FLESHERTON HAPPENINGS

(This week's budget.)

A pretty home wedding took place at five o'clock on Wednesday evening of last week at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. James Chard, 4th line, Artemesia, when their only daughter, Mary, was married to Mr. Alex. S. McMullen, son of Mr. David McMullen of this place The bride's pastor, Rev. L. W. Thom, performed the ceremony in the pres-ence of about fifty guests. The hand-some bride was given away by her father and as the bridal party took their places beneath a prettily decorated arch of evergreens, Mrs. Thom played the Wedding March. The bride, who was becomingly attired in a navy blue ladies cloth skirt and white taffeta silk waist trimmed with ribbon, was attended by Miss Elizabeth Mc-

Mullen, the groom sister, who were a navy blue ladies cloth skirt and white silk waist trimmed with lace. Mr, Mark Teeter was groomsman. After the ceremony a sumptuous wedding supper was served, and then till a late supper was served, and then till a late hour the evening was enjoyably, spent with music and so forth. The bride was the recipient of a large number of valuable welding presents, that of the grom being a beautifui gold watch. Mr. McMullen having recently purchased the farm which has been the home of the bride, the young couple are settling thereon and a wide circle of friends wish them much happiness of friends wish them much happiness and prosperity. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart, of the west back line, on Chursday last and we extend our congratulations.

Communion service was held in the Presbyterian Church on Sabbath last Rev. Geo. Ballantyne, of Maxwell, preached at the preparatory service on Friday. It was Mr. Ballantyne's first pulpit appearance here and his edifyng sermon was very highly appreciated

Miss Maud Richardson, art teacher in Alma Ladies College, St. Thomas, as been for the second year successfu in having one of her recently painted pictures accepted by the Ontario Society of Artists for their annual exhibition in Toronto which was held during the past two weeks. Miss Richardson is to be congratulated upon this original part of the congratulated upon this evidence of success in her artwork as only pictures of special merit are given a place in this annual exhibition.

Mr. Alexander, tailor, has sold his residence and two-acre plot on Ellen street to Mr. James Patton, who takes possession at once, Mr. Patton has also bought from Mr. Sproule the vacant lot on the opposite corner. Mr Alexander has removed to the residence and shop formerly occupied by him next door to Medical Hall.

An effort is being made to resuscitate the Royal Templars lodge here and to this end Rev. Wilson invited the other ministers and congregations to a temperance meeting in the Methodist church on Monday evening. Addresses favorable to the movement were given by Revs. Wilson, Wass and Thom and Messrs. J. A. Felstead and W. H. Phurston, after which it was decided o hold another meeting for the purpose f roorganizing.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Guest, of Henderson, Maine, have the sympathy of their friends here on the loss of their little foor months' old daughter, Hazel Irene, who died on Thursday last. Saturday morning after a short illness. The funeral took place on Monday to Priceville cometery.
Mr. Jas. McLeod, Owen Sound, visiting his mother at present.

Mr. John McInnis had a very successful sale on March 10. It was well. attended and things went at good prices. Our "Review" correspondent noted the fact last week that our village was proud for the first time in its life of having a county warden in our midst. Yes we are for the second time in the history of our village, for away back in the 60's John McDonald, Esq., one of our popular business men, was elected warden, and we do not see how this fact could be so soon forgotten by some of our pioneers, especially as Mr. McDonald was a good Scotchman, alhough he did not "spoke the Gaelic."

Champion Liniment for Rheumatism.

Chas. Drake, a mail carrier at Chapin ville, Conn., says: "Chamberlain's Pain Balm'is the champion of all liniments. The past year I was throubled a great deal with rheumatism in my oulder. After trying several cures the store keeper here recommended this remedy and it completely cured me." There is no use of anyone suffering from this painful ailment when the liniment can be obtained for a small. One application gives prompt relief and its continued use for a short time will oduce a permanent cure. Sold by R. L. Stephen, Markdale, Ont.
