RUSSIANS DEFEATED.

Gen. Kuropatkin telegraphs to the Emperor, under date of June 8:-"A Japanese brigade attacked Russian detachment occupying Saimatza on June 7. The Russians retired slowly, because of the enemy's great superiority, towards Fenchulin

"Our losses were two officers wounded and one hundred soldiers killed or wounded.

"A Japanese force of two compantes of infantry and a squadron of cavalry advanced on June 7 northward from Feng-Wang-Cheng into the Fan-Ta-Fang-Hung district, driving in the Cossack outposts. A detachment of chassery's and of infantry hastened from Ualindi to aid the Cossacks. The Japanese abandoned their attack, having lost one officer and several men killed. We had no casualties.

"Outposts of Cossacks on the main Lino-Yang road were driven in June 7, but reinforcements forced the Jupanese to retire. Our loss during the fighting, which lasted until 7 p. m., was Captain Liatchko and two soldiers killed and five soldiers wounded.

IS KUROKI ADVANCING?

All Japanese movements are interpreted as caused by anxiety to hampas much as possible whatever movement Cen. Kouropatkin makes to help Port Arthur. Not only have the Japan sq bombarded the West coast of Line Tung Peninsula, where the railway runs close to the shore, making feints of debarkation, but tien...
