplied by pipes from a spring of Road, Camden Town, has engaged a tank, and having a float to regulate

DR. A. W. CHASE'S 25c. is sent direct to the diseased parts by the Improved Blower. Heals the ulcora, clears the air passages, stops droppings in the throat and permanantly cures Catarrh and Hay Fever. Blower All dealers, or Dr. A. W. Chaso dicine Co... Torente and Buffalo.

Seasonable and Profitable liints for the Busy Tillers of the Soll.

FALL FEED PROBLEMS. Dairy farmers are slowly conding feel the necessity of supplement crops for late summer and fell for ing. They do not, however, advantage of the opportunity have, at all times, a supply of culent, food. there exists a degitimate cause many farms in the shortage of la necessary to perform the extra w minimum, rather than the miskit The man's voice and manner soft- amount of labor will be used.

Soiling is often disappointing the fact that none of the crows hear my patrons at the factory que why they do not get a fuil Jule when feeding oats and peas of co later in the season. They low that fresh pasture grass is the ne concentrated of all green subjust foods and the MOST EASILY DIGESTED. will hear you. Come, I'll It also has a very narrow nitri ratio, 1 to 33; its digestibil (v cent, found in green oats; it con only, 4 per cent, fiber, while contain over 11 per cont. We mile therefore, expect; if we get light yields, there must be adde

Then again we often secure soil and locality. I speak fr crimson clover enthusiasts has could might as well grow banana

All plants grow in proportion of the soil, and the sooner we le peas, red clover, and corn ar using freely of dissolved rock small white Canada peas. They will in mellow soil they will have pentiling enough. The cutting season may of ten be prolonged by repeated sowings from . ten days to two weeks the

SLOPPING PIGS.

are the most frequently troubled Mrs. Limberchin writes to inform with digestive derangement. This he growled, pulling out his Blackamoor Pugg has sent her pet them their food dry, and their drinks The Puggs in a separate trough? Some of the most healthy and thrifty pigs The Homespuns had their Aunt have ever seen were treated in this was extremely dull-astonishingly Maria at supper Wednesday evening, way, making rapid gains in weight. The old lady looks much improved If this theory be correct, what an in her new set of teeth, and cats immense amount of labor might be will I met you. Mailled vices for the dry feed, and troughs that on, "I believed that all we is a question whether they might hot better have their milk straight and their meal by itself, but in the lass of older pigs that have passed the milk stage or where the supply of milk is not sufficient to go round, it is quite practicable. It is had it ture's way to let animals do their own mining of their feeds, and it is well in some things to let her have her way It will cost but little man of one idea of always the to try this plan. It will not but little days of being laughed at by peo tle to try this plan. It will not oc success, and we shall be glad fram any who may try it as coss or fallure."

BEST UTENSILS Hor keeping cream will find almost every hing nwane from common tin pans to The cream is the most objectionable the dairy. The period 30-called, is made is well nigh impossible. se thoroughly clean that Imprir the purity of the ida where re a week. This faucet Lowite hurking place for ans suitable for pounds butter. They ent to empty into the fream carpier for th they can be washed and scalar erfection.

HORSE TAIR. ound corn at our t middlings and ou combination for s. ere should be about hay fed with the goar ong hay may he give rieeding with hav nost flermers. It is a and exhausts the dig and results in side and red breathing.

AN AUSTRALIAN ARMY.

me For Organization of the Colony's Forces scheme proposed by Major-Gen. Edward Hutton for the In. Australian Com has been recommended to tion by the Australian Follows utive Council. Gen. Datton was out to Melbournestwo sted with the mission vay for a reorganizad forces, and his work borne fruit. plan comprises to One a mobile pold large lequipped and trained to operations in the field til son force, efor the up molvile field force militaly of militia, con ades of cavalry, three the proper property On the poace featu 3,911 men and 60; footing, 27 TM: : garrison to:

prosent permana emain, and will be tillery garrisons for hd an instruction iteers and the operations wither a I by the Defence !

Hament, while the sponsible for the p preponderance of ne or organization need of the Dr arm, and to the rendered by all ited ... infantry in provided for will tion to the British

THOUGHTS OF A of the Infant Ra

ziers For Grov. first conscious of us, perhaps, 1. with the myste Il we all die?" a li ie other day, and " paved the way ment query, "Who wman?" The boy's easer than his understa eclared that the wall nd Jerusalem to and honey," and pardonable than girl who buried a d, saying, "Please, and fetch auntie." idea of beauty in gely varied. A tea hester school some thirty children fixe over the most beauti ever saw. Five chose tre in the stars, two the ship etting sun. One of l the moon stipulated that he chose flowers, two pirds. Not one chop a haman The snow, the rail. tiger's skin, salt, salver and a brooch, pink silk all: ote each and a little Jugo de d that the Union Jack was the beautiful thing in the world. in a voice dusky ured, were deceitful, but when I look your clear, beautiful axes I be here the very soul of candor loyalty." "George, sle exd, with enthusiasm, this applest moment I have known papa took me to the ocu ist!" "Yes, dear; you never have known that my left ove Then the moon lass one." under a cloud, and Chorge sal and buried his face in the sole

of being laughed at by peo

elegraphic Briefs From Al

Over the Globe.

CANADA. The Government will probably for Day for October negotiations under way can ied out an extensive trade anadian apples will be opened ith France. The Civic Fire and Water Commi of Hamilton decided to charge nts per 1,000 gallons in hol loons and livery stables.

The present session of Parlianter lasted 172 days, which is that of 1885, the longest Par ntary session in Canadian bitl Edmund Brown, of Hamilto mts a commission appointed to i stigate the way Magistrate di been conducting the affairs of The contract with Colombier r the establishment of a stead rvice between Bordeaux and da is reported to have been of Offawa.

It is said that there is a file the Government appointing ment officially to investigate lents on railways in Carmin. cider to this year are proaga, when the tackle slipped ere thrown forward, falling set. John Busbois is at the death and four others has moved to the hospital. There is trouble in Hamilt hat shall he done with Jui rds, a legiess unfortunate pepileptic fits. He was to St. Peter's Home and C Providence and was talen ail. I Sheciff Middleton, and or Chamberlain decided the ould not stay there, an that he be taken, into the He Refuge, but the committee

SCREAT BRITAIN. Hops are in a better con Kent than has been the

Mr. Mark Sanger, of N Axminister, has killed 33 he fields this year. Welsh stimplate works. etween 20,000 and 30,000 hut down because of a

The late Lieutenant Part rey, for forty years banding ne Grenndier Guards, has state valued at 26,189 g 05,884 net. Over 200 officers and men North Staffordshire Rogic o he Welsh Fusiliers visited a Mun to undergo a weeks training in hill-clipalding."

In a recent order as to doyment of military bands day. Lord Roberts remusic should be of an election acter, and "as far as pad-

"The greatest possible of fore decent people." ment of Mr. \Plowden gat Mi Police Court, while tickers youths 20s each for using guage in public.

UNITED STATES, David G. Williams, aged Cambria, Wis., who was to t rat two weeks ago, died blood poisoning. A little child of John Res Creston, lowa, swallowed po-They sprouted and were gree her stomach, and killed ber White Caps, of Clive. Low postel notices, warning w.

residents to deave and the all white men who can los General James Longston Chicago to have a bullet is Union soldier during the ... extracted. He thinks be had bullets in bien. The third trial of former S of State Powers for complicit murder of Governor Goebelie tucky resulted in the sec.

Preferring $600 a year f a small country parish to season, as a baseball glav big eastern club, Rev. Cla Marsh, thas just accepted til ite of the Baptist Charele Falls: lowa. Victor Marie Deran's Journ ed woman, aged 1.14 year at New Orleans. She birth to 22 children, of whee ber only nine survive, the cl ing 69 years old, and the Judge Carroll L. Wood of ansas Supreme Court, who posing Governor Davis as date, knocked the Governor stage, where they were speaking then was arrested for the a News of the death, of Mr. 1 smith, which occurred is Pown, South Africa, has ceived at New Brunswick, & was an American; calisted English army in 1902, and late ame a sergeant in the Cape M ed Police in South Africa.

Dressing the dead body of he old baby in white; with a bla bon about the waist, and placin picture of the infant Jesus in tiny hand, a young mother used Paper box as a coffin and placed under a rosebush in the Catho cometery at Jersey Vity, Sim too poor to buy a coffin.

GENERAL.

Paris reports assert that 15.5 urkish troops were killedeigst uppression of the Albanian upp General Buller told the War Co mission that if the Boers in Safe ad reached the sea they were have been aided by a European por Government, of New Sout will call for tenders, from and foreign manufacture

for 100 railroad locomotives