ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION.

On Thursday evening, October 1st, large gathering, composed mostly of the congregation of Ebenezer appointment, Euphrasia circuit, met at the come of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Erskine and presented them with the following address, which was read by Miss Oliver; at the proper time Messrs. H. Freeman and H. Sewell presented the gifts. Mr. Frskine, who with Mrs. E. was very much overcome with these tokens of appreciation and regard, made a suitable reply, in which he said that as choir leader organist be had only done his duty, and to him and Mrs. Erskine it had been a privilege and pleasure to do what they had done in the choir, Sunday School and church. The pastor, Rev. H. Berry, Mr. Davis and others spoke of the untiring faithfulness and efficient help rendered by Mr. and Mrs. Erskine, not only in the choir but in the various departments of church work, and expressed the very deep regret which all felt at their removal from the neighborhood; after which a number of choice selections of vocal and instrumental music vere rendered by the choir and Mr. Fred Johnston, and then all partook freely of a sumptuous tea which had been provided by the ladies.

DEAR MR. AND MRS. ERSKINE.

We have learned with sorrow that you are going to leave us, after living thus far on life's journey in our neighborhood, and now over twelve years organist and leader in song service in our church. And not only in this, but by your christian example, and in every way in your power, have you labored to promote the cause of Christ and advance the welfare of our church. It would not be just to us or yourselves to allow this separation to take place in silence. We, your friends of Ebenezer and Markdale, wish you, Mr. Erskine, to accept this fur cont, and Mrs. Erskine, those parlor rugs and this tea sett, as tokens of the feelings we hold toward you. We are extremely sorry to part company with you, and fail to see how your place will be filled in the church and Sabbath School, but our loss will be another's gain. As we journey on through life may we often meet and renew the pleasant associations of the past, until we meet where there shall be no more parting.

'In conclusion we wish you and yours many years of happiness and enjoyment in your new home. In behalf of Ebenezer church and neighborhood
