NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS.

If Sincerely Made They Are a Help to Right Character.

New Year's resolutions are so often made the target for cheap jokes by cheap critics as to create the impression; that such resolutions are never kept and never ought to be made. The criticism is unjust, its logic is false, its effect pernicious. A recent preacher brought out the true idea in a sermon upon Peter's pledge of devetion to his master, even though all others should desert Him. Simon did not yield to temptation because of his earnest assurgood resolutions. If that was true it was certainly the best thing about the place. We must resolve before we do. Right resolutions sincerely made are a help to right character even if by distress of ance, but in spite of it. It had the place. We must resolve before we do. Right resolutions sincerely made are a help to right character, even if by distress of opposing forces some of them are not kept. Peter's faith did not finally fail, and very likely he had more faith and more strength because he failed once and so learned his weak point. It is a good thing, then, with the thought-fulness belonging to the outlook of a new year, to desire and declare that we will live truer, nobler lives. Making the pooling the content of the content nobler lives. Making the resolve, Dr. Agnewe Liver Pills ouro liver ill not lightly or boastfully, but ser-
