Landed at Possiet Bay and Marching on Kirin.

There are two or three reports indicating that the Japanese are now turning their attention to Vladivostok. The New-Chung correspondent of the London Daily Mail said that the Japanese had landed at Possiet Bay and advanced to Kirin from which they are marching on Kirin. The Japanese are marching on Kirin from which they are marching on Kirin. The Japanese are marching on Kirin from which they are marching on Kirin.

Japanese army, a total of 40,000 men, have landed at Chemulpo. The Japanese have fortified Ping-Yang and are throwing out scouting parties toward the Yalu River. The Russians are keeping open the communications between Wiju and Anju. Beyond this they have not advanced southward. Russian spies are known to be in the vicinity of Ping-Yang. The inhabitants are in a panic. Ping-Yang is about 125 miles north of Seoul, and somewhat less than fifty miles south of Anju, where Russian cavalry outposts were reported yesterday. The town is about 100 miles south of the Yalu.

RUSSIA'S WAR FUNDS.

The Novosti, at St. Petersburg, viewing the resources of the Treasury, figures that the total amount at the disposal of the Government for the conduct of the war is $320,000,000, which it considers to be quite sufficient, in view of the fact that the British war, waged on foreign territory, cost only $500,000,000.

BRITISH STEAMERS SEIZED.

The captain of the British steamer Laristan reports that he was stopped and examined by Russian torpedo-boat destroyers in the Led Sea, and informed that three British steamers laden with coal for Japan had been captured by them.

NORTH OF YALU RIVER.

Reliable reports from Northern Korea indicate that the Russian army has not yet crossed the Yalu River. The Russian scouts have, it is rumored, penetrated into the country south of Wiju, but the main force still remains north of the river. The Japanese seem to be confident that the Russians are unable to assemble a sufficient force to attempt an advance into Korea. The Russian strength north of the Yalu River is variously estimated at from twenty to forty thousand.

CZAR'S LATEST SPEECH.

Public feeling at St. Petersburg has been relieved by the appointment of Gen. Kravtchik and Admiral Makarov to command in the Far East. The newspapers are publishing glowing eulogies of them, and they enjoy high esteem and full confidence in all quarters. Subscriptions in aid of the victims of the war increase daily, and Russia is doing her utmost to come from all classes and races. The Russian people are making a heroic effort to sustain the war. The Emperor declares that henceforth Russia can have full confidence in France. The czar, in thanking the St. Petersburg Zemstvo for a royal address presented to his Majesty at the Winter Palace on Wednesday, said: "The expressions of patriotism from the parts of Russia greatly console me in this difficult time. Trusting in God's help, and convinced of the justice of our cause, I am persuaded that the army and fleet will do all that is becoming to the valiant arms of Russia to maintain the honor and glory of the empire."

RUSSIA'S SACRED IMAGE.

The most sacred image in Russia has been sent to St. Petersburg, and it will be taken later to the Far East with the army. This image is a representation of the Virgin Mary, appearing to Saint Sergius, and is always kept at the Troizke monastery. It is about one foot square, and is covered with precious stones. The image has a remarkable history. It accompanied Alexis, Peter the Great, and Alexander I, in all their campaigns. A silver tablet attached to it commemorates the battles at which the image was present.

DIARRHEING RUSSIANS.

The Chetov correspondent of the London Daily Mail contains the reports that the Chinese are harassing the Russians in Southwest Manchuria. He says that 5,000 Russian troops moved from Mukden to Siping. Their methods on the march impressed the public hatred already existing in a general sense made in the villages to cut off small bodies of Russians. There is plenty of ammunition and plenty of volunteers. Rich people are supplying the army already enrolled with the intention of carrying on a guerrilla warfare. It is clear that the Japanese expect much assistance from the natives.

THE CANNED GOODS TRADE

CANADA MAY EXPECT INCREASE IN ORDERS.

Providing Our Goods Give Satisfaction As Regards Quality and Price.

The Canadian Export Trade Commission has issued a report in which it is stated that the demand for Canadian goods in Great Britain is steadily increasing and promises to develop into one of large volume in the near future. Mr. A. W. Grindley in his annual report to the Dominion Department of Agriculture of which he is one of the representatives in Great Britain. The British merchants have little or no idea of the large assortment of preserved meats, fish, vegetables and fruits which are packed by Canadian firms. Great Britain in the past has bought canned goods largely from France, Germany and Italy, but owing to the very friendly feeling that has arisen between the "Mother Country" and her "Colonies" Canadian firms may expect a large increase in orders providing their goods give satisfaction as regards quality and price. The leading American firms who export canned fruits, vegetables, meats and fish to Great Britain have more push than Canadian houses. The Americans either have representatives of their own in Great Britain to push their goods or they have a commission to fix the price at which their goods are to be sold, allowing a good commission, but not to effect sales. In addition to this they employ handsome embossed labels in each case of goods upon which is plainly marked the retail price.

LIVE STOCK MARKET.

Toronto, March 1.—Deliveries of live stock continued light. The Western Market to-day, most of the butchers brought forward in time for the market were sold, although in a few instances drivers held over their stock in the hope of obtaining better prices for it than they were offered.

IN ENGLISH MONEY.

The goods themselves have attractive labels making a nice window ornament and the embossed card with reasonable price in plain figures attracts customers and sales are made. The Canadian goods of equal quality are not having such an attractive label, and having no fixed price are "side-tracked."
