A severe case of Ovarian Trouble and a terrible operation avoided. Mrs. Emmons tells how she was saved by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I am so pleased with the results obtained from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that I feel it a duty and a privilege to write you about it. I suffered for more than five years with ovarian troubles, causing an unpleasant discharge, a great weakness, and at times a faintness would come over me which no amount of medicine, diet, or exercise seemed to correct. Your Vegetable Compound found the weak spot, however, within a few weeks—and saved me from an operation—all my troubles had disappeared, and I found myself once more healthy and well. Words fail to describe the real, true, grateful feeling that is in my heart, and I want to tell every sick and suffering sister. Don't dally with medicines you know nothing about, but take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and take my word for it, you will be a different woman in a short time."—MRS. LAURA EMMONS, Walkerville, Ont.—1890 (Forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.)

Don't hesitate to write to Mrs. Pinkham if there is anything about your sickness you do not understand. No woman ever regretted writing her and she has helped thousands. Address Lynn, Mass.

(Intended for last week.)
At the regular meeting of the Prince Arthur Lodge A.F. & A.M. on Friday evening last installation of officers elected for the ensuing twelve months took place, the complete staff being as follows: E.H.W. Hickling, I.P.M.; John Wright, W.M.; W.A. Armstrong, S.W.; C.H. Munshaw, J.W. Rev. J.S.I. Wilson, Chaplain, A.S. VanDusen, Treas.; C.N. Richardson, Sec.; H. Heitman, S.D.; T.A. Blakely, J.D.; Dr. J.P. Ottowill, I.G.; Jas. Sullivan, Tyler; H. Perigo, S.S.; J.P. Legate, J.S.; R.A. Park, D. of C.; J. Blackburn and D. McTavish, auditors. The W.M. appointed the following as the Board of General Purposes: A.S. VanDusen, W.J. Bellamy, J.A. Boyd, F.H.W. Hickling, the W.M. and Secretary. Messrs. A.S. VanDusen and John Wright, W.M., were elected representatives to Grand Lodge which meets at Brockville on July 16. The auditors' annual report showed the lodge to be in a very prosperous condition.

On Thursday evening last the Ladies Aid Society in the Methodist church elected officers for the ensuing twelve months as follows: President, Mrs. George Mitchell; Vice Pres., Mrs. J.A. Boyd; Sec. Mrs. F.W. Hickling; Treas., Mrs. W.A. Armstrong; Parsonage Committee, Mrs. W. Wilcox, Mrs. M. Wilson and Mrs. W. Smith.

An interesting item of news which came to us too late for last writing was a nice presentation to Mr. and Mrs. W. T. McKee, who recently moved from the 4th line to reside in this place. A number of friends on behalf of the Fourth Line Sabbath School visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. McKee and presented the former with a neatly bound Bible and the latter with a handsome crucifix. The presentation was accompanied by an appropriate address which expressed the good wishes of the S. S. in which Mr. and Mrs. McKee had long been deeply interested.

Rev. John Garner, a spurnated Methodist minister at Hanover, occupied the Methodist pulpit here on Sabbath morning last and his sermon was much appreciated by the congregation. Mr. Garner entered the ministry over sixty years ago and though over eighty years of age now is still vigorous and delivers his gospel message with marked animation and power. Rev. Mr. Wilson preached in the evening, his theme being 'Organic Church Union' which, strongly advocated by the speaker, was dealt with in an interesting and masterly manner. Union was advocated by the speaker because of the great benefit he believed it would be to the cause of Christ. Minor differences would have to be laid aside. Prejudice and sentiment was the only thing in his mind which stood in the way, but this can and will be overcome if there be within us the mind and spirit of Jesus Christ; love for Christ and desire to work and live for Christ.

Following instructions in the will of the late Dr. Christie of this place, the executors of his estate have had constructed in the Flesherton cemetery a cement vault into which his remains are to be laid this week.

MARKDALE.
(From the Owen Sound Times.)

The village of Markdale is thirty miles south of Owen Sound by rail and is the most central place in the county of Grey. With a population of about one thousand people it is one of the most substantial places of its size in the province. The business blocks are nearly all of red brick two and three stories high. The hotels are commodious and up-to-date. The main street is a splendid section of macadam and on nearly all the residential and business blocks granite walks of splendid construction have been made. Markdale is the home of beautiful residences. In fact some of their best residences with their conservatories and attractiveness of design are objects lessons from which Owen Sound and other urban centres in the county might copy to advantage. If poverty exists in Markdale it certainly cannot be seen for permanence, substantiality and prosperity stand forth everywhere. Markdale has a splendid public school. The Saugen river affords about the only really good trout fishing in this portion of Ontario, and fishing parties from many points at a distance are in the summer season. The character of a place is generally known by its newspaper, and the Markdale Standard is in keeping with the progressive town in which it is printed. It is a bright, newsy paper, a great factor in moulding public opinion and is in keeping with the high moral and literary instincts of the people. Mr. C. W. Rutledge, a gentleman well known and respected throughout the county, is the editor responsible for keeping up the Standard's high standard of excellence. Markdale has an excellent band and the players are nicely uniformed. The village also supports a fast lacrosse team and has always been prominent in athletics. It is the home of Dr. Sproule, Grand Master of the Orange Order in America, and well known parliamentarian, and also of Mr. I. B. Lucas, M.P.P., the boy orator of the Opposition in the provincial legislature, who enjoys the distinction of being the only member holding his seat by acclamation.

The sorrowful list of needless losses of lives by drowning grow lonker every summer. Most of these accidents could be avoided would parents take the pains to see that their boys—yes, and their girls—were taught to swim and float. Youngsters only a few years old can readily acquire the easy art of taking care of themselves in the water; yet so frequent is the percol of this training of children in bathing suits that even many adult sailors in naval and mercantile vessels, on craft of every imaginable kind, would not know how to keep themselves afloat were they to be tumbled into the waves by an upset or an unexpected happening. It is a pity that it is not practicable to furnish lessons in swimming in every public school. Of course, the town could not possibly afford to provide the training; but swimming is to countless multitudes of the masses a more useful accomplishment of genuine value than singing or drawing can ever be in any emergency.

His Last Hope Realized.
(From The Sentinel, Gebo, Mont.)

In the first opening of Oklahoma to settlers in 1890, the editor of this paper was among the many seekers after fortune who made the big race one fine day in April. During his travelling about and afterwards his camping upon his claim he encountered much bad water, which, together with the severe heat, gave him a very severe diarrhoea which it seemed almost impossible to check. At length in June the case became so bad he expected to die. One day one of his neighbors brought him one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a last hope. A big dose was given him while he was lying in bed, and in a few minutes the dose was repeated. The root effect of the medicine was soon noticed and within an hour the patient was taking his first sound sleep for a fortnight. That one little bottle worked a complete cure and he cannot help but feel grateful. The season for bowel disorders being at hand suggests this item. For sale by H. L. Stehler.
