Proton Station.

Considering that it is almost the middle of October, the farmers of this locality have done but little plowing. Fred Wurtz, who disposed of his farm to William White recently for the sum of $7,500, has moved into the village and has started cattle buying, and shipped his initial load last week.

Joe Stephens disposed of his farm, stock and implements to his brother, Thomas, for the sum of $400 for the farm, Joe will spend the winter in the employ of the Toronto Street Railway, and in the spring will go west.

Walter Corbett, of the Toronto Post Office Department, has been spending a week with his sister, Mrs. James Lockhart, and at the parental home at Bethel.

Miss Millie Hodgins, of Toronto, is at present holidaying with friends around Proton.

Mrs. John Hanley, of Ancaster, who has been spending several weeks with friends here, returned home some time ago accompanied by her sister, Miss Joe Patton.

Patrick Ryan has retired from farm life, having sold his property to Mrs. Henry Payne for the sum of $1300. Pat will probably engage in the grocery business, if a satisfactory locality can be found.

Orlo Brooks visited former friends in and around Berkeley a short time ago.

Miss Ethel Neilson gave a birthday party to some of her intimate friends last week.

Harvest Home services were observed in the church of England last Sunday by the Rev. Mills, of Ceylon.

William Graham, of Victoria Corner, has sold to John Corbett, of Bethel, his farm. Possession to be given on the 1st of March, or before. The purchase sum was $3,025. The late owner and family will move to Bolton in the spring.

Anniversary services in connection with the Presbyterian church will be conducted here next Lord's Day.

A pretty wedding was witnessed here last week. The contracting parties were Miss Lottie Meddaugh, of Proton, and Thomas Nixon, of Corbettton. Only relatives of the bride and groom
