R. H. BENSON & CO. MARKDALE. This Week We Are Busy Marking

Down our stock, preparing to putting on the biggest Cut-Knife Slaughter Sale ever in this country.

Having disposed of our block of stores to Mr. James Kelly, and amalgamated our Dundalk stock with our own here (which includes our new Spring Importations) gives the people of Markdale and surrounding country one of the greatest opportunities to buy cheap goods that they have had for a long time.

We have without a doubt the largest stock of general goods contained in any one store in Markdale. Thousands and thousands of dollars worth being purchased before the sharp advance in prices.

There is only one way to get our stock down, and we have fully decided to make the price so that you cannot help buying at this store. In the meantime while we are preparing for this great Sale we will give purchasers the cut prices on all lines of goods.

Prepare for the biggest surprise you have ever had. R. H. Benson & Co. Markdale.

P. S.—R. H. Benson & Co. having disposed of their brick Revolve Hotel, are going to give a Clearing Sale of the portions. They are going out of business in Markdale, W. J. Benson, manager of R. H. Benson & Co., of this great stock. He goes back to the West in about two months.

It took place 6 miles south of Owen Sound on Monday, March 14, when the C.P.R. snow plow struck some hard ice under three feet of frozen snow, and dumped the snow plow into the ditch, driving the nose 3 feet under ground, derailing the first engine attached, throwing her with her front in the ditch on the opposite side, some of the freight snow scenes, showing the plow and two engines going through huge cuts and banks of snow along the line. At W. H. Love's studio, Markdale, these scenes demonstrate the great struggle to clear the road for the relief of all towns north of Orangeville, sixteen days without a train, just think of it. Therefore it becomes the desire of nearly every one to obtain some of these views; over 100 sold. Call in and get yours to-morrow.

W. H. LOVE
