LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS

Cuff button found. This office. Annual school meetings in two weeks. Get your notices ready.

Tara has invested in a Severy snow plow for cleaning the snow off sidewalks.

THE STANDARD extends to all its readers its holiday greeting and best wishes.

This Wednesday is the sixth day of the storm, and it is a record-breaker for December.

James Potts, of Osprey, had his leg broken recently, being the second time during 1903.

An attractive Christmas extra was issued last week in connection with the Meaford Mirror.

Order your Christmas cakes this week from Matthews, the baker, so as to be sure and have them in time.

The second assembly of the series was held in the hall last Thursday evening. A number from outside points were present.

How would a copy of THE STANDARD for 1904 fit for a Christmas present to a friend, at home or abroad? In this case we pay the postage.

Nearly fifty new members were added to Collingwood Council, Canadian Order of Chosen Friends, on the evening of the 3rd December.

Markdale Loyal Orange Lodge will give a grand concert on the evening of Christmas day in the Marsh Hall, keep this in mind, and bring your girl with you.

The Methodist Church Sunday School Christmas Tree entertainment which was to have taken place last Tuesday evening at Berkeley has been postponed owing to the great storm until next Tuesday night.

A merry Christmas for all who attend the tea-meeting in the Methodist church, Walters Falls, on Friday evening, the 25th December. A good tea and an attractive programme. Admission 25 and 15 cents.

The anniversary services and Christmas offertory which was to have taken place last Sunday in the Methodist church, was adjourned, owing to the great snow storm, and will take place on Sunday the 27th inst.

Sherd Henry delivered a load at Armstrong's mill one day last week, two ten foot soft elm logs from Oak Leaf camp, Ephraim, which measured 1085 feet. Some very choice timber is being marketed.

Navigation on the upper lakes closed last week, being fully ten days later than usual. We notice among the dozen or more which arrived at Collingwood and will winter at that port, is the Newmount, in which Mr. J. G. Ferris, of this place, has an interest.

No doubt many readers are surprised at the large number of marriage notices we are able to publish each year. But does anyone ever stop to consider the large number who do not get married? Can not, or will not, is the question; but it is "not" anyway, much to our loss, reportorially, not to speak of theirs.

The missionary anniversary sermons on the Euphrasia circuit will (D.V.) be preached by the Rev. N. Wellwood, of Dundalk, chairman of Owen Sound District on the 20th inst. as follows: New England at 10.30 a.m.; Victoria (Rocklyn) at 3 p.m., and Ebenezer at 7.15 p.m. The usual collection and subscription in behalf of the Missions of the Methodist church will be taken at each appointment. H. Berry, pastor.

The publication by the Toronto News on Saturday last of a holiday number consisting of 52 full sized pages was a unique accomplishment. This is the largest one-cent paper ever published in Canada. It was too big even for the mammoth Hoe sextuple press which will not print more than 48 pages. Over 14 tons of paper was consumed in this issue—an evidence of the rapid growing circulation of The News. At the popular price of $1.00 a year, The News now finds its way into all parts of Canada. It is not so much the price of the paper however, which is giving The News such a lead over its competitors as the fact that the public are discovering the merits of the paper itself. All who have not seen The News in its new dress should write to Toronto for a sample copy.

Winter Clearing Sale.

Mrs. Sproule, the milliner, will sell at cost all the trimmed stock on hand. Don't fail to call early before they are picked over.

Our Calendar.

THE STANDARD calendar for 1904 is nearing completion and is a little beauty. We had Mr. Love, the new photo artist, take a photo of Main street, Markdale, two weeks ago, and have had a half-tone cut made. This scene will embellish the calendar, and every subscriber who is paid up for next year will receive a copy, which will be mailed with the paper either next week or the week following.

Rink Opening.

Skating, the king of all winter pastimes, received its first impetus here on Tuesday night, when the Markdale skating rink was opened for the first time this season. The managers, Messrs. Art Alton and Frank Twohey, allowed the skaters the use of the entire rink, and the large number that attended and the delight expressed on all sides as to the pleasure of the evening, augurs well for a most successful season. The ice was in fairly good condition. The managers wish to announce that the rink will be open for skating on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday nights of each week.

Mrs. Rowe Some Better.

We are glad to hear that Mrs. Jas. S. Rowe, who underwent an operation for kidney trouble at Silthorpe Private Hospital, College St., Toronto, on Thursday last, is doing remarkably well and her physician thinks she may now recover. The operation was a most critical one, the right kidney with a large cystic tumor attached being entirely removed. Dr. G.A. Peters performed the operation and was assisted by Drs. Olmsted, of Hamilton, Cavan and Carveth, of Toronto, and Ego, the family physician of this place. In addition to the excellent staff of hospital nurses, Mrs. Rowe had the advantage of having the attention of her two sisters, Mrs. Worbs, of Cleveland, and Mrs. (Dr.) Eastman, of Pittsburg, both of whom are experienced trained nurses.

Mrs. J. M. Simpson.

Almira J. Biddell, wife of Rev. J. M. Simpson, died at her home, Medland street, Toronto Junction, last Thursday morning, after a week's illness, following a recurrence of a paralytic attack. Mrs. Simpson was born in Hastings County in 1837, and was married nearly forty-seven years ago to Rev. J. M. Simpson. Almost her whole married life was passed on the circuit, first of the M. E. and afterwards of the Canada Methodist churches. In later years Mrs. Simpson has lived in Brampton, Cookville, Richmond Hill, Clarendon, Thornbury, Markdale and Irlington. Mrs. Simpson is survived by her husband, Rev. J. M. Simpson, Toronto Junction, and four daughters—Mrs. W. H. Post, Toronto Junction; Mrs. John H. Eyer, Toronto; Mrs. A. D. Wright, Regina, and Mrs. John R. Robinson, Toronto. The funeral took place to Mount Pleasant cemetery on Monday, and was private.

Wedding.

A very pleasant home wedding took place at Markdale on Tuesday evening December 8th, at five o'clock, the occasion being the marriage of Gertrude, the second daughter of Mrs. B. Coleman, to Mr. William Harwood, of Palmerston, the Rev. J. R. Newell officiating. The bride, wearing her going away suit of brown ladies cloth, and white silk waist trimmed with lace, entered on the arm of her brother, T. J. Coleman, while the wedding march was played by her sister, Miss Charissa Coleman. The bride was attended by her niece, Miss Reiza Hammond, of Gorrie, who was dressed in navy blue velvet, trimmed with applique. The groom's present to the bride was a beautiful ladies dressing case, and to the maid of honor a crescent brooch. Only the contracting parties were present, a number being in attendance from Owen Sound and Gorrie. The wedding party left for Owen Sound on the nine o'clock train and will remain there a few days before going to their future home at Palmerston. The young couple than embarked on life's journey with the very best wishes of a large circle of friends and acquaintances, and THE STANDARD joins in extending congratulations.

PERSONAL MENTION

Mrs. Donnelly is visiting her old home and friends in Innisfil.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Waite, of Markdale, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. Craig over Sunday.—Meaford Mirror.

Mrs. Thos. Mathews returned Saturday from Hamilton and reports W. R. up and making satisfactory improvement.

Mr. J. L. Beaton, of New Hamburg, has been visiting his parents and friends here for the past week and returned today (Wednesday).

Mr. Herbert J. Armstrong returned to Collingwood on Tuesday to resume his work with the Collingwood Shipbuilding Co., after spending a couple of weeks at home, recuperating.

Mrs. W. D. Hammond, of Gorrie, was last week visiting her mother, Mrs. B. Coleman, and attending the wedding of her sister, Miss Gertrude. Her children, Master Melvin and Miss Reiza accompanied her.

Made in Canada.

Hasket Bros. are showing a few lines of Soissors, Razors and Butcher Knives, as good, if not better in finish and quality, than the imported article, every one warranted. Prices right, why not give your own country a preference, give them a trial.

Will You Kindly.

Bring your laundry parcel in early on Christmas week, then we will have it ready for you by Christmas eve. Parcels taken till Wednesday noon, not later. Everyone should have a clean shirt and collar. Agent for Parker's Dye Works, Markdale Steam Laundry.

Change of Business.

Mr. Jas. A. Crowston, who established here two years ago an up-to-date steam laundry, and has since built up a thriving business, has sold it to his manager, Mr. W. J. Smith. Mr. Smith has proven himself a superior laundry man and careful, obliging and competent business manager, and will no doubt continue to develop trade in that line. THE STANDARD wishes Mr. Smith unbounded success.

Card of Thanks.

Having disposed of my steam laundry business and plant, I hereby return thanks to my numerous customers for their patronage in the past. Mr. W. J. Smith, my successor, has been manager of the laundry business for over a year and a half, and I can heartily recommend him as a competent laundry man, as well as honorable in business, and now bespeak for him that liberal patronage which has hitherto been accorded me. Yours respectfully, J. A. Crowston.

$1000 for an Idea.

Here is a chance for our readers. No any person who can suggest premiums that can be adopted and will prove more popular and greater value than the two pictures, "Heart Broken" and "Hard to Choose," and the quick reference coloured map of the Dominion with enlarged maps of this province, which are this year given with The Family Herald and Weekly Star, of Montreal, the publishers of that great Weekly will pay one thousand dollars. This year's premiums are certainly immense value, and will be hard to surpass. However, there is $1000 waiting for anyone who can improve on them.

Markdale Curlers Again on Top.

On an invitation from Durham curlers last Thursday, two rinks of the Markdale curlers took advantage of the delightful weather and good roads and had a roaring game on the excellent ice the Durham boys had ready. Following is the score:

Durham. Hunter. Allan. Andy Hamilton. W. Calder, skip 11. M. Cochran. A. Jackson. J. P. Trelford. T. G. Holt, skip 15.

Markdale. W. Turner. Thos. Mann. J. Trelford. W. Lucas, skip 12. A. Plowce. G. Dundas. F. M. Stafford. E. L. Stephen, skip 21.

After the game, in the wee sma' hours of the morning the Markdale boys were royally entertained to an oyster supper.

THE NATIVE

Wake, happy morn, who brings A joyous thrill to you While speeding near, on wings The angels sweep down And earth and sky In numbers vie, Rehearsing how upon Long years ago, 'Mid air and wa, That unto us a Child

And over, as the years go The glorious song is sung By angel choristers of peace on earth, good will to men; And as the song Floats far along Where toll the weary The message comes To hearts and homes That unto us a Child

Hail glorious morn, whose angels sing Hope for the sinful and Hail, blessed morn, the angels Come to the world, and And singing still Peace and good will The angels come this To tell again To sons of men That unto us a Child
