Mrs. Fairbanks tells how neglect of warning symptoms will soon prostrate a woman. She thinks woman's safeguard is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Ignorance and neglect are the cause of untold female suffering, not only with the loss of health but with the chance of a cure. I did not heed the warnings of headaches, organic pains, and general weakness, until I was well nigh prostrated. I knew I had to do something. Happily I did the right thing. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound faithfully, according to directions, and was rewarded in a few weeks to find that my aches and pains disappeared, and I again felt the glow of health through my body. Since I have been well I have been more careful. I have also advised a number of my sick friends to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. My friends are very grateful to you for being so kind as to write me. Mrs. MARY FAIRBANKS, 216 South 7th St., Minneapolis, Minn. Mrs. Fairbanks is one of the most successful and highest salaried travelling saleswomen in the West. $5000 per year. If original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced, Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

Stephenson, a bilious attack. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and a quick cure is certain. For sale by R. L. Stephenson.

His Services Appreciated.

Mr. John Murray, of Blantyre, Presented With Gifts and an Address.

On Monday, April 11th, the patrons and friends about thirty in number assembled at the store in Blantyre to await the return of Mr. John Murray, mail carrier on the Blantyre route, on his return trip from Meaford, and presented him with the following address and presentation to which he in a few well chosen words made a suitable reply, thanking the donors for their words of kindness also their useful gifts, for which he when enjoying the comforts of the same would always cherish a kindly feeling for the friends in and around Blantyre, and promised them as faithful service in the future as he had given them in the past.

The following is the address: To JOHN MURRAY, Esq. Dear Sir,—We, the patrons of Blantyre Post Office, have assembled this evening to express in some tangible way our appreciation of your faithful services as mail carrier. During the last fourteen years in which you have so efficiently filled this position, your uniform courtesy has secured for you the gratitude and esteem of the whole neighborhood. From the time upon which you first entered upon your duties here, it has been a source of pleasure and comfort to the people to be able to rest assured that when they were in need of your services they would not be disappointed, unless in the case of trains being blocked as in the past winter. Not many, we fancy, can say with us that their mail carrier failed to get through on one trip only during this memorable winter. Our sympathies have often gone out to you during the storms you were forced to brave in order to retain your reputation of being one of the most faithful and obliging mail carriers in Ontario.

Some of our farmers have started plowing. What happened Lily Oak cor. last week? Easter eggs could not have agreed with him. Mr. John Cameron, of the 12th line, leaves on Tuesday for the west. Success, John. Mr. Reuben Lougheed has leased Mr. Ambrose Saigoon's farm on the 10th line. Mr. Geo. Wright is getting the stuff on the ground for a new barn and house this summer. Look out, girls. Mr. George Poole, of Collingwood, spent Sunday at Mr. Alexander's. Mrs. James Elliott is still very low. No hopes of her recovery. Mr. George Ellis had a wood bee on Friday and a party at night. Mr. George Julian has bought the bush farm on lot 28 con. 12 from Mr. Sherick, of Collingwood. Mr. Richard Hawton is recovering slowly from his winter sickness. Mrs. Geo. Alexander is very poorly with the gripe.

Do not forget, we will sell you 12 packages of flower and garden seeds for 25 cents at any time. All new fresh seeds at Stephenson's drug store.

If Women Only Know That half their ills are due to impoverished blood, they would use Ferrozine and be saved tons of pain and suffering. Ferrozine is a perfect food for the blood and supplies the strengthening elements needed to maintain health and vigor. Ferrozine is a splendid tonic for weak, nervous women and drives away those depressed feelings of deep weariness. You'll have strength to get his summer's work done. You will feel ten years younger after a course of Ferrozine which builds up the whole human organism; try it. Price 50c.

Shelburne

(Intended for last week.) We are getting another taste of winter this morning (Tuesday.)

The anniversary services of the Epworth League of this place was held on Sunday. Rev. A. O. Crews, of Toronto, preached very appropriate sermons morning and evening. He also gave an excellent lecture on Monday evening, the subject being "The bright and sunny side of life." It was certainly good and those who did not hear it missed a treat.

There has been considerable changes among the business places of this town the last week or two. W. G. Rowland has sold out to Messrs. Chalmers & Puckering, who took possession Monday; O. Mason & Co. sold out to Mr. G. Fisher, of Toronto, who will take possession soon. Mr. Mason, we understand, purposed giving up the mercantile business and go into company with Mr. J. F. Miller, of this place, and open up a bank in the premises lately vacated by the J. A. Hasted & Co.

The Presbyterian Sabbath School purpose having an "At Home" to-night for the scholars. A good time is expected.

Mr. H. White, we understand, has sold his residence on east side of Owen street and purchased the residence of Mrs. Daubar, corner Owen Sound st. and Second Avenue. Babe & Mowat lost a valuable horse last week. Mr. F. A. Clement has opened an office next to H. Falcooner's tailor shop.
