

Asthma
"One of my daughters had a terrible case of asthma. We tried almost everything, but without relief. We then tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and three and one-half bottles cured her."
Ayer's Cherry Pectoral certainly cures many cases of asthma.

Proton Station.
Married—At the Presbyterian manse, Fleeton, on Wednesday, November 19th, Miss Jessie E. Neilson, sixth daughter of James Neilson, to John McDonald, of Ceylon. May happiness ever be theirs.
The Rev. Peter Fleming, of Maxwell, delivered an excellent and much appreciated sermon here last Sabbath from the familiar passage, John 3: 16.
The board of P. S. trustees have again engaged the services of O. G. Brooks for the term of 1914, at a raise in salary of $50, which speaks well for O. G. as a teacher.
The concert given by the choir of the Presbyterian church here last week was not as well attended as it should have been, considering the character of the programme and performers. The proceeds netted the choir about $10.00.
Mrs. J. Brinkman, of Warton, is at present visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. Treflow.
Mrs. Fred Ryder is paying an extended visit to her brother Sam at Fleeton.
The road boss here, Donald McLean, met with what might have been a more serious accident than it was about four weeks ago while unloading a car of oats. The engine attached to the car shunted, causing the boss to fall backward on his head into the car, which was a coal dump, injuring his side and head considerably. However, at present condition is about able to look after the interests of the C. P. R.
Mr. and Mrs. James Tucker, of Dro-more, visited their daughter, Mrs. Frank Rennie, in the suburbs, recently.
Fred Greer and sister, of Bethel, visited with Miss Maggie Sherson a week ago.
Mrs. R. J. Hodgins, of Toronto, spent a week with her sister, Mrs. Thomas Wyville, recently.
Wm. Lockhart still continues very feeble and under medical attendance. But that is what we may all expect should we be privileged to attain the age of the ailing.
Joe Stevens and wife have moved to the place of the present. Joe intends going further into the spring.
Mrs. Wm. Hodgins is visiting with friends in Palmerston.
Miss Ida Bennie was the guest of Miss Lottie Quinn, of Bethel, Sunday.
Mrs. James Stinson, of Everett, has been spending a couple of weeks at the home of R. T. Carson.
The choir did not have a full attendance on Sunday evening, the boss having gone to visit at "Rosemount Cottage."
John Cunningham and wife of Markdale, were the guests of Miss M. Sherson this week.

Dundalk
A load of Dundalkites attended the concert in Shelburne on Monday night which celebrated the reopening of the Methodist church there after complete renovation and the installing of a new pipe organ. Messrs. Lee Jones, who installed the Markdale organ, made another good job in Shelburne, and assisted at the opening. Miss Teressa Phelan was the star performer.
Business is booming in town, tone of grain, poultry and butter being delivered. Wood is coming in steadily and the price is down considerably.
Mr. J. E. Richards' store was opened on Saturday for business, and all day a splendid business was done. The painters and carpenters are not through yet, but when the store is completed it will be one of the finest in the county. It is splendidly finished, conveniently arranged, and when filled with goods has an splendid appearance. Mr. Richards' popularity was not waned during his enforced idleness, a fact that was evidenced on Saturday. The band occupied the unfinished millinery department in the evening and rendered a choice program of well rendered selections.
Miss Fanny Wilson, of Markdale, is back at her old place in Richards' store.
R. H. Benson & Co. are making a garrison finish in their clearing out sale this month. A large staff of clerks are kept on the jump.
Mr. T. Fennell, grocery and general agent, new occupies his new block next the Grand Central Hotel.
Among the visitors from Markdale this week were noted Messrs: L. W. McArdle, W. Halbert, C. Pickell, W. Mann, and Mr. McKee.
Mr. J. S. Rowe, of Markdale, was in town part of this week.
Runaways are a frequent occurrence here recently. A couple of Hamilton ministers had a bad spill on Sunday while passing through town, their horse receiving several cuts, cutter smashed, and one of them was dazed by striking his head on a post.
Rev. Wallwood had a tussle with his fiery driver on Saturday afternoon and was dumped with cutter and horse in a deep ditch. A broken cutter was the only damage done.

Walters Falls
Mrs. J. R. Wickham and family removed to Heathcote Tuesday morning to join Mr. Wickham, who he has been teaching for the year 1913. They were good citizens and will be their gain.
Miss Georgia "Dove" of the Owen Sound Collegiate, visited at home Saturday and Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Mower, Miss Orlio Mower and A. R. Torry, V. S., spent last Sunday at Heathcote.
Mr. Verall Fremont, of Meaford, is visiting with friends here.
The annual Sunday School Convention of the Methodist church will be held here on Wednesday, December 9th. A good programme has been prepared.
The sad news reached here last Saturday of the death of Miss Maggie Findlay at the age of 22 years. She was the oldest daughter of the late John Findlay, of this place. Since her death Mrs. Findlay has been with her grand-parents in Kippis, County of Bruce, where she contracted diphtheria, which was the cause of her sudden death. She was a bright, amiable young lady, and her many friends here sincerely sympathize with her bereaved family, in their trial of affliction.
A number from here attended the court in Owen Sound last week from Tuesday till Friday.
Mr. John Lawlor, agent, has added a large number of agricultural implements to his stock last week.
By the preparation of the Methodists here are making they are determined to give the event of the season in the form of an old fashioned tea meeting on the evening of the 23rd December, (Christmas).
Liv' Oak
Excellent progress is being made in hauling wood and posts.
At a wood lot last Thursday Mr. John McIlroy got about forty cords of rye wood cut.
Mr. Alton Clark had a wood lot on Friday p.m.
Mr. Pat Gillen had a wood lot on Monday which was well attended.
Mr. W. J. M. O'Rourke, of L. S. biten in the face by his own dog and had to have several stitches put in by Dr. Egan.
A stray stack at Mr. Bobt. Wells' wood lot, topped over, burying two sheep, both of which were smothered to death.

Mr. Mathewson, night operator at the station here, left last week for London, Ont.
Mr. R. L. Roberts, of Hopkings Mills, visited Ceylon Council Canajung last under instructions from Grand Councilor, J. H. Bell, of Kingston.
Mr. J. H. Bell, of Kingston, Ceylon he may be sure of a full attendance, as all who heard him were very thankful for his kind words and hope soon to have the pleasure of hearing him again.
Mr. and Mrs. Egan were in Preeceville on Tuesday morning last.
Mr. A. W. O'Brien, who has been in Ceylon for the past few months, is spending a few weeks with his sister in Ceylon.

Eugenia
Times around Eugenia are very dull as our young people are all either married or on their way to be. Nothing left but a few cows and they are getting to get old.
The sudden death, on Saturday last, of William, second oldest son of Mrs. James Jamieson of the ninth com., caused a feeling of sadness to pass over this community. The young man was only six weeks old and not so ill as to cause alarm. At the early age of seventeen years and five months he was called away to that long sleep from which none ever wake to weep. His widowed mother and brothers have the sincere sympathy of this community in their great sorrow, as deceased was dearly beloved by all.
Born—At Eugenia, on Nov. 14th, to Mr. and Mrs. James Williams, a daughter.
Born—At Eugenia, on Nov. 18th, to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Walker, twin daughters, both still born.
The Presbyterian Sunday School will hold its annual tea meeting on Friday evening. A good time is expected. With such excellent roads we hope to see all our friends from a distance. A cordial welcome to all.

Markdale
Rowe Bros., of Berkeley, are at present winding up the season's thrashing in this locality.
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hawken visited their daughter recently, Mrs. J. Longhead, of Owen Sound, who, has been seriously ill of typhoid fever, and is yet in the hospital, but is slowly regaining her usual health.
Mr. Wes. Lyons, who has been out West for the past three months, returned home on Saturday, looking hale and hearty.
The Rev. Mr. Cocking, of Chatsworth, is advertising to give a fine light exhibition on December 14th in this place on Japan and her people.
Messrs. Wm. Campbell and Wm. Bassett have returned home for the winter after spending a couple of months working on the twine factory at Ayrton.
Mr. R. Stephens returned from the West recently, and is enjoying life. Boll drives a dandy outfit.
Mr. and Mrs. R. Noble, of Markdale, visited at the parental home of the latter recently.

Kimberley
Last week Mr. and Mrs. Bishop moved into their beautiful new home, which is a beautiful brick structure, fitted up with all the twentieth century conveniences.
Mr. J. N. Fawcett has purchased the brick house and all other property in Kimberley formerly owned by Mr. Wm. Guy, of Grimsbyville.
Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Burritt moved into the residence formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Bishop.
Mrs. Ben Smith is reported very ill.
Mrs. Fanson, daughter of Mr. James Myles, of Kimberley, died at her home in Thornbury November 28th.
We are very sorry to lose Mr. and Mrs. Ben Carruthers. Ben is going to keep store at Wodehouse, where we hope that he will meet with the success that he deserves. Ben has proven himself both energetic and obliging in his business while in Kimberley.
Mr. Goff preached to a large congregation Sunday evening.
Mr. Hugh Knott intends having a sale in a short time. Hugh will sell a very fine sale, for he has the right kind of stock which would bring people for miles.
Mrs. Wm. Sloan is reported in very poor health.
Both mills are very busy since the sleighting, one grinding wheat and the other sawing logs.
Miss Arletta Johnston spent Sunday with her parents in Thornbury.
Mr. Frank Burritt went to Meaford Saturday to see his friend Millie.
Miss Lizzie Weber gave an At Home to her friends last Thursday evening in the form of a quilting bee followed by social time. We noticed that when the quilt was shaken the cat knew its mistress.

Berkeley
Municipal matters are quiet in this township so far. William Foster is in the field again for reeveship and is not likely to have any opposition.
Messrs. Mitchell, of Liverpool, Eng., and Moorehouse Mitchell, of London, Ont., are visiting their brother Thomas of this place.
Miss Mary White is over from Buffalo on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. White.
Jas. A. Gillespie has not yet left the hospital in Toronto, but latest reports say he is on the mend.
Vandeleur
The funeral of the late Mr. Robt. Wright, who died at her home on Monday last week, took place to the Meaford Cemetery on Wednesday afternoon. The service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Wilson, who also preached the funeral sermon at the home. Mrs. Wright had reached the ripe age of 83 years and was among the oldest settlers of the community. Her aged husband and two sons remain to mourn the loss of a kind and loving wife and mother.
Evangelist Kennedy, who is assisting Rev. Mr. Wilson with services in Fleeton, preached the pulpit here on Sunday afternoon and gave a very interesting discourse on the 23rd Psalm.
Miss Elsie Fenelon, of Markdale, spent Sunday with Miss Rosie Gilbert, by Traverson, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Warling.
