said Gorman, with an air of assumed plty. 'A pretty case you would your shop with combustibles, you warn your tenant upstairs to get out of the premises for a time in a way that must be quite unaccountable to her until the fire accounts owing to the lower part of the stair-for it), and your own clerk sees you case having caught fire. for it), and your own clerk sees you spilling turpentine about the place the day before the are occurs, and yet you have the stupidity to suppose that people will believe you when you denounce incl."

Poor David Boone's wits seemed to be sharpened by his despair for he said suddenly, after a snort partitle case is so bad it will tell for I against yourself, Gorman, for I shall be certainly convicted, and the insurance will not be paid to you. "Ay, but the case is not so bad as it looks," said Gorman, 'if you only have the sense to hold your tongue and do what you are told; for you and me, and nobody can, put

"If matters not:" saill Boone firmwon't do it-there!"

Both men leaped up. At the same moment there was a sound as of something falling in the shop. They looked at each other.
"Go see what it is," said Gor-

The other stepped to the door. "It's only two of my wax-dolls tumbled off the shelf," he said on | Eagle.

An exclamation of horror escaped him, for he saw that the heap of shavings had been set on fire during his momentary absence, and Gorman stood watching them with a demoni-

Boone was struck dumb. He could move or speak. He made a effort to stretch out his hands as if to extinguish the fire, but Gorman seized him in his powerful grasp and held him fast. In a few seconds the flames were leaping up the walls, and the room was so full of smoke that they were driven into the front

Now, then." said Gorman in a fierce whiseer, "your only chance is force whiseer, "your only chance as man! She held her breath, also the to act out your part as wisely as blankets, tightly, as she went down you can. Shout fire! now till you're black in the face-fire! fire!! Me!!!" David Boone obeyed with all His might, and, when Gorman released try to extinguish the flames, but he gien in helmets, into an adjoining was driven back again, scorched and house, and left unburt in the arms half-cooked, while Gorman ran off at of ther sympathetic friend Miss Tipfull speed to the nearest station pet.

cantic females scheamed it and in a few minutes the hubbub in Poorthing Lane swelled into a steady roar.

Among the sound sleepers in that pet) on the very first note of alarm, head, as hounced out of bed with an empha-frizzled. utmost possible extent and exclaim Without waiting for a reply she too bounded out of bed like an india The repetition of the cry "Fire!

at once to become insanc. of one of London's guardians; our out at the door like bees, and were friend Samuel Forest. Sam was a all safe when the wall fell-all safe calm, self-possessed man. But, al but one, Joe Corney, who, being though self-possessed and cool, he reckless man, took things too leis

Any Sore That

"What! you dare to doly me?" more the fire-escape was seen coming up the lane like a rampant monster of the antediluvian period.

frantic cheers, because they had just become aware that a lady was asleon in one of the upper rooms, which were by that time unapproachable

The fact was made known with. sudden look of horror by Miss Tip pet, who, with Emma Ward, had been rescued from the first floor window by a gallant policeman.

Dozens of tongues and hundreds of oices directed Sam Forest to the right window. He pointed his escape toward it, but so vigorous was crowd that the head of the machine went crashing through it and dashbedelothes, and, drawing her knees they might have been, where frus-up to her mouth clasped her hands trated at that time; for he found

"Come, ma'am, don't take on so; jous. He did not, however, no time to lose; floor's goin' down!' the house without putting, as ! said Sam, He coughed as he said it pressed it at least one spoke in his for the smoke was getting thicker wheel; for he conducted himself in

Shrick upon shrick was the only expressed so much feeling for her answer vouchsafed by the terrified friend "and his," that he made quite tions were the reverse, for it was that might be conducive to his now a matter of life or death; so health and comfort, and went away all, in his arms, and hore her to look in to inquire for him as often the window. Sam was considerate, as he could. He begged pardon as he he bedelothes round his wrapped the bedelothes round victim, and lifting her into the head of the escape let her go.

No swoop that the Eagle made (mentally) down mon base made (physically), on that occasion into the arms of an expectant firelike a lightning-flash, and felt that dall, and then went leisurely home to he not? Everywhere by turns and nowhere long, was David to be seen in the frenzy of his excitement. Conscience-smitten for what he had After David Boone's first alarm done, or rather intended to do, he was given, other voices took it up; ran wildly about, making the most Boone's eyelashes and whiskers were region was Miss Deemas Miss Tip signed off; little hair was left on his head, and that little was short and been made by the firemen to save Emma Ward to open her eyes to the plot been laid; so thoroughly had the combustibles been distributed look of anxiety as he obsered that and lubricated with inflantmable liquids, that all the engines in the metropolis, would have failed to ex-

There was a shout at last among

By this time, David Boone, besides being mad, was in a raging fever. The tenant of the house to which

Sensonable and Profitable Hints for the Busy Tillers

UP-TO-DATE FARMING. 1.

Next day, D. Gorman happened, One thing the up-to-date farmer quite in a casual way of course, to will work hard for, and that is to have his farm buildings as conveni-"Wery sad, ain't it, sir?" said a ent as possible. The amount of monthetic barber. "He was sich time and strength used up in doing a droll dog, too. He'll be quite a work in unhandy barns, for instance, loss to the neighborhood; won't he, is astonishing beyond belief, writes a correspondent. 'I hope he won't," said Gorman

"I hope to see him start fresh, an' git on better than ever, poor fellow; these unhandy barns, I was impressed by the tremendous loss of energy at least, I'll do all I can to help the owner of that farm sustained every time he fed his horses and cattle. Every pound of hay he fed his horses sir, more than once, I believe; at least so he told me, 'said the barfrom the mow far along the floor to a pitch-hole down which it was pushber, with an approving nod.
"Well, so have I," returned Goras- ed and then along an alley until the me mangers were reached. Think of that! Take a man who was not robust in health, or in case of sickgot ness when the boys and women folks he may be compelled to do chores. was flourishing, so I'm not going to what a piece of work it would be to

Now, a little foresight would have When the barn is built is the time to fix things for the man who feeds But Gorman's intentions, whatever the stock. In our up-to-date barn we have the hay come down right in ront of the cattle, it only being necessary to pitch it from the mow to the big floor whence it goes directly to the feeding alley. Even this is work enough for us. The straw shed is within six feet of the horses. No hard work about bedding the horses there. THEN IN THE HOUSE. a too, how terribly contrived are rooms in many houses! Not long kitchen was hardly big enough for a woman togturn around in. My wife said it never would do for her. The stove took up the most of the room, and she being a woman of generous proportions must have a little room board utilized almost all the space

Mr. Thomas Tippet beaming and the stove did not monopolize. Every perspiring as of old, was standing at farm house should have a good big bench, chisel in hand, and Willie kitchen. If we are going to shorten Willders was standing with his back any of the rooms let it be the parto the fire, and his legs pretty wide lors, but it would be a great misapart; not because he preferred that take to do even that. Then, the water should be handy to and Puss were asleep side by side be- the kitchen. I have in mind

Standing on the hearth, as we have said, Willie related to his friend cooking purposes must be brought all he knew in regard to the Cattley from a spring, as much as a quarter of a mile away. I have personal knowledge that the man of that farm allowed his wife to hig water from Mr. Tippet, leaning on his beach that spring most of the time one and looking into Willie's face with a knee deep, and that she contracted "Done, my boy ?" why, help 'em of rheumatism from which she has since suffered terribly. I believe such man should be argested and punished severely. But many of the rest of and Cattley junior is able to sup- make very careful provision for the corn, but may find it useful in many port himself, and I was not until needed water supply of our farm now aware that the poor daughter houses. was killing herself to support her father; but as I do know it now I'll kitchen door, and easily approached.

continue the allowance and increase No woman or man either should be it, and we shall give it into the expected to carry water up a flight daughter's hands, so that the father of steps. It is much better if one be situated so that he can bring the Mr. Tippet's visage glowed | with water into the house arder as he stated this arrangement. but the glow was displaced by a

-FROM SOME GOOD SPRING. How much work this will save for the house-wife, who can tell!

his crops, he should not forget to provide everything as modern for his wife as he can. More than one farmhouse is as bare of conveniences "Thanks to your own genius, Wil- as those of lifty years ago were. This lie, for the very remarkable and is not right. The man who will prolific offshoots which you have put all needed money into farm tools for his own use and neglect his wife who is expected to keep up her end Not the less thanks to you sir," of the ward Willie, "but Z-a-Miss Cattley himself. of the work, ought to be ashamed of What should the farmer's wife have money from any one in charity, as in the line of conveniences in ' the house? A good kitchen table upon which to do her making of pies and bread; a sink to wash dishes in; an ironing board, a sewing machine; a observe. She deceives herself, no doubt, into the belief that it is laudable, but it is not; for, when a girl herself and family; a large cupboard herself and family; a large cupboard self into her grave, it is her duty not for dishes; a place to stow away kettles basin and kettle covers; as the privilege, of her friends to plenty of low, easy chairs to sit in support her. Truth is truth, Willie, when sewing or doing similar work. support her. Truth is truck, stating and we must not shrink from stating These do not cost much as a time.

They may be purchased one at a time. They may be purchased one at a time. are apt to misunderstand it, or be- if the farmer does not feel able to there are a number of mean- get them all at once. By getting trash. spirited wretches who would be glad now and then some such things for say that they could not work the housework, in a little while ev-without injuring their health if they erything needed will be supplied. could, by so doing, persuade their More than one woman has been friends to support them. Why, sir, broken down physically by being Miss Cattley is committing suicide! compelled to do her work under diswork in the house, but also to lend Willie admitted that there was a hand when outside work presses much truth in Mr. Tippet's observa- and it is not right that she should tions, but did not quite agree with be required to scrub any way she can much happiness. More; they may the means of knitting the hearts and

A.K. K. X. X. X. X. X. X. X. X. Ilives of the young folks to the farm This is a point not to be overlooked. The winter months on the farm need every possible source of attraction What shall the farmer's wife have on her flower shelves? I think she should put there a pot or two of geraniums. She should have fuchsias, the rich begonias, at least one calla lily, the fragrant mignonette, nd some of the more delicate form of the cactus. These anyway, and if there he room, as many of the trivance. other kinds of house plants as she with nat loves.

there may be pansies, sweet peas poppies roses, hollyocks, snow balls dahlias verbenas phlox, portulaces candytuft, sweet william and the the big barn, for which we plead for better conveniences, to the house with its flowers and plants a might at first be supposed. Both dimer will overlook them turn off the unprofitable animals ore the cold weather comes. takes less feed to fatten in warm

The great secret of profitable age-making is to know just when the Corn is in its best condition when he cars have just reached the roast ing stage:

If the corn is put in the silo when too green it is less nutritious und the silage becomes too sour. If allowed to pass the glazed stage the stalk becomes too dry and 'Avoid both extremes.

Get the silo filled before the corr s struck with frost. While filling the silo keep a man in the silo spreading and tramping ions, the edges near the wall. It is imperative that the edges and corners be well packed., In finishing run oat straw through the cutter until the whole surface covered about a foot deep.

Weighing is not necessary. When beginning to feed throw the straw and manage so a layer can will be no moldy silage. Do not cut down and feed in sections. It will spoll. Feed out properly and there will be Romember that cows can not main

Never forget to look after of the cows and see that every storm finds them in their

If you have found by testing that you have an unprofitable cow in unsuspecting neighbor, but fatten her and send her to the shambles. ELECTRICITY ON THE FARM.

There Are Great Possibilities I Its Use.

who informed Mr. Johnsing that far- Expedition Got mer Brown had bought a dynamo by giving 'em money. You are aware that I stopped their allow us fail in the respect I have menarce because Cartley senior went tioned, perhaps not to the extent gestion. The farmer, it is true, be of great infland drauk it as soon as he got it, this man did, and yet, we should can't use electricity to shock his of great value to other ways. According to a writer the greatest benefit in the Engineeting Magazine the posout from Souther sibilities in the use of electricity in with the smallest farming are very great. He says trumpetspart: It has been clearly shown, for ox- study of Tropical umple, that electricity, far from in-enabled, through uring vegetation as had been alleged the King; of the actually aids its development and inder certain conditions exerts upon chiefly, the casse it an influence analogous to that of ness. electro-therapy upon the human system. Beyond this, there are many tellani and Low While the farmer is getting his up-to-date tools for use in growing on the farm. It will be enough for the present to cite, as the most in- into a state as portant: First, the lighting of the light-land then kills, lields for night work, and the light-land, in a recent ing of the farm house and its out-buildings. Second, telegraphic and cause to a paratelephonic communication between which he found in farms minimizing the disastrous of fluid of suffering fects of isolation in sparsely settled is by no means w districts like certain parts of South is the means of the America, the Congo, etc. Third, the and meanwhile the supply of a motive power highly is sweeping off the adapted to agriculture-that is to say economical, divisible into small units, easy of transmission, and demanding little oversight. Trolley lines to the markets would relieve the overworked horse."

HE TOOK THE HINT.

"Yes," she said, in answer to something he had said, "the fold School of Tropical ongs are very beautiful." "Beautiful!" be exclaimed, enthus Congo to study iastically! "'beautiful' hardly de-land to recommon scribes them. They are-they arewell, compared with them, the songs to my are trash, the veriest songs sometimes contain sentiments of which one cannot wholly ap way there. prove.

"I will give you an illustration There is "Home, Sweet Home," for instance. You surely do not agree the Supreme Court with all the sentiments it contains?" "Why not?" he asked, warmly Why not?"

"Because," she said glancing at the clock, which was marking the hour

COUNTRY OR Which of the Two A ed for the Grow loy?

The town and county uvo advocates, but, for the in splite of all the ad fort and culture the country seems to be nout i the best place. His grow ies of natural wonders is turned to many will with nature and li the city boy does not up a store of del mense pleasure · to town-brod child's hill gathorano such treasures;

Spectator, "in set a even as the stars in cours Cortain walks he god restricted; he trots his nurse, or lays a hers. Shouting a forbidden. Shops ning traffic, in eternal fits and hurry, are all the Lis outdoor consider the whole breadth at dobr life are denkyl years, whatever he glorious gains, barre ch memories, which ble heritage of his COUNTRY BOY'S Turning to the co Spectator thus expat advantages : "Meanb child is laying up to iscence that will be him to his latest hos are no empty names none is inferior to a night are his, especial ous invstery of sund is the haunt of von ions. The suprise the suprise, and all expanses of bare high rim to rim. The is cause there are s distances for his sight yet he may be a k minute detail, lexy variations of inst his sense of adventite juiths. sible, 'leading opisodes with implified may shout and lenged along the legs and his lungs ve vitality none to sa nav. daisy chains or tos ecstasy of hunting away with elder stream, to return He excavates pirat sandpit, or jogs a your herd-a robber-don't sell to an poised timber: claims devoted att adept with rake ries his first frui prouder mother.

IN SEARCH OF

Recently a little of great value to which the Liverpo the Kings of the re to stev. spatch to the Conf case-which first buted cause to a paras tories," said Sir A Jones | yesterday-and indeed urged against tak labor is that they sleeping sickness these reasons, if not King Leopold offered drous finanlitton to would send out an cal dishases, measures on spot. he offer was work is the suppres

An amusing story and concerning a young lawyor went before in which he was book fendant.

age, "said he," which that he who rever. I milant's ointed

A.BRAKE FOR SHIPS. Interesting Experiment Near Mon.

"The Canadian government has recently equipped one of its vessily the steamer Eureka, plying on 1:1 ad waters—with a ship brake,"

A merican. name indicates, the brake is patended to check the speed of a ve ing about in a limited shipway. ing a recent trial made in th awrence River, near Montrela steamer was driven ahead at an in-cicated speed of eleven knows an hour. Steam was then six def. and, simultaneously, the land a to a full stop within a distance soun to her own length. The bear. until the criginal rate of s attained, when the empires, very after ray had gone but to about her length. In me. with one brake thrown conexamination of the hall a mechanism after the test parently no harmful stress damage, and in operation no jar or vibration was o This new form of brale on the sides of the hall, and construction and method of AN ORDINARY IN LIGHT

It extends downward of bilge keel, convenience !; hilisectical by a maling the - Consists of a struct He attached to the 1 of fore arranged to make here the ship, the shake plat course, at the forward sorre of the water as the forward. the slighter all within the covered way "At the year end of et. water to escape graduat gate, in opening, jershes " backward. The forward . broke is not in action catches arranged in a ver-The rod on which the caris provided with a bey'd which the gate ray le . oven. The method or es event of a collision or w ed, and by wear of the be the gate is slightly operthe forward edge of the gat it out to the full-open position d den jar or shock below prevent ineres of the Water custions back of the slides. The sal, of the brake can be contralled the engine-room as may be

> AMUSED CECH, RHODU "Cecil Rhodes rarely and ac-

his once in the early diamond . the Kimberley I know him to spine split his sides at the fellew ts vin ms as told by poor Barney B. "At a seaside fair a torach bb: Caltel- was gathering in penn s to "

Myal hibition of a peep-show, w. The had rigged up himself waste Spanas ma. ken ginger-beer buttles fo ebro-silipal holes, and a queer arrange the Course lights and optical illusions a Disher nor little girl with pig tail duadng it thand, ing out horizontally behind t og sid pess had paid her pany, and on gazed at the a had byri- through the magic beer to which the old showman expla response to her eager question " 'And what's that blue light asked. "That's Napoleon cross Halps.

" My! And what's the light?"

" 'Oh, that's Missus Napole "But what's the big red h "Red light? There asp't light." "Why, yes, there is a re-whose sir; and it's growing bigger at molaria ger. Wot? Here, you stand on the west coast that has "Wot? Here, you stand only just ended, Dr. Tode, and missey; an let's have a periods sometimes contain sentiments Dr. C. Christy and the only both and roared: bloomin' show is on fire!" "

> WILLING TO DO HIS PAU An old farmer once took V. a a former Duke and Duchess of cleuch, at Drumlanrig Castle Prengli ad- grace's Dumfriesshire estate. His first cup of tealwas ge most before the duchess had pro- it out. Again and again la side was passed along to the head o more of it table. At the sixteenth cut duchess became measy about supply on hand. cups do you take, John?" she "How mony do'ye gie?" John ask > > Figures may not lie, but a mathematician may be able gle them to some purpose. A farmer has stopped "ak local paper. He wrote to the asking how to get rid of war soothing answer came in the issue of the paper, "Kill Janua", REPUT (Entered according to hument, or Canadas Thousand Size Iria by Win Bailly, or Department of According

Pleater "Circuit

great .

the cle

Chart

11:11:11 W at in Settel 1 for queiferr feers an artil. submerce Once sty and the Sink load furnist, Great : great e ting grant coming How wall about the tist in hoje in friends 'c through John the C 1.11411116.1. ,3 the Bajitie

Christ acti

not makering

world for City A FORERUNG John the Ber runner. He A and entirely visc ity with the party Christ. He was be all in all. merely a toot is Vine face shine toril ly! He was widne that the glory of his increase. Do we, Baptist, sink dur individue we like se Christ's or do we, line sor ancient forerunners of the ceding the king's charlots, be dressed so gorgeously make so much noise Bet ; be watching us and pun-strides instead of turning that all eyes shall be run us instead of upon Jesus? trying to preach so that is a fine sern are we trying to preach so when Demochenes harange wound and apply Dr. Chase's cess in curing the most torturing argues his own cast HELP HER HUSBAND OUT. of eleven, "because there is a line in Cintment and heal it you can see skin diseases and the most distress "However," continued Mr. Tippet, client. Despite this But no farmhouse is complete withthat song which says, 'There's no resurming his quiet tone and benigwith your own eyes the definite re- ing forms of piles, it is also useful pose to present 15 place like home.' You do not out a shelf for plants in winter and nant aspect, "I'll consider the matin this case, as in scores of ways in every home fo Yes, I'll consider the matter, a stand of some kind for them in lieve that, do you?" It is because of the certain results the cure of scalds, burns, wounds than anyone else. Then he coughed a hollow cough accompanying the use of Dr. Chase's old sores, chafing, skin irritation, and see what's to be done for 'em,' summer. The farmer who is handy He leaped from the bench with a with tools can himself fix up a nice frer his argu-Then he proceeded Ointment that this great preparation sore icet, pimples, rough skin and has come to be standard the world everything for which an antiseptic, and ardse, and went silently out inquiet chuckle as he said this and be stand and also rig up a shelf in the to the night. ment. Before he went ba gan to saw vigorously, while Willie bay window, or in some other sunhis home he over. If a dealer offers you any soothing treatment is needed. prices To prove to you that Da Onne's Cintment is a certair and absolute cure for each and every form of itching bleeding and protrading piles him by wire ed, cannily. other ointment, does he do so on its box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, rent to his desk in the corner and shiny place for the flowers. applied himself to an abstruse cal-culation, considerably relieved in the country do not understand the as soon as the Could decision was delivered. Later h make a sale by saying "This is just Bates & Company, Toronto. To mind, for he had unbounded belief value of plants and flowers as they in the fertility of Mr. Tippet's imagination, and he knew well that what-bare of these beautiful things! But gram, which read: unded belief value of plants and flowers as they as good as Dr. Chase's?"

protect you against imitations the As a matter of fact, Dr. Chase's portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Ointment is now so universally used Chase, the famous receipt book au-"Old French ador! Crined !'Know thyself." ever that old gentleman promised he they may be made the source that few dealers, think of offering thor, are on every box of his remepher. Yet how men would be if would fulfill; anything else when a cure is sought dies. (To be Continued) Dr. Chase's Ointment

Dr. Chase's Ointment. is no guesswork about the | for eczema, salt rheum, old sores results obtainable from Dr. Chase's piles. There is scarcely a town, vil- and, in regard to her father, who is advantage. Most women are ready Ointment. dependent on her, he is committing and willing not only to do their own With all medicines taken internal- but can point to some case in which ly there is more or less uncertainty Dr. Chase's Ointment has made a

Any Ulceration, Eruption or Irritation of the Skin is Curable by Means of effect, because the condition remarkable cure. may not be exactly as indicated by While this ointment is best known the symptoms, but if you have a sore on account of its extraordinary suc- him in his sweeping condemnation of in the house and then

s good as Dr. Chase's?"

sured that any trifle he owes won't be called for just now. fact my small loan to him is old debt, which I might have the uninvited assistance lent by the any time these last years, when ed the frame into the middle of the ill, you say?"

in that barn was just as unnancy.

in that barn was just as unnancy.

All straw used must be carried fifty or sixty feet before reaching the press him now, poor fellow. He's feed a lot of cattle! The straw shed ill, you say?" in that barn was just as unhandy. "That's very sad; where is he?"

grocer.

sciousness although to breathed.

he had been taken was a friend, as well as a neighbor of his own,-a greengrocer, named Mrs. Craw, and itan, for she insisted on keeping

Boone in her house, and nursing

"Ah ! you've helped him already,

"With Mrs. Craw, sir, the green-

Boone in high fever, and quite delir-such a way toward Mrs. Craw, a favorable impression on

CHAPTER XXIX.

degage attitude, but because Chips

xious depland what was to be done benignant smile, said-won't be able to mis-spend it."

Willie shook his head and looked as "If that plan would have availed caused to sprout from this dry old positively refuses to accept of

"Ah! exclaimed Mr. Tippet, shaking his head slowly, "pride, simple pride, Not laudible pride, to work, and it is the duty, as well it because a few illogical thinkers murder-murder, sir !"

She deceives herself, root," said Mr. Tippet.

tween his feet.

for them.

man modestly; "but he may be saunter into Poorthing Lane.

sympathetic barber.

he turned out to be a good Samar-

To say that Miss Deemas was hor-ror-structured by such an awakening would be to use a mild expression Miss Deemas cast courage and philosophy to the dogs, gave herself over them together except ourselves d'yo to abject fear uttered a piercing day. shrick, dipped her head under the over them in agony.

"Be quiet my good lady," said worthy woman. He also left Sam Forest in a voice of tenderness; sovereign, where with to purchase but if his voice was tender his ac any little luxuries for the sick man he grasped the Eagle, bedclothes and with the assurance that he would however, and polite even in this ex-

unworthy, arrogant man, was at all comparable to the descript which she she was about to be dashed to piaces but to her surprise soft cushions remight, and, when Gorman released ceived her, and she was immediately him, ran back into the parlor to borne, by another of these desperate

But where was David Boone

Before the fire was put out, poor tic "There!" The energy with Almost superhuman efforts had which Miss Tippet sprang to the been made by the firemen to save floor and exclaimed "There!" caused the house. But so well had the perplexed as ever. tinguish that fire. I would have tried it long ago," said he, with a sad smile, for thy income is a pretty good one, thanks fire !" outside induced both ladies the firemen to 'look out !" It was feared one of the partition While these events were occurring was coming down, so each anan the cry of fire had reached the ears beat a hasty retreat. They swarmed was not slow. With one energetic urely, and was knocked down by the effort he tripped up and floored the falling bricks.

Conqueror with one hand, as it were. Moxey and Williams ran back, and while he put on his black helmet carried him out of danger. Then with the other, and in three minutes seeing that he did not recover con-

Will Not Heal