FLESHERTON HAPPENINGS

The rall of mourning fell on the home of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Gillespie, near this village, on Saturday last, the 47th birthday of Mr. Gillespie, who that evening passed away after three weeks' illness with bronchial trouble, The funeral took place to Maxwell on Tuesday, the burial services being conducted by Rev. L. W. Thom, of this place. The deceased was married twenty-five years ago to Miss Elizabeth Croft, of Osprey, who survives him, along with the following sons and daughters: John, at Brandon, Man.; Charles and Annie, in Toronto; and May and Albert at home. The sorrow ing family have the sympathy of many friends in their bereavement. Mr. Gillespie was a Presbyterian in religion and a Conservative in politics.

Will make every mother well strong, healthy and happy. I dragged through hine years of miserable existence, worn out with pain and wearings. I then noticed a statement of a woman troubled as I was; and the wonderful and had from your Vage. On Tuesday of last week Mr. and Mrs. James Love, near Mt. Zion, Artemesis, were bereft of their son Samuel, who all his life was their close companion and the object of their special affection. The funeral took place on Thursday to Mt. Zion cometery Rev. J. B. Wass, of this place, officiated at the house and grave and conducted an appropriate service in the church after interment.

troubled as I was; and the wonderful results she had had from your Vegetable Compound, and decided to try what it would do for me, and used it for three months. At the end of that time I was a different woman, the neighbors remarked it, and my husband fell in love with me all overagain. It seemed like a new existence. I had been suffering with inflammation and falling of the womb, but your medicine cured that, and built up my entire system, till I was indeed like a new woman.—Sincerely yours, Mrs. new woman.—Sincerely yours, Mrs. Chas. Mr. and Mrs. W. Mullin, a very highly respected young couple of Mt. Zion neighborhood, who have sold their farm and are removing to Osprey, were given a pleasant surprise on Monday evening. Marge number of their neighbors and friends assembled at their home and presented them with a handsome cutter robe. Mr. Mullin graciously acknowledged the much appreciated token of esteem after which refreshments were served and the evening was enjoyably spent.
