

This Week

and Staple
below market
Remember
REDUCTIONS

ucers

Spring Cups and
at half price.

with gold line and
positively cannot be
Special sale price
50

ing for $1.85.

in fancy floral patterns
dark blue, light
ue, selling at.... 1.85

members.

erated Chambers
third less than
lar prices.

members in best quality
plain gold stippling and
bed patterns in deep
Regular 70c and 75c.
48c and..... 55

rls.

regular price $1.

shape, turned edges and
in beautiful floral dec-68c.

es.

regular Price.

ey ent, in green, olive,
d embroidery, regular 55c.

rls.

regular 50c value.

Porcelain China, with
and with gold, regular 35c.

tes.

selling for 75c

tions, crimped edges,
ing for..... 75c.

ners

d line decorations, very 80c.

gs

, priced low.

, 30c, 35c, 40c and 50

ps.

ny Lamps, popular
g as follows: 40c

ssible,

kdal

SUPPLEMENT

The Markdale Standard

Thursday, December 14th, 1905.

Flesherton

Miss Bert Crossley is home from Toronto for holidays.

Mr. John A. Boyd was at Teeswater last week attending the funeral of his uncle.

Fred Karstedt has returned from Business College in Toronto for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Rutledge, of Markdale, spent Friday evening last with Mr. and Mrs. Blackburn.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Parigo, of Brantford, are visiting the former's sisters, Mrs. Albert Stewart and Mrs. E. Alexander.

Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Richardson attended the annual supper given by the L. O. L. at Maxwell on Friday evening last. Mr. Richardson was a speaker on the occasion.

Sixty days in the common jail was the sentence imposed last week at Owen Sound on the young man convicted by Magistrate VanDusen for the theft of grain we reported last week.

Rev. J. E. and Mrs. Wess, Miss Wess and Rev. Mr. Thom attended the Methodist Sunday School anniversary at Eugenia on Friday evening last and the event was financially successful and that a well rendered programme was given.

Division Court was held in the town hall on Friday last and had the shortest sitting on record here. Judge Widdfield presided and one case which occupied twenty minutes constituted the business to be done. Several cases were entered, but were settled out of court.

A Hockey Club was formed here last week with officers as follows: President, J. A. Boyd; Vice-President, H. W. Hon. President, Geo. Mitchell; Captain, Herb Smith; Manager, W. Livingstone; Sec.-Treas., W. Somers; Field Committee, Dr. E. C. Murray, Dr. E. F. Armstrong and O. N. Richardson. Practice has begun and the game is already proving interesting recreation.

Prince Arthur Lodge A. F. & A. M. has invitations out for an At Home on Friday evening this week. At the meeting of the lodge on Friday evening last benevolent grants were given to the National Sanitarium, Muskoka, Ontario. Two members were raised to the sublime degree of Master Mason, and at the close of the lodge an enjoyable season was spent at the festive board.

Rev. Dr. Caldwell preached at the preparatory service in the Presbyterian Church on Friday last and his appropriate and edifying sermon was much enjoyed. At the communion service on Sabbath there was a large attendance and the pastor's sermon given withunction was especially uplifting. Kindly reference was made during the service to members of the congregation who were absent on account of long and severe illness. At the evening service in the Methodist Church, Dr. Caldwell's sermon was based on James 3: 6, and the discourse, which strikingly rebuked the evil tongue, com-

Kimberley

L. O. L. No. 1840, Kimberley, held their annual meeting on Thursday, December 7th, when the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: W. M., James Lawrence; D. M., Thompson Allen; Chap., Fred Stuart; Sec. Sec., Robert Lawrence; Fin. Sec., Jasper Stuart; Treas., E. J. Allen; D. of O., Hugh Smith; Lect., Thos. Leopold; Committee, Henry Hurd, Geo. McConnell, Edward Sloan, Geo. Lawrence, J. E. Fawcett; Auditors, R. A. Smith, T. Allen.

The Presbyterian Sabbath School had their annual business meeting on Monday evening when officers and teachers were elected for the ensuing year as follows: Superintendent, Chas. Stewart; Asst. Supt., Frank Chard; Sec., Herb. Smith; Asst. Sec., Miss Ethel Crossley; Organist, Miss Crossley; Assistant Organist, Miss Nellie Chard; Librarians, Thos. Chard and Geo. McTavish; Teachers, A. S. VanDusen (Bible Class), John Chard, J. F. Chard, O. Stewart, Mrs. J. Chard, Mrs. J. Blackburn, Mrs. A. Harrison, Miss Emma Quigg, Miss Nellie Chard, Miss Mabel Thistlewaite.

The new Baptist chapel near Rockvale was dedicated with appropriate services on Sunday last. Rev. W. E. Norton, Superintendent of Home Missions, preached morning and evening. A very fine local choir rendered excellent service. Solos were sung by Miss Jessie Richardson and Mrs. (Rev.) Hurlburt, of this place, and duets were rendered by Mrs. Hurlburt and Mrs. Matthew Leach. The sermons were fine expositions of truth, exceedingly helpful and listened to with deep interest. The financial receipts were very encouraging, being over $75.00. The building presents a fine appearance and is a credit to the pastor, Rev. G. E. Hurlburt, and to all who have had a part in its erection.

The Presbyterian Ladies Aid held their last regular meeting for 1905 at Mrs. VanDusen's on Thursday evening last. There was a good attendance and the present staff of officers—Mrs. (Rev.) Thom, President; Mrs. Joseph Bradley, Vice-Pres.; and Mrs. Joseph Blackburn, Sec.-Treas.—were unanimously re-elected for the ensuing year. The society has 57 members on the roll and has had a prosperous year the net receipts being over $150.00. The ladies took a deep interest in the recent renovation of the church and rendered valuable assistance to the Managing Board in meeting the cost of the same. The secretary was instructed to send a letter of sympathy to Mrs. John Chard, a very highly esteemed member at present under treatment in the hospital at Hamilton.

The new Baptist chapel near Rockvale was dedicated with appropriate services on Sunday last. Rev. W. E. Norton, Superintendent of Home Missions, preached morning and evening. A very fine local choir rendered excellent service. Solos were sung by Miss Jessie Richardson and Mrs. (Rev.) Hurlburt, of this place, and duets were rendered by Mrs. Hurlburt and Mrs. Matthew Leach. The sermons were fine expositions of truth, exceedingly helpful and listened to with deep interest. The financial receipts were very encouraging, being over $75.00. The building presents a fine appearance and is a credit to the pastor, Rev. G. E. Hurlburt, and to all who have had a part in its erection.

The Presbyterian Ladies Aid held their last regular meeting for 1905 at Mrs. VanDusen's on Thursday evening last. There was a good attendance and the present staff of officers—Mrs. (Rev.) Thom, President; Mrs. Joseph Bradley, Vice-Pres.; and Mrs. Joseph Blackburn, Sec.-Treas.—were unanimously re-elected for the ensuing year. The society has 57 members on the roll and has had a prosperous year the net receipts being over $150.00. The ladies took a deep interest in the recent renovation of the church and rendered valuable assistance to the Managing Board in meeting the cost of the same. The secretary was instructed to send a letter of sympathy to Mrs. John Chard, a very highly esteemed member at present under treatment in the hospital at Hamilton.

The Presbyterian Ladies Aid held their last regular meeting for 1905 at Mrs. VanDusen's on Thursday evening last. There was a good attendance and the present staff of officers—Mrs. (Rev.) Thom, President; Mrs. Joseph Bradley, Vice-Pres.; and Mrs. Joseph Blackburn, Sec.-Treas.—were unanimously re-elected for the ensuing year. The society has 57 members on the roll and has had a prosperous year the net receipts being over $150.00. The ladies took a deep interest in the recent renovation of the church and rendered valuable assistance to the Managing Board in meeting the cost of the same. The secretary was instructed to send a letter of sympathy to Mrs. John Chard, a very highly esteemed member at present under treatment in the hospital at Hamilton.

The Presbyterian Ladies Aid held their last regular meeting for 1905 at Mrs. VanDusen's on Thursday evening last. There was a good attendance and the present staff of officers—Mrs. (Rev.) Thom, President; Mrs. Joseph Bradley, Vice-Pres.; and Mrs. Joseph Blackburn, Sec.-Treas.—were unanimously re-elected for the ensuing year. The society has 57 members on the roll and has had a prosperous year the net receipts being over $150.00. The ladies took a deep interest in the recent renovation of the church and rendered valuable assistance to the Managing Board in meeting the cost of the same. The secretary was instructed to send a letter of sympathy to Mrs. John Chard, a very highly esteemed member at present under treatment in the hospital at Hamilton.

The Presbyterian Ladies Aid held their last regular meeting for 1905 at Mrs. VanDusen's on Thursday evening last. There was a good attendance and the present staff of officers—Mrs. (Rev.) Thom, President; Mrs. Joseph Bradley, Vice-Pres.; and Mrs. Joseph Blackburn, Sec.-Treas.—were unanimously re-elected for the ensuing year. The society has 57 members on the roll and has had a prosperous year the net receipts being over $150.00. The ladies took a deep interest in the recent renovation of the church and rendered valuable assistance to the Managing Board in meeting the cost of the same. The secretary was instructed to send a letter of sympathy to Mrs. John Chard, a very highly esteemed member at present under treatment in the hospital at Hamilton.

The Presbyterian Ladies Aid held their last regular meeting for 1905 at Mrs. VanDusen's on Thursday evening last. There was a good attendance and the present staff of officers—Mrs. (Rev.) Thom, President; Mrs. Joseph Bradley, Vice-Pres.; and Mrs. Joseph Blackburn, Sec.-Treas.—were unanimously re-elected for the ensuing year. The society has 57 members on the roll and has had a prosperous year the net receipts being over $150.00. The ladies took a deep interest in the recent renovation of the church and rendered valuable assistance to the Managing Board in meeting the cost of the same. The secretary was instructed to send a letter of sympathy to Mrs. John Chard, a very highly esteemed member at present under treatment in the hospital at Hamilton.

The Presbyterian Ladies Aid held their last regular meeting for 1905 at Mrs. VanDusen's on Thursday evening last. There was a good attendance and the present staff of officers—Mrs. (Rev.) Thom, President; Mrs. Joseph Bradley, Vice-Pres.; and Mrs. Joseph Blackburn, Sec.-Treas.—were unanimously re-elected for the ensuing year. The society has 57 members on the roll and has had a prosperous year the net receipts being over $150.00. The ladies took a deep interest in the recent renovation of the church and rendered valuable assistance to the Managing Board in meeting the cost of the same. The secretary was instructed to send a letter of sympathy to Mrs. John Chard, a very highly esteemed member at present under treatment in the hospital at Hamilton.

The Presbyterian Ladies Aid held their last regular meeting for 1905 at Mrs. VanDusen's on Thursday evening last. There was a good attendance and the present staff of officers—Mrs. (Rev.) Thom, President; Mrs. Joseph Bradley, Vice-Pres.; and Mrs. Joseph Blackburn, Sec.-Treas.—were unanimously re-elected for the ensuing year. The society has 57 members on the roll and has had a prosperous year the net receipts being over $150.00. The ladies took a deep interest in the recent renovation of the church and rendered valuable assistance to the Managing Board in meeting the cost of the same. The secretary was instructed to send a letter of sympathy to Mrs. John Chard, a very highly esteemed member at present under treatment in the hospital at Hamilton.

After a prolonged tug-of-war, James Grant has got the house which he purchased of Bobt. Winlaw moved and settled.

Mr. Bert Rusk lost two valuable cows recently from an overfeed of chop.

While putting down fodder last Sunday, preparatory to going to the church opening at Holland Centre, Walker Alexander slipped, falling backwards down twelve feet. In the fall he struck the hub of the buggy and fractured several ribs and punctured his lung. Dr. Bull is in attendance.

After a prolonged tug-of-war, James Grant has got the house which he purchased of Bobt. Winlaw moved and settled.

Mr. Bert Rusk lost two valuable cows recently from an overfeed of chop.

While putting down fodder last Sunday, preparatory to going to the church opening at Holland Centre, Walker Alexander slipped, falling backwards down twelve feet. In the fall he struck the hub of the buggy and fractured several ribs and punctured his lung. Dr. Bull is in attendance.

After a prolonged tug-of-war, James Grant has got the house which he purchased of Bobt. Winlaw moved and settled.

Mr. Bert Rusk lost two valuable cows recently from an overfeed of chop.

While putting down fodder last Sunday, preparatory to going to the church opening at Holland Centre, Walker Alexander slipped, falling backwards down twelve feet. In the fall he struck the hub of the buggy and fractured several ribs and punctured his lung. Dr. Bull is in attendance.

After a prolonged tug-of-war, James Grant has got the house which he purchased of Bobt. Winlaw moved and settled.

Mr. Bert Rusk lost two valuable cows recently from an overfeed of chop.

While putting down fodder last Sunday, preparatory to going to the church opening at Holland Centre, Walker Alexander slipped, falling backwards down twelve feet. In the fall he struck the hub of the buggy and fractured several ribs and punctured his lung. Dr. Bull is in attendance.

Be Done With Catarrh!

Why allow this filthy disease to poison your system? It drains your strength, ruins digestion, pollutes the breath, makes you repulsive. The one certain cure is "Catarrhazone," it cures because it destroys the cause of the disease, cures thoroughly because wherever the catarrh is, cures every case because its vapor destroys the catarrh germ instantly. To get well and stay free from catarrh get Catarrhazone and use it; satisfaction guaranteed.

CORRECT

department is required by good society. Why isn't it just as necessary in purchasing to know you are getting the right kind, it is; and what's more we have it. When we sell you an Organ it is up-to-date and worth every cent we ask for it. We are in receipt of some choice new instruments we want to show you. We sell on terms to suit purchaser.

ORGANS

Markdale Music Store.