FLESHERTON HAPPENINGS (By our own Correspondent.)

Mr. F. G. Karstedt's millinery opening last week was very successful. A large number of ladies visited the show room, and the pretty creations in head wear were much admired. Among them was an attractive large picture hat of black chiffon with plumes. A very becoming hat was of shaded brown chiffon with ribbon trimming. A very odd but dainty hat was made entirely of forget-me-nots, trimmed with folds of white tulip. Another very much admired was Napoleon shape of the new wrinkled chiffon in champaign and brown shades with flowers falling over the hair. Another very stylish hat was one with rolling brim made with black and white tulip with large plume falling over the brim. Numerous other pretty designs and a splendid variety of trimmings were shown. Altogether the display was good and artistically arranged in the neatly fitted up new show room, which was made attractive with a large mirror in the rear and a handsome show case and cabinet manufactured at the Wilson factory here.

Mr. R. McMullen, east back line, and Mr. W. Hale, Durham Road, had successful auction sales of their farm stock and implements last week.

Mr. R. J. Sproutle conducted both sales. Mr. Hale has leased his farm, and a niece of Mrs. (Dr.) Baar of this place. The funeral takes place to Shulburne public cemetery at two o'clock to-day (Tuesday).

Lily Oak

Plowing is now the order.

Mrs. William Lansing is improving slowly.

Miss Nettie Alexander returned last week after visiting her grandfather, Mr. Geo. Alexander, Faversham, for a month. Her cousin, Miss Mable Beatty, came with her.

Mr. Robert Stephens had a wood bee last week and gave the boys a hoe-down night.

Holland Centre

Farmers have commenced plowing. Mr. McKinley has moved into the Queen's Hotel. He is reported to be a model hotelkeeper.

Alf. Rolston has gone to the North West this week.

Mrs. J. Hanna, who has been ill with a gripe for over three weeks, is recovering.

Mr. Wm. Norton is ill with an attack of rheumatism.

Mr. J. Watson is moving his family into the village.

Kimberley

A movement is now on hand to have a Bell telephone line from Thornbury to Kimberley via Heathcote.

J. R. Fawcett took a business trip to Toronto last week.

Our mail carrier's term has now expired, and so far no one has been appointed. It is well we have our telephone line in, as we only get our mail once a while.

Mr. Jas. Lawrence has rented the Moore farm vacated by Mr. W. T. McConnell, who is moving with his family to Sturgeon Falls.

Dr. Shuttles, of Heathcote, was in town on Thursday in the interests of the new telephone line.

Mr. Geo. Cornfield had a wood bee last week.

Mr. Ben Knott left last Thursday for the West.

Miss Clara Hurd also left for the West last week.

There is plenty of water now to run my mill, and our miller makes the best kind of flour.

H. BURNETTE, Markdale.

years did living about three miles from this town, committed suicide on Friday by taking a dose of strichnine. The father found him before he expired and while he was conscious. The unfortunate young man said he was sorry, for what he had done, but as far as we can learn gave no reasons for the rash act. Great sympathy is felt for his sorrowing parents. He was buried in Shulburne public cemetery on Sunday afternoon.

It is with deep regret we have to chronicle the death of Miss Malazina E. Erie Hill which took place at her home on Owen Sound street of this town on Saturday night about eleven o'clock. Since gradually grown worse, and although everything was done for her that loving hands could do, she passed away as above. The young lady was 20 years of age. She was a daughter of Rev. Mr. Hill who died about two years ago. Her mother, Mrs. (Dr.) Baar of this place. The funeral takes place to Shulburne public cemetery at two o'clock to-day (Tuesday).
