The Flesherton Budget

(By Our Own Correspondent.)

Flesherton, Ontario, August 31, 1905.

LOCALS

Thrown From His Bicycle.

While wheeling down the long hill near Flesherton Station one night recently, Mr. Thomas Wardrobe of this place narrowly escaped serious if not fatal injury. His feet slipped from the pedals and he lost control of his wheel, and when the bottom of the hill was reached struck some fresh gravel, and with no gentle force Tom was hurled about a dozen feet off his bike, landing on a pile of stones. He was severely injured on his face and legs, but feels grateful that it was not more serious.

A Commendable Act.

With a view towards obtaining his recovery, the T. Eaton Co., Toronto, took up the case of Mr. John W. Field, one of their employees, while the latter was in the city lately disposing of his household effects prior to moving here, and employed a specialist to examine and pronounce upon his ailment, the result being the same as other specialists have pronounced it, namely "Sarcoma," with no hope for recovery. Since returning here from the city Mr. Field has gradually become worse, and the end of his suffering is not likely to be prolonged. He has the sympathy of his many old friends as well as many new ones in this, his sad affliction. The Eaton firm is to be commended for their efforts to preserve his life. Mr. Field's wife and three children accompanied him from Toronto and are now with him at the home of his mother here.

Death of Thomas Cook.

It is with a feeling of sadness and real sympathy for the bereaved ones we announce this week the early departure from this life of Mr. Thomas Cook, who after several months illness passed peacefully away on Sunday evening last at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cook, Ceylon. The most careful nursing had been given him and the best medical skill had been employed to save his life, but the disease, which was tubercular in character, could not be overcome. The deceased, who was the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Cook, was born at Ceylon nearly 24 years ago, and was a very highly respected young man in the community. Having been for some time a brakeman on the C.P.R. the van of a train on Monday was draped in mourning in respect to the deceased. His sorrowing parents and sisters have many friends to sincerely sympathize with them in their bereavement. The funeral will take place to-day (Tuesday) when Rev. Dr. Caldwell will officiate. Mr. Cook was a member of the Chosen Friends and also a member of the B.R.R.B., a brotherhood of trainmen, whose representatives from Toronto presented a beautiful floral anchor, acted as pall-bearers and conducted the impressive burial service of their Order.

Mr. John Runstadler and Dr. Murray each favored your cor. a few days ago with a mess of speckled trout, the finest we have seen for many a day. The treat was very much enjoyed.

Mr. Edgar Bellamy, President; Mrs. Thurston, Mrs. W. A. Armstrong and Miss Wass are the delegates elected by the League to attend the Epworth League Convention at Berkeley to-day, Tuesday.

Mr. Henry Down, who has sold his farm on the 4th line, has bought from Mr. D. Winters 100 acres on the 4th line of Osprey, not the Gamey farm as we reported last week. We understand the price paid to be $8,500.

Mrs. W. J. White has purchased from Mr. W. Richardson the residence on Spring street she and Mr. White have occupied the past few years. Mrs. White has also bought the Robina Smith property on the same street.

Mr. Wm. Strain, of Ann Arbor, Mich., is on an extended visit with his brother Joseph at Inistogue and was in town last week calling on old friends. Mr. Strain's youngest son, Fred, who has been a student in the University at Ann Arbor, has, we learn, recently received the degree of B.A., and his youngest daughter, Clara, having obtained a teacher's certificate, has taken charge of a school at Goldfields, Nevada. We are pleased to learn of the success of our young friends and tender congratulations.

The Penrith (England) Observer of the 8th August refers to a Culgaith equine veteran as follows: "Yesterday Mr. M. K. Richardson, an ex-member of the Canadian Parliament, who is on a visit to his brother Mr. Joseph Richardson, of Culgaith, drove from that village to Penrith on his way to the north. The distance, a good eight miles, was done by Mr. Richardson's well known horse, "The Doctor," in less than an hour, though the animal is 36 years old. "The Doctor" finished quite fresh, and left for home after a feed and short rest as briskly as many a six-year-old." Mr. Richardson, we might say, is still in England, and in a letter to us a few days ago, reports a very enjoyable visit amidst the scenes of his youth.

"A very pleasing event," says the Alliston Herald of August 17th, "took place on Nelson street on Monday afternoon, when Mrs. J. Mitchell celebrated her 87th birthday. Mrs. J. Bomrose, of Toronto, received with her mother, while Miss Mitchell, assisted by Mrs. Fletcher, Martindale, Packham, Bunker, Mullen and Fife attended the tea room, which was beautifully decorated with flowers. Miss Lulu Bunker gracefully attended at the door. The guests numbered about sixty and among those from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Young, New York. Mrs. Mitchell received a number of magnificent presents." Mr. George Mitchell, banker, and Mrs. M. K. Richardson of this place are son and niece respectively of the esteemed lady, who notwithstanding her years is in the enjoyment of good health. We are pleased to have her acquaintance and join in congratulations.

Traverston

Several finished harvesting on Saturday of last week. The weather proving fine, all will be done by the last of this one.

Zion Sunday School has a library now of 516 books, having added twenty-one new ones lately.

Miss Minnie Burnett, of the 4th, is at the old home for holidays. She came from Toronto last week.

Mr. John McGillvary has had a neat marble monument erected over his wife's grave. 'Tis from the Orangeville Marble Works.

The reason that Peart Bros. and Mr. Will McNally of the 6th got through harvesting so quickly was because each had invested in new binders.

Miss Minnie Twamly, of Bentinck, called on old friends the first of the week. She has been a year at Alma Ladies' College and resumes her studies there next month. 'Tis a good training with plenty of work, yet not altogether devoid of fun.

Miss Katie McNally returned to Toronto on Tuesday last. Mr. Bert Summers, who had been holidaying in the home for a fortnight, accompanied her.

Several from here attended the funeral of the late Thos. Cook, of Ceylon, on Tuesday. Much sympathy is felt for the family, he being the only son.

Mr. Cole, of Flesherton, spent a coulple of days last week visiting among old cronies and friends. He wears his years well.

By the grip of his hand and the frank look of his eye, Mr. Pritchard, of Vandeleur, impresses one as a big-hearted, whole souled fellow—one worth winning as a friend. He and Mrs. Pritchard visited at E. W. Hunt's lately.

Our teacher maidens are all away to their schools—Miss M. E. Hunt to Vandeleur, Miss Ella McGrade to Stratford suburbs, Miss N. AcAssey in her home school here, and Miss E. Scott in No. 5. With salaries going up, we cannot see why young fellows should not crowd into the profession and weed the fair ones out by wooing and wedding them. Hustler.

Why do Women Suffer?

Such pain and endure the torture of nervous headache when 25c. buys a sure cure like Nerviline. A few drops in sweetened water brings unfailing relief. You feel better at once, you're braced up, invigorated, headache goes away after one dose. The occasional use of Nerviline prevents indigestion and stomach disorders—keeps up health and strength. Every woman needs Nerviline and should use it too. In 25c. bottles everywhere.

Wodehouse

Miss Emily Lawson has gone to Shallow Lake where she spends some time with her sister, Mrs. J. A. Rorke.

Miss Olive Wiley also spent a week recently, visiting her aunt, Mrs. Rorke.

Rev. Mr. Chantler a former pastor of this circuit but now of Owen Sound renewed acquaintances here on Sunday last and was the guest of Mr. D. R. Ellis.

Mr. Will Carruthers who has spent the past six weeks with his cousins here about, returned to his home at Marsville on Monday.

Among those who have gone to the Toronto Exhibition we notice Mr. Fred Hoggarth and Mr. John Burrell.

Mr. James Wiley is busy repairing his saw mill, he will doubtless have it in first-class running order shortly. Mr. John Ferris, of Markdale, is assisting.

The Misses Atkins of Heathcote visited recently at the home of Mrs. Ed Donnelly.

We are pleased to report Miss Annie Wiley able to be out again after her recent illness which has occasioned her to remain inside for some weeks past.

Some of our young men intend taking the Harvesters Excursion to the West.
