IT WAS A PRETTY WEDDING.

That of Mr. J. H. Stephenson to Miss May Sarjeant, both of Markdale.

All hearts turned towards the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sarjeant, Eliza street, on Wednesday afternoon last, December 30, 1903, it being their daughter May's wedding day.

The event took place at 2 p.m. in the presence of but a few relatives and intimate friends of the contracting parties.

The groom was Mr. J. H. Stephenson, of this place, a young gentleman entirely worthy, if we may so say it, of the hand he was winning.

The ceremony took place in the parlour, the room being prettily decorated with evergreens, variegated, etc.

Her travelling dress was made of green ladies cloth, with hat to match.

The costume of the bridesmaid, Miss May Stephenson, sister of the groom, was made of mauve over pink silk, trimmed with lace, and she carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. H. Jordan, of Melita, Man., are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Alex. Henry, in the suburbs.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Rutledge and Master Orle, of Chesley, spent New Year's Day and some following days in town and suburbs.

Mr. Alex. Hall, of Redwing, who purchased the Geo. Lamb farm last fall, was in town Saturday and gave the Standard a friendly call.

Mr. Watson paid her old home and many friends a pleasant visit recently, after spending some months with her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Stephens, at Hamiota, Man.

The Best is None Too Good. Haskett Bros. keep the best coal-oil to be had, try a gallon and you will be a steady customer.
