

FLESHERTON HAPPENINGS

The Methodist Ladies Aid gave a lawn social on the church grounds on Wednesday evening of last week at which twenty dollars were realized. The evening was fine and a very enjoyable time was spent on the lawn after which an interesting program was rendered in the school room of the church.

After a brief illness with acute intestinal trouble, Miss Margaret Mathewson, youngest daughter of the late Henry Mathewson, died on Saturday last at the home of her mother on the Toronto Line. The funeral took place on Monday at the Irwin Cemetery, Rev. J. S. I. Wilson of this place conducting the burial service at the house and grave. The deceased who was 29 years and 11 months of age was an estimable young woman and will be greatly missed by her now sorrowing aged mother.

In view of the union evangelistic meetings to be commenced here by Evangelist A. H. Ranton on Sabbath, September 11th, the joint committee of the churches decided on Thursday evening last to commence union prayer meetings to be held this week on Tuesday and Friday evenings in the Baptist and Methodist churches respectively. The committee of management is comprised of Messrs. W. Clayton, T. Granger and R. Waller, Methodist; A. S. VanDusen, J. A. Felshead and F. Chard, Presbyterian; R. Allen, H. Holman and T. Whitten, Baptist, and the respective pastors, Reva Wilson, Thom and Hurlbert.

Mr. David Clayton, a Flesherton boy who has for the past few years conducted a successful harness business at Sinaluta, Assa, has disposed of his business, leased his property, and returned with his family to reside in Collingwood. Before leaving Sinaluta Mr. Clayton, who was Worshipful Master of the Masonic Lodge there, was presented with a gold locket handsomely engraved and an address which expressed appreciation of his zeal and faithfulness in the lodge and deep regret at his departure.

The Thompson bakery and residence came near getting a scorching on Monday. When discovered the roof was in a blaze, supposed to have started by a spark from the chimney, but with water convenient and willing hands it was extinguished before much damage was done.

The vacancy on the Police Trustee Board which has existed for some time has been filled by the appointment of Messrs. D. McTavish and J. A. Heard who have accepted the office.

Master Harold Mitchell, second son of Mr. Geo. Mitchell, had a narrow escape from serious injury on Saturday evening last. While playing on the streets he was knocked down and run over by a passing horse and buggy, but escaped from his perilous position with a cut on the top of the head and other slight injuries.

Mr. W. J. Douglas and family, who were summering here, returned last week to their Collingwood home.

Rev. J. S. I. and Mrs. Wilson entertained the Methodist choir at the parlance on Friday evening last.

Mrs. J. Runstadler gave an enjoyable party to a company of friends on Thursday evening last in honor of her guests, Miss Wolfe and Miss Runstadler. A number were present from Markdale, Pricoeville and Dundak.

Miss Ida Irwin, teacher, Dresden, who is holidaying at the parental home, Toronto line, entertained friends on Wednesday afternoon of last week. We congratulate Miss Myrtle Thurston, second daughter of the Advance editor, on her success at the recent Junior Leaving examinations at Owen Sound where she attended the Collegiate. For one of her years Miss Myrtle may justly be proud of holding a second class teacher's certificate.

Mr. Alex. Campbell, M.A., Mathematical Master in Kingston Collegiate Institute, paid his old friend, Mr. Geo. Mitchell, a short visit last week.

Rev. L. W. and Mrs. Thom were at Shelburne on Monday attending the Silver Wedding of Rev. C. W. and Mrs. Watch.

Mrs. J. E. Hansford and daughters, who have summered very enjoyably here, return to their home in Toronto this week.

Mr. Thorpe Wright of Toronto Junction was in town last week and dropped in to give his usual cheery greeting.

Lieut.-Col. A. G. Campbell was in town on Saturday last renewing old acquaintances, and called to give the glad hand to your correspondent.

Mr. Wm. Strain, of Ann Arbor, Mich., was also a welcome caller on Saturday on his arrival here to visit old friends.

Mrs. (Rev.) D. A. Holman, of Freeport, Mich., is visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. P. Holman, here.

Mrs. (Dr.) Webster, of Toronto, spent from Thursday last till Tuesday of this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Richardson.

Miss Maud Richardson, after an extended holiday here, returned to Toronto on Tuesday and will, we understand, open an art studio in the city this fall.

The Misses Simpson of Chicago have been the guests of Mrs. Hickling for a few days.

Mrs. Thurston, sr. and Miss Thurston of Toronto are the guests of Mrs. W. H. Thurston.

Miss Flesher of Parry Sound is visiting Mrs. Wm. Wilcox.

Mrs. J. C. Crane of Owen Sound is visiting her mother, Mrs. Robert Trimble.

Mrs. E. Strigley and daughter, Miss Laura, of Toronto, are visiting the former's sister, Mrs. Joy and family.

Mrs. W. H. Heard is visiting friends in Toronto.

Miss Celia VanDusen is holidaying in Collingwood.

Misses Ethel and Bert Crossley are visiting friends in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Mitchell and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Boyd attended a picnic at Bell's Lake on Tuesday.

Mrs. F. W. Hickling leaves this week to visit her sisters at Toronto and Ottawa. She will be accompanied by her nieces, Misses Ruby and Lydia Aikenhead, who have been holidaying here.

Dr. Murray will be a visitor to Toronto this week and will be absent next week attending the Dominion Dental Convention.

Mr. Holmes, and the Misses Vanant, of Toronto, and Miss Ottwell of Lady Bank were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Ottwell from Saturday till Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. VanDusen of Chicago are on a holiday trip and are visiting the former's parents here this week. Ted, who has been 14 years a member of the Chicago police force, turns the scale at 225 pounds and looks as if it would give him but little trouble to "run it" the most obstinate character.

Lauriston
Everyone will soon be through harvesting in this neighborhood. We are thankful for the beautiful weather.

Services are being held in the church here every Sabbath afternoon at 2:30; also prayer meeting Thursday night at half-past seven. All are welcome.

Lily Oak
This week will wind up harvesting operations except some late stuff. The yield is poor; oats short and light and badly rusted, which makes the farmer feel almost busted.

Mr. Jim Grant has gone to the great west to visit his son and daughter, who reside there. Mr. Jim Graham went to see the country.

Mrs. Wm. Lansing had to have her fractured leg re-set last week. She is quite poorly.

Mr. Jim Yates and wife visited relatives hereabouts on Sunday.

Miss May Martin is on a visit in Toronto.

The threshing engine whistles sounds like business.

While playing last Sunday Mr. Adam Clarke's little boy fell and knocked the cap off his knee. Dr. Bull replaced it.

Holland Centre
The C.P.R. station is being moved up to sideway 30 for the better accommodation of the public.

Mrs. Frazer, who has been in Owen Sound hospital for the last three weeks is slowly recovering.

Mrs. Dixon is home again from St. Catharines where she attended the wedding of her niece.

Mrs. J. Herbert of Chatsworth is visiting at the parental home here.

We are pleased to see Rev. T. Leonard in town lately.

We understand Miss L. Leonard successfully passed her Junior Leaving examination.

Mr. and Mrs. McDonald of Brantford were visiting at Mr. Smith's last week.

Mrs. Baird from near Vandeleur was visiting her daughter, Mrs. Watson, this week.

Berkley
The Misses Nettie and Charlotte Boyd left on Wednesday of last week on a visit to friends in Durham and Peterborough counties.

Mr. and Mrs. Elder were last week visiting friends in Normanby where Mr. Elder was born and where his father who is 94 years of age still resides and is quite smart.

Mrs. Virtue is at present visiting with her son at Dundak.

Mr. and Mrs. George Williams of Windsor arrived here on Friday on a visit to the latter's brother, Robert, of this place.

Very few left this station on the harvest excursion to the West as there is plenty of work here and wages is good.

R. J. Boyd of the gravel road has shown a good example by cutting the weeds on the high-way in front of his farm. We think that pathmasters should see that the law is enforced as in this respect, and it is very little use of one person cutting and his neighbors letting them grow.

Shelburne
The English Church garden party, held on Thursday evening of this week, was a great success, although the evening was cold and wet, compelling them to go into the town hall, which was filled to its utmost capacity, and a great many had to be turned away, as there was no room for them, the stage and every conceivable place being occupied, leaving room only for the speakers. The great drawing card of this gathering was R. R. Ganey of Manitoulin, every person being anxious to hear him. Dr. Sproule and Dr. Lewis also were present and spoke for a few minutes. Dr. Barr occupied the chair. We hear the church realized upwards of $200 from the garden party, which was considered very good.

Rev. C. W. and Mrs. Watch celebrated their silver wedding at the parsonage on Monday afternoon and evening of last week. We hear about two hundred called to express their compliments and best wishes. Among those present were Rev. and Mrs. Thom of Flesherton.

Mr. Arthur Watch from Manitoba is spending a couple of weeks with his parents at the parsonage.

Two loads of our young people attended the Epworth League Convention in Orangeville on Tuesday evening of this week.

The garden party under the auspices of the Corbeton Methodist Church held last week was a great success in every respect. The circuit is richer by considerably over a hundred dollars. There was a good representation drove up from Shelburne.

Maxwell
Born, on August 19th, to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Flesher, a son.

Mr. Frank Kerton left last week for the West.

The social which was held a week ago last Tuesday at the parsonage was well attended. Proceeds amounted to $12.00.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Field of Rockvale spent a few days with their relatives in town.

Mrs. J. Henry of Markdale returned to her home last week after visiting with her relatives in this vicinity.

Miss Alice Brownridge left last Tuesday for the West.

The Misses Kerr of Toronto intend holding a concert at Faversham on Sept. 3rd. All are invited. Admission 25 cents.

Walters Falls
Several have finished harvest in this district.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Saunders and daughter visited in Midland last week.

Mrs. S. Campbell and children are visiting friends in Midland.

Mr. Robert King left for the west last Thursday. We wish him success.

Rev. Dr. Williams of London preached a very eloquent sermon in Phillip's Church last Sunday.

Misses Chas. Holden and Blanche German left for their home in St. Mary's on Thursday.

Mr. Patton and Miss Olive Wilkinson visited at Mr. H. Bonnell's on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Shepherdson visited friends in Chatsburg and Meaford from Saturday till Monday.

Miss Emma Caswell and Mr. Thos. Horton of Meaford Sundayed at Mr. S. Caswell's.

Several from here attended the immersion at Strathaven Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Cook of Bayview visited friends here on Sunday.

"J. S. was sorry to give up German and resume his former studies."

Cherry Grove
Such an important little burg should not remain silent when there are many items of interest to sister places.

Mrs. Thompson and son of Toronto are visiting relatives here. Misses Gladys and Rita Burrell, also of the Queen City, are visiting at the home of Mrs. R. Bradley.

Mr. R. H. Carbet called around lately; we need not say where.

Mr. Chas. Tobutt has rented Mrs. Myres' house and is moving in this week.

Mrs. W. E. Brady is visiting her mother in Toronto.

We are sorry to say Mr. Oliver Hill is still suffering considerably from the injuries received at the barn raising.

Mr. J. Stitt and Miss E. Robertson of Blantyre spent Sunday with the Struthers family.

Mr. T. Wilcox of Cayton Sundayed at Mr. T. Bradley's. You'll know the road better next time, Tom.

Sorry to report Miss Cora Taylor on the sick list.

Mrs. W. Wyville enjoyed a week's visit from her sister, Mrs. M. Smith, of Owen Sound.

Harvesting will soon be a thing of the past for this year and the abundant yield has encouraged many to take in the Toronto Exhibition.

Wedding bells are ringing loud and clear.

Mr. Conley was attacked by the bull while bringing home the cattle and luckily for him got off with a few bruises which laid him off work for a few days.

Mrs. W. L. Falkingham Dead.
Her Demise at Traverston has Aroused Deepest Sympathy for the Bereaved Ones.—Other Items.

(By our own correspondent.)
The hearts of the people of this neighborhood and surrounding district were deeply saddened and filled with sorrow and sympathy on Thursday of last week, August 25th, when the news flashed from home to home that Mrs. W. L. Falkingham of the Falls was dead. On Wednesday night in gay spirits and cheery and busy—at 10 o'clock the following morning, quiet and still and calm in death. It was a sad scene. The sorrowing of the young husband and the bitter weeping of the motherless children caused stout-hearted men and the doctors to weep. Taking all the circumstances into consideration, we think it the saddest event that ever took place in this neighborhood. The deceased was born in Selby, Yorkshire, England, on the 20th March 1870. On the 15th of April, 1898, was wedded to W. L. Falkingham, who is two years older. After two happy years in the Old Land they came to Canada and lived for a time in Norfolk County, but ten years ago purchased the Haywards Falls property and have had a most happy and hospitable home. To them were born seven children—four girls and three boys, but lost their baby boy of six months old at Christmas time, hence six remain. Her life has been a very, very busy one, especially so this summer, as Mr. Orr Minnis has had a big gang of men there working on the new dam and they boarded in the home. Yet, she was always cheery, ever sunny and bright, so winsome and obliging that her praises are on everybody's lips. A talented player on the piano and a sweet singer, she was ever loved to help or entertain. So she was loved by all. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon to Zion cemetery, and was the largest ever known in this neighborhood—over 200 rigs being in the procession, great numbers coming from Durham, Markdale and the surrounding townships. Rev. T. Colling conducted the service and paid a high tribute to the departed, who was a member of Zion, and also of the Epworth League, the members of which had most beautifully draped and garlanded the grave. The floral tributes were piled about everywhere and were very beautiful; but especially so was the floral pillow presented by Mr. Orr Minnis and his men, who sent to Orangeville for it, a most commendable act on their part. How the hearts of the people go out in sympathy to those bereft of mother's love, and to him who has lost the light of his life.

The birds and the leaves are beginning to say "Autumn."
Half of our farmers finish harvesting this week.

The maiden who lost her brooch in Zion on Sunday will find the same in your scribe's care.

Miss Aggie Jones of Ceylon is visiting at her friend's home, Mrs. Will Timmins.

Mrs. Eliza Cook of Toronto and Miss Leiter are visiting at the Edwards' homestead, "Aunt Eliza" is a most likeable person.

Mr. Robt. McFarlane, sr., of Durham and Mrs. Day of Hamilton spent part of Monday with Mrs. Thomas Edwards.

Mrs. Thomas Cook spent a couple of days of the past week with the old neighbors and friends around Zion.

Lambs are being shipped from here this week at 4 1/2 a pound, live weight. Hustler.

Vandeleur
Mrs. Thos. Gilbert and son John of Wiarion visited last week with Mrs. Geo. Warling and other friends here.

Mr. A. Stamboskie of Chicago was renewing acquaintances here last week.

Messrs. Sid Gilbert and Porter Baird left Tuesday morning for Manitoulin.

Mr. Wilfred Cullis entertained his Sunday School class at a picnic last Thursday.

Wedehouse
Miss Knott of Markdale has been staying with her sister, Mrs. S. J. Wiley, for some time.

Mr. Patton of Flesherton has been doing the plastering of S. J. Wiley's house.

Mr. Geo. Carruthers and his daughter of Listowel visited friends in our burg last week.

Our postmaster intends taking a trip to the city this week, no doubt on business as well as pleasure bent. Rhoda Soul of Duncan and Miss Shaw of Kelapora.

If You Don't Sleep Well
It's because your nerves are in a weak irritable condition. Ferrozone will make them strong and correct the trouble causing your insomnia. "I fell into a state of nervous exhaustion last night," writes Mrs. J. Stroud of Dexter. "I was run down, couldn't sleep and felt perfectly miserable,—tried Ferrozone and was quickly benefited. I can recommend Ferrozone to anyone suffering from over-worked nerves and sleeplessness." No tonic is better, try Ferrozone. Price 50c. at druggists.

Death of a Former Teacher.

Mr. H. E. Glendinning, formerly of Markdale, Passed Away at Swan River, Man.

A telegram from Swan River, Man., on Tuesday morning, August 23rd, brought the sad intelligence of the death there of H. E. Glendinning, whose serious illness the Herald mentioned some weeks ago. Mr. Glendinning died Monday evening at 9 o'clock after a lingering illness from cancer of the stomach. He had suffered extreme pain, and as there was no hope for his recovery, death came as a welcome Christian character and possessed that faith and trustfulness in the Saviour which enables one to meet the grim messenger undiminished, looking forward to the blessed resurrection.

Mr. Glendinning was principal of the public school here for some years and afterwards proprietor of the Herald for some time. He sold out and went to Swan River about five years ago where he established "The Star" newspaper and also an extensive real estate business.

His widow and only son Will, who are both well known here, have the deepest sympathy of the community in this sad bereavement. His loss in the home, where his affectionate disposition was seen at his best, will be sorrowfully felt. Outside the home circle his influence was for good, particularly in church work. He was a member of the session of Swan River Presbyterian Church.

The funeral took place Wednesday afternoon to the cemetery at Swan River.—Dundak Herald.

[Deceased had formerly been principal of Markdale Public School for several years, was universally respected, and it is with sorrow our citizens learn of his death.—Ed. S.]
