FLESHERTON HAPPENINGS

(By our own Correspondent.)

The Great Falls (Montana) Daily Tribune of the 11th inst., contains the following interesting news concerning an esteemed young gentleman formerly a resident of this place: "On Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. Jos. Smith and Mrs. Jeanette Currie Smith, of Stockett, Miss Isabel Smith and Mr. William C. Irwin were united in marriage by Rev. Mr. Mitchell, of the Presbyterian church. Only the members of the immediate family were present, and Mr. Ernest Downing, brother-in-law of Mrs. Irwin, from Great Falls. The bride was charming in her travelling suit of brown cloth with which she wore an exquisite white waist. The parlor was prettily decorated with flowers and the service was performed in front of the piano, with the traditional wedding ring. Mr. and Mrs. Smith joined in giving away their daughter into Mr. Irwin's keeping, and after the congratulations and good wishes of the pastor and company repaired to the dining room and partook of an elaborate wedding breakfast. Miss Smith has lived since a child in Stockett or Sand Coulle and has grown from a sweet lovely girl to a charming, beautiful and lovable young lady who counts all her acquaintances as friends. Mr. Irwin is the popular manager of the company's store and has, like his bride, made his home for many years either here or at Sand Coulle, and is universally esteemed for his geniality and integrity of character. Mr. and Mrs. Irwin drove into Great Falls to take the train for Havre, and will proceed to Niagara Falls and from there go to Canada, Mr. Irwin's former home. They expect to be gone three or four weeks and carry with them the best wishes of hosts of friends." Mr. and Mrs. Irwin were joined at Toronto last week by the former's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Moore, of this place, and after visiting Niagara and Wilson, N.Y., arrived here on Saturday and the young couple are spending this week with Mr. Irwin's father, Mr. Charles Irwin of the suburbs. We join Mr. Irwin's numerous friends here in hearty congratulations and good wishes for himself and bride.

The rain storm on Wednesday of last week interfered with the garden party under the auspices of the Presbyterian Ladies Aid at Jacob Thompson's, east back line. A social was held in the house and about $8.00 realized, which was very good considering the inclement weather. The ladies of the neighborhood were enthusiastic in their work and had gone to great trouble in preparing for the event, which would doubtless have been very successful had conditions been favourable.

The Flevisham and Flesherton football clubs played a friendly match here on Friday evening last, but the visitors were so late in arriving that there was time only for thirty minutes play. The match, though short, was interesting and resulted in one goal for the visitors. The home team was weakened by two of their best players being away.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lyons, 3rd line Artemesia, have the sympathy of their numerous friends on the loss of their infant son, about a year old, who died on Saturday night last. Interment took place in the public cemetery here on Monday.

On Wednesday evening of last week Mr. John Hargrave, jr., of the Collingwood Road, became a benedict, the esteemed young lady who accepted his hand being Miss. Clara Gilliland, daughter of Mrs. T. B. Gilliland, of Eugenia. The interesting event took place at the home of the bride's mother and was attended by about seventy invited guests. The bride, who was prettily gowned in white organdie, was given away by her uncle from Mt. Forest, and Rev. G. H. Hurlbert, of this place, tied the nuptial knot.

Mr. Thos. Gilliland and Miss Ida Brownlee discharged the duties of groomsmen and bridesmaid. After the ceremony and usual congratulations a sumptuous wedding supper was served and an enjoyable evening was spent by the company. The bride was the recipient of a beautiful array of wedding presents.

Mr. John Brown, sr., east back line, is under treatment of a specialist for failing sight which has been troubling him of late. Mr. Brown is very fond of reading, and being in a position to now spend his days as leisurely as he may please, we trust he may have preserved sight to long enjoy his favorite pastime.

As we write (Monday) news has been received here by wire from Durham announcing the death of Maude, eldest daughter of Mr. W. Irwin, editor of the Chronicle, who has succumbed to typhoid fever. Maude, as many of readers know, was a very clever and bright christian girl, whose death is a great shock to her numerous friends, young and old, here. The whole community breathes sorrow for Mr. Irwin and his little daughter Rita in the great bereavement that has befallen them. The remains of the poor girl are to be laid alongside her mother here Wednesday.

Farmers on the 4th line Artemesia are having troubles some time with colt distemper, which has been for some time prevalent and severe among their young horses.

Rev. Wilson had sufficiently recovered from his accident to supply his pulpit here on Sabbath last. Mrs. F. Nicholson supplied at Ceylon.

Rev. Mr. Cameron, Asst.-Supt. of Home Missions, was the guest of Rev. G. S. Hurlbert on Wednesday of last week and had the very inclement weather not prevented an audience, was to deliver an address in the Baptist church that evening.

Mrs. Lesset, of Preston, and Mrs. Borsch, of Toronto, were guests of the former's sister-in-law, Mrs. A. S. Van Dusen, part of last week. Miss Ella Borsch, of Toronto, is visiting Mrs. Van Dusen this week.

Mr. John Gillespie, who has served his apprenticeship with Mr. A. Wilson, barber, left on Tuesday to take a situation in Toronto.

Mr. Everett Hoy, formerly with Mr. Wilson, but now of Brampton, made a short visit here last week.

Mrs. (Dr.) Rosborough, nurse, was in town on Friday last saying good-bye to her father, Mr. Bannan, and sister, Mrs. W. A. Armstrong, before leaving this week to again take up her work at Everett, Wash. Her eight year old son accompanied her.

Mr. and Mrs. Karstedt attended the marriage of the latter's cousin, Mr. Hargrave, at Eugenia last week.

Mr. W. Ritchie and sister, Miss Gertrude, of Dundalk, spent Sunday at Mr. M. K. Richardson's. Mr. Ritchie occupied his old place in the Methodist choir on Sunday evening and favored the congregation with a well rendered solo.

Mrs. John Stewart and her aunt, Mrs. W. Neil, who is recovering from a severe illness, visited friends at Markdale on Monday.

Miss Ada Cleland, of Barwick, Rainy River, is visiting her uncle, Mr. Jos. Blackburn, here, and other relatives in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shaw, of Markdale, spent Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bellamy.
