Eggs, Butter, Apples

MISSION CO, Limited

MAKING.

eatest number of words. s for the next longest lists. s for the smaller lists.

zes for the best lists of out of the three words:

RRIS WHEELS." y as many times as they appear in the ay joth. Send in your list to-day.

NOTE

The Massey-Harris is fitted with the oushion frame and Morrew conster brakethe two improvements that have made bloyoling famously popular.

ilver Ribbon" Booklet. ARTMENT "A" , Limited, Toronto Junotion.

political programme to the second

A man who is learless is never

Minard's Liniment Relieves Neuralgia

INTERPRETED WEDDING.

A curious wedding took place the ther day in a church in Glasgow bride and bridegroom were Poles d could not speak English, while e clergyman did not understand heir language. The ceremony was, owever, successfully carried through falled Suits would look better dyed. If no agent MONTREAL.

EPPS'S

YOUR OVERCOATS

AUTOMOBILE UNDERWRITERS

The Wigton Touring Car is appreciated by the best informed because built on correct mechanical principles, of highest grade materials. As a prospective automobile purchaser you dare not, in full justice to yourself, take chances on an inferior car. By presenting a car of such imperial merit as is the 1904 Winton, we become "automobile underwriters"-insuring you against risk qr loss. Have you seen our new catalog?

The Winton Motor Carriage Co Cleveland, O., U. S. A. Represented in the Dominion

THE AUTOMOBILE & SUPPLY CO 79 Kind St., E., Toronto, Ont Sub Agencies in Chief Dominton Cities

ISSUE NO. 20-04.

I take it, even by so good a judge of dor the most favorable circumstances. osefiesh as Colonel Clinker. A 'ole's But Phipps is not half a bad fellow in the case of the control of the co

Or, Kinship Between flan and

"Well don! " he exclosined cheerily. how has a sy princtual we all are! "Have we kept you long?" asked minute irried. And now we had id, and was fit and Colon d Clim and her probable departure) Silvery had carefully fed or with positive bran mashes the

"This, I presume, is the mare you . . ! out," said Mr. Phipps Colon a Clinker, revolving the cothoick is invariably carried is mouth from one side to the other, ed doffing his but to the ladies. He was in large, square-built man.

with sandy Pair, fresh complexion, and light i brown eyes. He would we passed as good-looking hades it colored and straggly, like the brokenbetween there, which caught the eye turn her head. Both very desirable ances, and the gentleman you refer to, of yours."

| Both very desirable ances, and the gentleman you refer to, of yours."
| qualities, not to be met with every instead of buying hunters, ought to "Yes, indeed, I should very much," His voice was deep. slow and momentous, oducing up impression of superior nowledge, on the unaccustomed listwhile every now and again an gall or two," dd twinkle appeared in his humor-treme, and formed a curious conrast to the general staid gravity of his demeanous. Mr. Phipps had beon life as a stable-helper, and had sen to the cosition he now occupied through natural fulent. He was not piercing brown eyes. mer as an encouragement to young men starting in life without money to say, "and the bad-plucked uns give in directly. Succes is like a stoir will. You may take a 'ammer and long unil, and try to drive the nail Weil! wost people gets diseartened after a very few attempts, if for ap on 'ammer, 'ammer, you end by making your mark upon and ret bely up their pecker all the once more

"So this good mare, Colonel, ch?"

must in of the ejaculation, de- put-together frame. ed in Mil Phipp's peculiar intonathan aking, into account as sang fried. miy at the commence-

"Come, come, Phipps. Don't begin by crabbing, or we shall never get to business," interrupted Colonel Clinker, knowing well the man with whom he had to deal, and his prevailing rhetorical weaknesses. "You are just as well aware as I are the control of the cont instant: I have but this whom he had to deal, and his prewhom he had to deal, and his prewas found that the smallest conless to the yard, where I is a length to the yard, where I is a length to the handed them out of the handed them out of

was found that the smallest conlessly to Mr. Phipps, "As Miss Palignation."

Is a mount of card, cantam nation was found that the smallest conlessly to Mr. Phipps, "As Miss Palignation."

I presume you're not asking a long
the handed them out of ways those who get along the best enough quality.

Two hundred, Colonel," replied

"No, no, Phipps, that won't do, liser never gives much for her horses, asking a long
the head to deal, and his preignation."

I presume you're not asking a long
ways those who get along the best enough quality.

"No miss Palignation."

I the first place cown should never trict of Verpilliere. His name or during milking; and the best no more than 2ft. 11in., while his more darks the sentiments of the drumshould be thoroughly cleaned at their parts.

"No more than 2ft. 11in., while his work that the smallest conignation."

"No more than 2ft. 11in., while his whom he had to deal, and his preignation."

I presume you're not asking a long ways those who get along the best least weight is only the least weight in the least weight is only the least weight is only the least weight is only the least weight in the least weight in the least weight is only the least weight in the least weight in the least weight in the least weight i it might be owned, a moderate one. A big body with . "Lor, Colonel you should inadequate timber is a thing to be seen is face! I never saw a carefully avoided. I'd much sooner look so small in all my born days." have the lean frame on good underwhich (on a hint from standings, and the mare has capital he, turning as red as a turkey-cock, legs of her own, as clean as a four and scuttling out into the yard.

however, as I told you on Sunday morning, that she proves a little too much for Miss Brewser, and pulls rather more than is pleasant for 1/a lady. They are not all Mrs. For- resters, you know, Phipps."

"I ask you now, Colonel, what is, "I've never known them otherwise the good of showing a gentleman like when cone was on the buy."

"In a decent 'oss? He don't know 'Now, Colonel, I appeal to you, one when he sees it. There's nothing, said Mr. Phipps, roused to a sudden display of virtuous indignation assumed for the occasion. "Can you outs of a stable as I.do myself." "Which is saying a good deal. Now thing else, and yet he dare not this mare of Miss Brewser's would a word to enlighten 'em for fear been for his teeth, which were dis be the very thing for some of your getting into their bad books." hard-riding young customers; down lichen-covered stumps of park goes a good pace, as I can testify, said the Colonel sympathetically, palings, with considerable intervals and does not know what it is to ly entering into Mr. Phipp's griev-

"That's true enough, Colonel," said He had meanwhile scrutinized Mr. Phipps, proceeding to feel Gris-Richard from top to toe, felt soned hunter without them." "Nothings when you're selling, somethings when you're buying," observed Mr. Phipps, with the twinkle before alluded to lighting up his ently alluded to it, holding his ca- from a different point of view." for me to argue with. or friends. It's the competition as waste any more time on preliminari-does us now assings, he was wont es, suppose you show us the brown good name for a good 'oss, says I." "And quite right, too. Well, we'll go and have a look at him, and see if he takes Miss Brewser's fancy or all day, but every day, not. She is the person to decide. "By all means," said Mr. Phipps stene wall, and doing pretty with more alacrity than he had hithwell what you please with it. Per- erto displayed, ushering them into what you please with it. Per- crto displayed, ushering them into every close, much close than strike giant oak or can a distended nostrils stood out in strike giant oak or can a severally victory in the long yellow straw in evident anticipation "That don't signify so long as they ing contrast to the rich tan muzzle, until the harvest.

To those of us we have a significant to the swelling veins seemed sudden. To those of us we have a significant to the swelling veins seemed sudden.

The man did as he was told, and nor a cleaner, cleverer one. 'Owsomin another minute the horse stood ever, if you don't fancy 'im there's jump, and no mistake. Bea-stiful." om which deservations it may whisking his tail, laying back his plenty as will. He'll not be on my be gathered Mr. Phipps was a recears, and catching at the manger af-markable man in his way. He now ter the manner of thoroughbred ani-idle for very many days. He'll sell. in his to whick with an action mals. Colonel Clinker's praise, had ies. Phase this is the animal I short legs, dark brown in color, with you has Browser wished to a lean intelligent head, tapering cars, flexible neck, and a compact well-"There!" said Mr. Phipps with an likes; and what's more he's a good who stood by listen air of assumed indifference, though stout 'oss, and as fast as grease meanly of her prop- he kept his eye rivitted on Colonel lightning. Put 'im back, Tom. You bad ever done before, Clinker's countenance, trying to read can put him back," waving to the o, disparagement did it every passing expression depicted

"Yes, he's a tidy animal," replied she's terrible light in the other in tones of corresponding "I should rather think he was," res ason instead of near sponced Mr. Phipps vivicaciously.

Lasting Cure of Itching Piles

Chronic Case of Unusual Severity and Long Standing Cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment.

asing the proven a positive and an invaluable treatment for pues. In were being lengthened to his satisfactive the most severe form my, case I think the cure was re-seven years ago I asked a druggist if as the trouble has never returned I and by the time I had used one Bates & Company Toronto. To pro-I was on a fair way to recovered that Tour against initiations the por-1 continued the treatment untrait and algenture of Dr. A. W. suffered any since. I are firmly con- there are on every box.

anada there are hun- | vinced that the ointment made Mr Alex McLaughlin, for 30 years am getting up in years, and had been am getting up in years, and had been so long a sufferer from this disease."

Mrs. Jane R. Scott, North Grenville, Cumberland Co., N.S., writes: markable when you consider that I tion. The twenty long years I suffered "Last spring I obtained from you a itching piles, and only persons hox of Dr. Chase's Ointment and who have been troubled with that an used it for inward piles. It gave noting disease can imagine what I me almost instant relief from the daring that time. About torturing, itching and burning, and he had anything to cure me. He consider the care a permanent one. most favorably spoken of and on benefit of athers, "The commendation I took a how a permanent of the mouth. He's a knowing customer not easily bested."

So I should imagine. I should "After three applications of the commendation of the comm ter three applications I felt bet box, at all dealers, or Edmanson,

"One must oppose these sort of oughly sured, and I have not Chase, the famous receipt book an people with their own weapons; nover a very easy task for a lady, even un-

"Handsome is as handsome does," the peculiarities of manner. was the phlegmatic rejoinder.

is business. There's some pleasure quite sure he would not sell you a in showing a good 'oss to a man like bad horse. He always prides himself you, Colonel, as can rightly apprecion his customers coming back again, ato im. Why, bless you! 'ari 'the and what's more they generally do. people who come here know no more A clever dealer's chief talent consists about a 'unter,' and Mr. Phipps' in knowing exactly how and where voice was filled with unutterable con- to place his goods, to which end it 'ard work. Whether they can stand in the moon. It's like casting your witing or not makes but little odds pearls afore swine. Now I'll tell intimate acquaintance with its foibs sed the belief that any young man displayed wisdom who saved his pure atmosphere. The number of undestrable germs are associated and therefore a mosphere. on Tresslay afternoon at the appointed by storage and preceded by then they must ave the appearance, it is sold. Very true, I answer, but then they must ave the appearance, I had done various business transactions with said the knight of the grip, "the time said the knight of the grip the said the knight of turn out deceptions in the end. Now from the looks of 'er I'd lay a pony good 'oss.'

good 'oss.'

"'Very well, sir,' sez I, 'I'll do my fully. head n "Mr. Phipps, sez he, I want a long. Able to set up an establish- a man to make a change, and some-"He likes a bit of blood, so timers. It's 'arder to bear then any-

"It must be very trying certainly," sette's back sinews with professional legs, picked up his feet, punched his led into a fair-sized paddock, where sides, examined both eyes, and peared a flight of bushed-up hirdles, a low lessod with a reasonable intelligence rail, and a couple of small artificial and a robust areasonable intelligence "Mere nothings that will soon pass Mr. Phipp's assertion were correct, seres, which proved catching in the away. You don't often find a sea- and that there was indeed little room left for criticism, he said-"Let's have the horse out, Phipps, and see how he moves.

A saddle and bridle were imme ately produced, and Sir Richard, phanned of his origin, and in fact fre- sellers are apt to examine objects plete, was led forth and mounted

"Good action, Colonel, ign't it ground without any trouble to his

"He bends his hocks well under him, certainly," admitted the Bonble Jack, not to be ensuared into any a tive approbation, "but," qualifying even this meed of praise, "he goes very close, much closer than I like to encumb to win a steeplechase. She'd buy 'im like a shot if you don't take im. He'd suit Miss Palliser down to the ground, for he's quiet and yet 'igh-couraged, just the sort she "I'm not surprised thereon. "There! You don't often see a better looking 'oss than that, older, now, might prothogolar a decent-looking "Yes be's state that the color of the see a better looking that the color of the see a better looking that the color of the see a better looking that the color of the see a better looking that the color of the see a better looking the color of the see a better looking that the color of the see a better looking to see a better looking the color of the color of the see a better looking the color of the c el's eye," he added with an air of in the Colonel's eye, but he was a diplomatist, who thoroughly understood the disadvantage of making his wares

"Stop a bit, don't be in such hurry," interposed the Colonel, who was far too old a hand not to keep pace with every move of the game. see what sort of a feel he gives you." Mr. Phipps with a renewed assumpnow attained "It's all one to me. Take 'im or leave 'im as you please. 'oss can always fetch his A good of the stimilar to the one dedensity of the stimilar to a price.

"Most likely. She's not seen 'im yet, though. I gave you the refusal, Colonel. "Ah, yes, to be sure! Very good of you, Phipps. "Do you like the horse?" whispered | colds." Kate. coming up and patting Sir is called, halls from the Swiss moun-Richard's neck.

"Very much indeed. But if we anout your help. Mr. Phipps would soon have crushed me into silence."

'I'm not afraid of im. He knows wonderfully kindhearted and I feel regs of her own, as clean as a four- and scutting out into the yard.

Year-old's. The fact of the matter is, however, as I told you on Sunday a cucumber, that's a different thing old into the bargain: 'Osses is ter-

"Knows as much about the ins and perfession as the ignorance of his dust expect to find perfect manners, good looks, 'igh courage, and sweet teniof pay summat for them?"

said Kate. Whereupon Mr. Phipps threw open fences were supposed to test the pow-fors of the ahimals about to be pur- for himself-and family.

The farmer has his trials and dis-and they are specimes es, suppose you show us the brown said Mr. Phipps, endeavoring to ex- as he was told. Sir Richard was make or mar his worldly wealth. borse instead—Sir Richard you call tract a few words of recommendation evidently no novice, and knew quite The "sophisticated" metropolitan nest. If there are no pushed two colors of the sound of the sophisticated of th in his case familiarity did not breed conquest while sitting in his liftieth ground and fasten the contempt. He loved jumping clearly storey office, mapping out his plan of top of them. A few strends campaign, oftentinies forms a very ergandle ears and went resolutely at roneous conception of the duties that each obstacle in succession, springing devolve upon the francially successful ing a string, and he will never them like a stag. Then when brought to a standstill, he stood the impression that he can prepare to not keep the young tarks arching his neck with gleeful impatiin ground, sow his crop, and then close quarters, as they can be ence, while the crimson linings of his sit complacently in the shade of some confinement. If you have to be that > from the first, only none of you be-lieved what I said? Jump, indeed! Why, that there 'oss would carry your young lady like a bird Nobody would touch 'em." "Le's a nice 'oss," said the unsophisticated Stirrup in reply Meantime the Honble, Jack

"No." as she shook her

"I'll just throw my leg over him and a yard more out of his 'oss than is large. We should merely male al-"As you like, Colonel," returned few strides, and wins on the post, tive normal growth. We all tion of indifference, his object being part. I'd rather see 'im up than two corners. Retraction should be avoidthirds of the perfessional jockeys. ed. expansion courted.

He's got a style about 'is riding, and Farming is not a profess a finish, not one man in ten thousand ever attains to.

(To be continued.!

BAREFOOT CURE. The eccentricities of some are boundless. A fashion has lately sprung up of walking daily across Hyde Park, London, with bare feet with the object of "wanding off to become popular. DR. A. W. CHASE'S 25c. is sent direct to the diseased, parts by the Improved Blower, and the diseased Blower and Blower and Blower and Catarrh and Hay Fever, Blower and Blower tains, and, it is predicted, threatens

"The barefoot cure;" as it

168、米。米。米。米。米。米。米。米。米。 FOR FARMERS

> Sesonable and Profitable Hints for the Busy Tillers makes a mistake.

"I shall get quite learned before always comes when it is necessary for a man to make a change, and some number of bad germs times it is forced apon him unexpect—

The particles of dust in the barry fully will you come and be some times it is forced apon him unexpect—

The particles of dust in the barry fully will you come and be some times it is forced apon him unexpect—

The particles of dust in the barry fully will you come and be some times it is forced apon him unexpect ment of my own," said Kate play- times it is forced upon him unexpect-Will you come and be my edly, and he is wise who is prepared and those adhering to the unit and the handed them out of ways those who get along the best, and that a gross feeder is far and that a gross feeder is far more it might be owned, it might be owned, and a variety of different ways than not even a stain on 'crepedigree.'

The handed them out of ways those who get along the best, and that a gross feeder is far more it might be owned, and a variety of different ways than not even a stain on 'crepedigree.'

The handed them out of ways those who get along the best, and don't show "Two hundred, Colorel," replied mer. As they sit, at, their roll-top should be thoroughly cleaned at least weight is only 11½ lb. In appear-distance one desks in spacious offices or wend their once daily, and this after milking; and the barn no more than 2ft. 1tin., while his mer. As they sit, at, their roll-top should be thoroughly cleaned at least weight is only 11½ lb. In appear-desks in spacious offices or wend their way across the country in the Pull-mans the vision of future happiness ance that the milkers be provided tiftent proves that he was born on with moist cloths with which to January 29th, 1883.

The handed them out of the heavy-carcased beasts are not allowed the different ways than no more than 2ft. 1tin., while his mer. As they sit, at, their roll-top should be thoroughly cleaned at least weight is only 11½ lb. In appear-distance on the light way across the country in the Pull-mans the vision of future happiness way across the country in the Pull-mans the vision of future happiness with moist cloths with which to the carldon vividly impressed on the minds of provided the destination of the drum-mans the destination of the drum-mans the vision of future happiness way across the country in the Pull-mans the vision of future happiness way across the country in the Pull-mans the vision of future happiness way across the country in the Pull-mans the vision of future happiness way across the country in the pull-mans the vision of future happiness way across the country in the pull-mans the vision of future happines man sum for a thirteen-stone hunter."

"Do you think so, Colonel? Why, sez look at that there oss The Swell, as look at that there oss The Swell, as look at that there oss The Swell, as look at that there is the swell, as look at the swell as l "She, aint my class, Phipps,' sez look at that there 'oss The Swell, as by waving fields of grain and verdant dislodgement of dust; let turning as red as a turkey-cook. Total four fifty at Tattarsall's last, by waving fields of grain and verdant it is wrong to think fetched four fifty at Tattersall's last week. He aint half so good an animal as Sir Richard, and eight year flocks grazing thereon. For since the old into the bargain: 'Osses is ter-ways been inherent in the heart of moved by straining. The mischild lies ways been inherent in the heart of moved by straining. The mischild lies ways been inherent in the heart of moved by straining. The moved by straining. The moved by straining the move so much in the strain as a moved by straining. The moved by straining the move of not so much in the strain as a moved by straining. The moved by straining the moved days of primitive man there has al- (dust, hairs and straws) has been relovable.

sentimental desire to live close to removed by the ordinary process of nature's bosom, but they see also the straining, and it is these graph that financial advantage of farming as a are the source of an endless amount business, where by exercising a reasay per, all combined, without having to soundle degree of economy and energy their labors may result in a good

SURE OF A CERTAIN PROFIT. Stick-to-it-iveness and patience are two traits of character very essential to a successful agricultural career. rail, and a couple of small artificial, and a robust constitution, who canfences were supposed to test the pow- not make a very comfortable living chased.

"I see you've not made them any couragements, multitudes of them. So cate, writes Ella Cation of the couragements and they are specific fould be trade way. I because of the cate bigger since last winter," said Colon- do men engaged in every other trade way I know of to find the nest el Clinker with a smile. You don't under the sun, from the round-should- fasten the hen up on the wait till you see 'im jump. A finer | Lor mess you, miss: exemines and operating new sciences question as they are strong more fencer never looked through a bridle; old Stirrup, who had been edging cessful cultivation to conform to follow the hen, she can be turn nor a cleaner, eleverer one. 'Owsom- nearer and nearer to Kate; "he can changed soil and climatic conditions with them after the dew is so as to insure a crop, and have toil- grass. Care should be plenty as will. He'll not be on my "Jump!" repeated Mr. Philips in ed unceasingly and often unsuccessful-hands long. A 'oss that won't stand his most superior manner, and with ly for the erudication of the insect as the hen is apt to trait to hands long. pests which at certain seasons of the tire the little turks. seemed to express surprise at the year make life miserable, such an idea not been overstrained. Sir Richard Miss Palliser, for instance, who is on tardiness of the other's discovery, seems ridiculous. Yet observation has shown that many persons, entirely enfamiliar with agriculture, purchased farms and moved upon well as a grace of kind spending them without the slightest knowledge Some men listen with an obsideted of the work they were undertaking.

Thus adjured Colonel Clinker did other pursuits. The weather may turkey eggs or any other kind as he was told. Sir Richard was make or mar his worldly wealth.

A YOUNG TECHNICAL MAN was proudly telling to a few friends was recently about a little farm he putting Sir Richard through all his purchased; "I want to get married," paces, and the horse seemed to take said he, and I decided the farm was their own estimation—than what you him that the first your's working of touch that directed him as with a hought forty acres. We are going and will not hear you to the silken thread, strongly yet lightly. to raise chickens and vegetables for hear you to the end, Now Mr. Phipps knew as well as Mr. Phipps stood by, chewing his the market. I can get the ground begin to talk to you allow possible that Sir Richard did take toothpick, in silent admiration. He ready and plant the radishes, lettuce experience which has beful was a devoted follower of the Colon- and tountoes, and while they are selves, making your case only el, whose good horsemanship had growing I can devote my time to my lustration of their own. many times gained him various sums technical work, and I can harvest the meaning to be kind, listen the disadvantage of making his wares many times gamed him various sums technical work, and I can harvest the appear too cheap. Tom, on his on the turf.

Side, intimately acquainted with his master's various tactics, immediate a rider," he remarked in confidence cultivation would be very necessary to Kate, who also was watching the never entered his mind. Experience that you are at once made to confidence cultivation would be very necessary fortable, and the charm of confidence never entered his mind. Experience that you are at once made the charm of confidence never entered his mind. Experience the base was back bloomly account to the charm of confidence never entered his mind. Experience the base was the confidence of the base was the confidence of the charm of confidence never entered his mind. preparatory to taking the horse back Honble. Jack's movements. "Have will have a lot of fun teaching that into his stable again. you seen 'im ride a race?" fellow, as she has hundreds like him. Every, man should aspire to great dissent.

Well, I tell you it's the prettiest immense proportions; still it is not sight in the world. He never takes always wisest and best to plan too necessary, but just comes in the last lowance for good, healthy, conservaas cool as a cucumber. For my it impleasant to take in sail and cut Farming is not a profession, but an art. To be conducted successfully skilled labor is required. The idea which formerly did, and even does today, exist in the minds of a great many people that anything under the sun arrayed in hifurcated garments' could run a farm, is erroneous. It is a business which, if successful, quires the lavishment of an untold wealth, of thought as well as muscle, How often we see a farmer putting in his twelve or fourteen hours of hard made upon him. What is the trou-

Thoughtful labor invariably brings Despite adverse conditions, farming is a safe business. There is a good living in it, and thoughtfully nducted the chances of failure are but few. :

work. For the farmer who dong thend things there is a future and a brill

ESSENTIALS FOR QUALITY Upon what does the curlity upon the degree of cleaniness exercise ed in the handling of the mill from the time it leaves the udder of

And not only are they affected by a particles, hairs and streets, are not maker. Scrupulous cleanliness in cairy man-Let us go into the field, said Collider, "'Miss Brewser will energy. Experience has proven that the probably like to see Sir Richard jump one or two of those breaknesk fences. Stills On A Corporate of the cleaning with hot water and some stills. Stills On A Corporate of the control of the c warm water: (2) wash in underately hot water containing some alkali (3) feye. The crinse in hot water, and (4) storm or man has done scald with hot water a few minutes, disadvantage.

ways gain the victory in the long yellow straw in evident anticipation of intending visitors. "Here, Tom," to me spirits is in too much of a long wait, and wait, and wait, and wait, and wait, and yellow to her spirits and the spirits those legs of his.

The victory in the long yellow straw in evident anticipation of intending visitors. "Here, Tom," don't signify so long as they ing contrast to the rich tan muzzle, and the swelling veins seemed suddenty. They don't know 'ow to wait, and wait they have legs of his.

To those of us who have spint long in a large, roomy coop, on his dry large wait till you see 'im jump. A finer the regard and the swelling veins seemed suddenty wait, maybe for years of unremitting toil in dvolving in and out as wait. As and the spin till you see 'im jump. A finer the regard and the scalar properties and the spin to his principal aide-de-camp, and retained and the spin to his principal aide-de-camp, and retained and the spin to his principal aide-de-camp, and retained and the spin to his principal aide-de-camp, and retained and the spin to her in the shade of some confinement. If you can fasten hem in, keep the hep in a large, roomy coop on his dry large to her in the spin to he wait the heavy spin to her in the spin to her in the heavy spin to he her in the heavy spin to her in the heavy spin to he her in the heavy spin to her in the heavy spin to he her in the heavy spin to heavy spin to her in the heavy spin to her in the heavy spin to her in the heavy spin to heavy spin to her in the heavy spin to her in

CAN YOU LISTENS There is a grace of kind listenty air which shows that their their are elsewhere; or they scent to then, Reservoir Has Proved Its Usefulbut by wide answers, and irreligiant questions show that they occupied with their own thought il-ply available for irrigation, and was whose manners will stand speaking break down under the of listening.

MUSIC AND RACING A steeplechase mare named Island, which won at Ling Edd, land, would not take her her owner, Mr. W. C. Clarke. was thinking of turning har outraining, when it was discoursed the animal had a wonderful light music. A musical-box, playing two dozen tunes, was placed hee and this was wound up twice a liny The result was magical, for a few weeks the mare won ...

JAPS QUICK THINKING "A Japanese associates there in the time a Russian takes classly to formulate one. I have says writer in the Pall Mall Gazatte, made upon him. What is the trou-labor each day, and yet unable to meet the ordinary financial demands ble? He is working his fingers to the bone; but his brain is resting in-men battle not with braw, but

DUEL OVER MARBLES Two little boys gambling but few.

Let us study our business. Let with knives, and one of the boys, us read. Let us think, Let us aged nine, was mortally wounded.

PERSONAL POINTERA

Notes of Interest About Some Prominent People.

Queen Alexandra has been pictured thousand times, but one of the most interesting and least-known stone, as an angel with flowing hair, and bearing the Royal arms, the likeness to the Queen being in every respect unmistakable.
Miss Gertrude von Petzold, a young lady of German parentage, Church, Marlborough Road, Leices-

British peerage. small wager to play the part of a stoker between Adeluide and Gibrallong voyage the young aristocrat. as cheerfully and energetically as the argount celebrated his eighty-fourth birthfew are aware how dearly the accom-Horsley, R.A., and Sir Percy Bysshe The utensils are preferably chareful Shelley. And in teaching his son the following manner: (1) Rippe with to fence a misstroke deprived the younger Tenniel of the sight of one The distinguished draughtsman has done his life's work at this lyears, is really the Rev. John Ser. drew's Cathedral in the efore alluded to lighting up his dereing brown eyes. "Buyers and ellers are apt to examine objects form a different point of view."

"Now, Phipps, you're far too sharp or me to argue with. Before we waste and down the yard several functions."

"They're big enough Colonel, as it his wayward flock."

"They're big enough Colonel, as it his wayward flock."

"They're big enough Colonel, as it his wayward flock."

"They're big enough Colonel, as it his wayward flock."

"They're big enough Colonel, as it his wayward flock."

"They're big enough Colonel, as it his wayward flock."

"They're big enough Colonel, as it his wayward flock."

"They're big enough Colonel, as it his wayward flock."

It is too true that the farmer is day to luy she will go c'ree to her, and for help. He was summinged to the him over one after the other."

Seriously them are his beathern in. as the poorest peasants, go to him for help. He was summined to the leath-hed of the Emperor Alexander, public opinion accessitated that the imperial doctors should be reinforced by Father John's healing touch. Sir John McIntyre, a former Miniser of Lands in the Victorian Legismbition was fixed by a bill displayd by a Glasgow shipping house de seight had been found at the Thirk liggings. With four acquaistances hep is adventurous as himself, he sailed dry from the Clyde to the Antipodes in o Bendigo he took employment anding as a storekeeper. Then he tarted on a three weeks' trainp to agen not to the gold-fields. He and his form lepth of 14 feet struck gold. At he end of a week they had made a prifit of $500 each. peginning of Sir John's successful

, RESULT OF NILE DAM.

ness Already. Sir William Willcocks, the famous as engineer who designed the Nile dam. Spire interrupt the Assouan reservoir has given When the Nile was at its lowest. lar last May the reservoir added 200 cubic metres per second to the sun-> linding one third of the water which nch was being utilized in Egypt. Sir William Willcocks states that the total brigation area of Egypt is vater storage works she needs, but Sir William Willcocks favors the raising of the Assoum slom at a cost of £500,000, and the comple-tion of the Lake Morris project at v cost of £2,600,000, the plans the upper portion, having suffered and survived many ages of wind and rain, has naturally worn much thin Of course, the color of the cliff is not that of natural glasstransparent and white-but is mostblack, and some places mottled boys, and streaked with brownish red and shades of oilve gicen and brown.

CLIFF OF NATURAL GLASS. A cliff of natural glass can be seen Yellowstone Park, Wyoming.

sa- six and a quarter million acres, and Kons the land value is £270,000,000. It of it were possible to perennially irriial gate the 2,000,000 neres which are now without such ferigation, what now averages C25 per acre would be . ncreased to £30 per acre. Egypt has now, the gerni of all the estimates for which were published M the Egyptian Coverement 894. The two working in conjunc fion-the lake giving the supply of the carly summer and the Assound reservoir that of the late summer-would easily provide the whole of the rater needed for Egypt.