His Favorite Niece;

A SECRET REVEALED.

CHAPTER XVI. It was a lovely day in the first week of August. The laughing sun had taken full possession of the land; the yellow wheat and the glowing fruit had been kissed to ripeness by the warm sun. The sky was blue, without a cloud, and the fruit of earth lay to view. The river banks, rustling through the reeds and sedges, stirring the green leaves of the lilies, rippling over the drooping bowers.

shock for you both," said Leah. "Yes; I was only a boy, but I worshipped my sister. You cannot tell how deeply attached I was to her. I think the love of a sister is one of the greatest of earth."

CHAPTER XVII. Half an hour passed, and they were still talking under the veranda on the western terrace. It seemed to Leah but a few minutes, and yet she felt that a change had been wrought in the time! Quite suddenly, and almost unconsciously to her, the whole world had changed for her—her life had grown complete. But a little while before her heart had been desolate, and she had been looking for a sense of chill and loneliness, of ungratified desires, a sense of the emptiness of all things. It had vanished as snow before the sun, and a sweet harmonious sense of the fullness of life had taken possession of her.

CHAPTER XVIII. The calm, quiet words brought her down from an exalted frame of mind to a more ordinary life. "It is indeed lovely," she said. "Do you like boating? I can very much do it. I have a pretty little boat of my own, and I spend many hours upon the water. But I must not forget my niece's instructions. You must come and have some refreshment."

Best Rule of Health And How You Are Aided in Carrying It Out By Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills

A movement of the bowels every day is the fundamental rule of health. The one point on which doctors are unanimous. But what causes the bowels to become constipated? The inactivity of the liver. Bile is nature's own cathartic, and so long as the liver is active in its work, pushing bile from the blood into the intestines, there is no trouble from constipated bowels.

Curing Consumption

When SCOTT'S EMULSION makes a consumptive gain flesh it is curing his consumption. The weight is the measure of the consumptive's condition. Every pound of weight gained is a matter for congratulation, and Scott's Emulsion makes the consumptive gain flesh. Scott's Emulsion does something to the lungs, too, that reduces the cough and the inflammation. More weight and less cough always mean that consumption is losing its influence over the system. For all stages of the disease Scott's Emulsion is a reliable help.
