THE MARKDALE STANDARD.

FLESHERTON HAPPENINGS
(By our own Correspondent.)

The fourth annual convention of Artemesia Sabbath School Association was held in the Methodist church here on Wednesday of last week and was, in point of programme, good, but the attendance, especially at the afternoon session, was not what was expected. The Vice-President, Rev. J. A. Mathewson, of Priceville, presided, and devotional exercises were led by Rev. L. W. Thom, of this place, after which Rev. G. F. Hurlbert, of this place, gave a thoughtful paper on "Teachers' qualifications," some of which, said the speaker, are a thorough knowledge of the word of God, and how to apply the word to the scholars. The successful teacher must know the truth experimentally, and this implies that he must be in living touch with his Master. He should also understand human nature and if possible have a course of training in college, Bible or Normal class. Rev. W. F. Rouche, of Priceville, followed with a very earnest and enthusiastic address on the relation of Church and School.

Mrs. (Dr.) Sprout, Miss Lillian Sprout and Master Russell Fletcher, of Markdale, were in town on Friday last calling on friends.

Mr. Ed. Elder, of Owen Sound, was in town over Sunday among his old friends.

Dr. R. H. Henderson, of Toronto, visited on Saturday and Sunday with relatives here and was accompanied home by Mrs. Henderson on Monday. Mr. J. S. Rowe, of Markdale, gave us a pleasant call when returning from the convention at Durham on Friday last.

Mrs. McTavish, sr., and Miss F. McTavish, of Mt. Forest, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. D. McTavish here.

Typographical errors were numerous in our budget last one added ten years to the age of the late Mrs. Bentham, and another deducted one year from the age of Miss Maud Irwin.

The Harvest Home in connection with Meadow Road Church was a decided success. On Sunday large congregations listened to very interesting sermons delivered by Rev. Wm. Johnston, of Hawkeville, in the afternoon and Rev. H. Berry, of Euphrasia circuit, in the evening. On Monday evening a hot foul supper was served in the basement after which an excellent program was given in the main body of the church consisting of addresses by Revs. Johnston, Berry and Thom, readings by Miss Christine Richardson, of Flesherton, and Miss Bunt, of Woodbridge, and music by the Flesherton choir. Mr. Wilson supplied the chair in his usual pleasing manner. The church was nicely decorated with flowers and fruit suitable to the occasion.

Miss Vina Neely, of Rocklyn, visited with friends here last week.

Miss Vina Littlejohns, of Markdale, was the guest of Mrs. Wm. Foster last week.

Miss Jessie Graham visited recently with friends near Kimberley.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Waring, of Port Law, spent Sunday with the former's brother Geo. Waring and family.

A large number from here attended the Harvest Home services at New England on Sunday.

WANTED—SEVERAL INDUSTRIES persons in each state to travel for him established fifteen years and with a large capital, to call upon manufacturers and agents for successful and profitable business. Good compensation.

Rev. G. F. Hurlbert, of Flesherton, whose subject was "Child Life the battle ground of the Kingdom," Rev. L. W. Thom replied to those who sought information through the question-drawer. The ladies here served refreshments in the Schoolroom of the church to the delegates who remained over from the afternoon session.

Mr. Thos. Kerr disposed of his business last week to Mr. Ed. Patterson, who is now running it in connection with his livery business here. Mr. Kerr has returned to his former occupation in Markdale.

Our public school pupils greatly enjoyed the two days from their tasks last week, occasioned by the absence of the staff at the convention at Durham.

Artemesia council sat on Monday, and out of respect for the late Senator Lauderkin, the flag at the hall was run up half mast.

The League meetings in the Methodist church, which were withdrawn for the summer months, were resumed on Monday evening last.

Rev. G. F. Hurlbert, of this place, and C. E. Pines, of Bentinck, exchanged bounties on Sabbath last.

Mr. Thos. Minow's child, five months old, was interred in the public cemetery here on Monday. Rev. Mr. Thom officiated at the funeral, which took place from the home of Mr. William Park, Tyrone.

Our junior football club went to Priceville on Saturday for a return match, but were disappointed, as the boys there were not in form to play.

Rev. R. H. Leitch, of Picton, is having a neat monument erected at the family plot in the Flesherton cemetery in memory of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Leitch, and brother Walter, interred there.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Blackburn, of Creemore, visited their relatives in this place and vicinity a few days ago.

Mr. Ed. White, of Sarnia, youngest son of Mr. W. J. White, of this place,
