Indications are that the rooms will be unusually full, particularly in the senior forms. Be on hand Thursday morning if you wish a seat. Jas. S. Rowe, Principal.

The cigarette question has taken turn in Acton the past few days which should mean very much in further curtailing the use of this nefarious article. From the time of the passage of the cigarette by-law by the Municipal Council the hotelmen have claimed that their liquor licenses gave them permission to sell cigarettes. Judgment has just been given, however, that in a municipality where a by-law has been passed, fixing a license fee for the sale of cigarettes, hotel men must take out a license under the bylaw or be amenable to its provisions, the same as all other dealers. Inspector Reynolds has so notified the hotel keepers and advised them to discontinue sales of cigarettes. It will be well also for those who are in the hab.t of pur-
