

Markdale Standard

VOL. XXIV.—WHOLE NO. 1205.

MARKDALE, ONTARIO, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1903.

$1.00 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE.

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS

You will enjoy Friday evening's concert.

The long fall and winter evenings are upon us. The fur lined shop windows say, prepare for winter.

Sexton wanted for Methodist church. Apply at this office.

Mouth organs, a full line from 5c. up at Turner's Drug Store.

Purse found in Markdale post office containing money. This office.

Alman's religion in the shop is worth twice his religion in the church.

You will not forget the school concert on Friday. The pupils are paying for their organ.

We have decided to continue printing the STANDARD, notwithstanding the adverse decision of the Alaskan boundary commission.

Mr. Hamill, mayor of Meaford, was presented with a purse of $600 for his efforts in advancing the interests of the town as a grain port. He has been mayor for six years.

Last Monday night the 13th inst., at the ball at Bevere Hotel hall, a light fell hat with broad black band. Had a hat mark with I. W. A. The finder will please leave it at this office.

It is no surprise that Rocklyn agricultural fair should draw a great crowd since the live stock speak to spectators at the Meaford Mirror, in its report last week says: "Nothing need be said about the horses, swine and swine they spoke for themselves."

We are pleased to learn that Mr. P. H. Thilander, principal of Wetaskiwin, Alta., public school, and formerly of this district, has been successful in his studies which he followed during the prosecution of his onerous duties in returning the degree of B. A.

Mr. John Maher and his men completed shingling and closing in that monster open shed at the Bevere House on Tuesday. The length of the building is 200 feet instead of 166 feet long, as stated two weeks ago, and took fifty thousand shingles to cover it.

Any amount of money to lend on mortgage security at the lowest rate of interest. Expenses low. No fines. Properties valued personally. No waiting for convenience of inspectors. W. L. Young, Markdale, Appraiser for Canada Permanent Loan Company.

Chas. Gordon, Esq., Chairman of the Grey County House of Refuge committee, is reported to have said that he would defy any steam plow in America to plow the above farm six inches deep, and now he asks for tenders for the plowing of the same half a foot deep. Some people do not believe in impossibilities, but others seem to expect them, even demand them.

The Centerview Record tells of a young man who had been writing to a girl in Minneapolis for three years, intending some day to ask her to marry him. The other day he received a letter and a picture from her. The letter announced that she had been married two years, and the picture was of her baby. "My husband and I have enjoyed your letters very much," she wrote, "but I guess you had better stop writing now, as I have to spend all my time caring for the baby." The Record says the words the young man used after reading the letter would shock a field of oats.

Two weeks ago in these columns The Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal made known to our readers its new premiums for this season, and it is most gratifying to learn from the publishers that the result of their announcement in this paper has created the biggest demand they have ever had from this section of the country. The liberality of their offer and our extensive circulation could not fail to bring returns. The Family Herald and Weekly Star is this year offering as free premiums to all subscribers two beautiful pictures, entitled "Heart Broken" and "Hard to Choose," as well as a large colored library map of the Dominion of Canada with an enlarged map of this province. Every place of population can be found at a glance. Populations are also given. It is most complete, and with the pictures and The Family Herald and Weekly Star for one year, all for one dollar, is certainly worthy of public patronage.

My Goodness!

Will those clothes ever get dry? I do declare there is nothing but rain these days. Entrust your clothes to us and have them washed, starched and dried for four cents per pound, and you will never regret it. Think of the cold wintry winds and be wise. Markdale Steam Laundry.

Sudden Death.

Mr. William Croft, a successful farmer of our western suburbs, owing to poor health recently sold his farm with the view of retiring. He disposed of his chattels and on Monday while on the way to Markdale, about sixty rods from the farm house they were leaving, his daughter, Laura A., aged 19 years, died suddenly while sitting in the vehicle. The physician pronounced it a case of heart failure. The remains were brought to their new home in town, from which the funeral took place this Wednesday p.m. to the public cemetery, Rev. Mr. Rodwell officiating. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved parents and family.

A Close Call.

On Tuesday of last week Miss Maud Ford, daughter of Mr. J. W. Ford of the Markdale Roller Mills, had an unpleasant experience. She was suffering from asthma and her mother gave her some liquid which she had stewed from a herb grown from seed for the purpose. The dose proved too strong for the subject and she became delirious, lost her sight and manifested evidences of having taken poison. Her mother was alone but promptly gave her an emetic which did its work generously and in some seven or eight hours she was herself again. It was certainly a close call, and goes to prove that too much of anything is good for nothing.

Mrs. Wright at Christ Church.

During last week Mrs. Wright was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Lucas. According to announcement in the STANDARD, she sang in the choir of Christ Church at both services last Sunday. Although the night was dark and rainy, a large congregation was in attendance in the evening. Mrs. Wright has, if anything, improved in tone and technique since her magnificent voice was last heard in Markdale. Her two solos—"Here Am I, Send Me," and "Angels ever Bright and Fair"—were a genuine treat to music lovers. She has promised to pay us another visit next summer, and her coming will be looked forward to with delighted anticipation, especially by those who are capable of appreciating musical and artistic ability of the highest order.

Hear the little fellows sing "The Shoemaker" on Friday night.

Rev. Dr. Chown will give an address in the Methodist church Monday evening, November 2nd. Dr. Chown is an able and talented speaker, and should draw a full house.

A choice farm of one hundred acres convenient to Markdale, well watered, good barn and house, well fenced and in excellent state of cultivation. Enquire at this office.

Miss Rutledge has moved her dressmaking outfit and may now be found upstairs in the Ennis block, Toronto street, where she will be pleased to meet her numerous customers.

The boys have two good choruses and they sing them well. Hear them at the school concert on Friday evening. Tickets 25c; reserved seats 10c extra. Dassist Mercer has charge of the reserved seat plan.

An error was made in the prize list of Markdale Fair last week. A. Ellison was credited with getting first prize for carriage horse, 2 yrs. old; this should have been J. J. McGhee, who won first prize and also the Diploma.

Mr. Thos. Mercer has invested in an imported Heavy Draft Stallion "Fidelity" which is certainly a superior animal. He is from Scotland and is decidedly a hardy looking horse, as well as being symmetrical and handsome.

Mr. East of the Orangeville Paving Co., after completing his contract at the House of Refuge, doing numerous private jobs, and making repairs in defective portions of the sidewalk, left town with his staff on Tuesday. He has done a lot of good cement work in town, and need not be afraid to return again any time.

Blacksmiths Organize.

The advance in wages and stock in the blacksmith business has necessitated an advance in rates, and as a consequence the smithies have formed an association to protect themselves from the cutting of rates, and in most lines a material advance has been made over old prices. This association has been extending its limits and is now, we understand, general. The new prices are to come into force the first of November.

Darkness After Lightning.

On Thursday evening of last week a severe electric storm passed this way, during which Minnie's electric dynamo was struck and the town plunged into darkness, which has seriously embarrassed both business and domestic affairs since. The machine was expressed next morning to the factory for repairs and for a week all hands and the cook have been groping in the dark. Every effort is being made by Messrs. Minnie to get into shape again for the production of electric current, which is expected this Wednesday night.

Swept the Boards.

Mercer & Campbell, of Markdale, swept the boards at the fair fall in Kamloops, B. C., with a herd of Herefords taken west by Mr. Mercer a few weeks ago. Notwithstanding the fact that the herd only reached Kamloops on the morning of the fair and were consequently not in the best of condition; they carried off all the special, herd and individual prizes. Dr. L. G. Campbell, one of the firm, and son of Mr. G. A. Campbell, bought some of the herd from Mr. W. H. Hunter a couple of months ago.—Orangeville Banner.

Large Funeral.

The funeral of the late Walter J. Taylor last Wednesday to the Markdale public cemetery was largely attended. The weather was balmy and beautiful. The obsequies were in charge of the I. O. F. lodge of this place who had furnished a beautiful floral wreath, and with the assistance of Rev. Henry Berry the remains of his brother was tenderly and fraternally interred. Two sons and four daughters, with their mother, not three sons and three daughters as stated last week, are left to mourn the demise of the head of the family.

Narrowly Escaped Injury.

While driving to Markdale on Friday last with a spirited team and democrat Mr. James M. Fawcett, of Kimberley, had a narrow escape from serious injury. It appears the doubletree broke, causing the pole to drop which frightened the horses and they commenced to run. Mr. F. pulled them into the fence and, in doing so was pulled over the dash board and his wife, who was with him, either jumped or was thrown out. Mr. Fawcett sprang to his feet and caught the horses by the head. Fortunately no serious damage was done, both they and the horses escaping injury.

Markdale Lodge A.O.U.W.

District Deputy H. H. Burgess, Owen Sound, paid Markdale lodge an official visit at its regular meeting Monday night, and Organizer Allen happened along also that day. The meeting was largely attended and at the close an oyster supper was partaken of at Mrs. Leslie's restaurant, which proved a very enjoyable and fraternal function. Mr. Burgess is Public School Inspector for North Grey, and this was his first visit here in above capacity. Mr. Allen, of Alliston, remains a few days in the interest of the Order. This was the 22nd anniversary of the existence of Markdale Lodge, No. 141, and the occasion was fittingly celebrated.

John R. Duncan Dead.

John R. Duncan, son of Mr. John Duncan, of Berkeley, went west two months ago a hearty, robust young man, and on Saturday last his parents were wired the sad word that he was dead. He was firing on the C. P. R. and contracted typhoid fever, went to the hospital at Rat Portage and on Friday last, October 16th, 1903, after three weeks suffering succumbed to the dread monster, aged 24 years, 11 months and 6 days. His body is being brought home for burial and is expected to arrive at Berkeley on Thursday. The funeral will likely take place on Friday. Much sympathy is manifested for the grief stricken parents and family.

Euphrasia Fall Fair.

On Friday, the 9th October, the "World's Fair" was held at Rocklyn. Few townships in the province have made greater development and progress than Euphrasia, and this popular annual exhibition is a fair index to the situation. The entries this year exceeded that of any former, and the attendance must have reached fifteen hundred. The live stock exhibit was both large and excellent, proving that many up-to-date breeders are in the district. The exhibit in the hall showed superiority all along the line, so that any lack in quantity was made up in quality. The day's gate receipts including the evening concert amounted to $362. Premium list next week.

Dundalk Herald.

Oyster Social.

A fine evening, a fine crowd and a fine supper were all much in evidence at the oyster social held in the Methodist church on Thanksgiving evening, and all combined made this annual affair one of the most successful yet held. The supper commenced at eight o'clock and oysters and the other good things were served until after ten. Owing to the lateness of the hour several numbers on the program were omitted. Miss Christina Richardson of Fiesberton gave a couple of well rendered recitations, Mrs. Hill sang a pleasing solo, and Mr. Perkins gave an excellent cornet solo. Rev. Mr. Rodwell, the genial pastor of the church, led all in their power to make the evening an enjoyable one.

11th Line, Euphrasia.

It is with feelings of deep sympathy for the suddenly bereaved family that we chronicle the death of Walter J. Taylor, "Fairfield Farm," 11th Line Euphrasia. He had been very active until about a week ago, but, despite the best efforts of his physicians, succumbed to a brief attack of congestion of the lungs. The grief-stricken widow, two sons and four daughters have the sympathy of a wide circle of friends in their sorrow, but greater comfort than this is afforded them in the resignation to the divine will of their dearly beloved husband and father, who peacefully passed away to the better land. The deceased, who was but a little over 58 years of age, will be greatly missed in the family circle, as well as by his good neighbors. The funeral took place to the Markdale Public Cemetery on Wednesday afternoon, the burial services being conducted by Rev. Mr. Berry. Among the floral offerings was a beautiful wreath from Court Markdale, I. O. O. F., of which he had been a member for nine years; also one from his family.
