the panic, the people on the e truth Are you wound-Queen replied: "No, I am I was thinking only of

D. BY. HAIRBREADTH. er, adding his own observahat Queen Victoria owed her a Indiament before, the bomb royal comple reached, and have his hand to the assembled the steps with department, as though no-Royal guests, congrabulatinversary of the attempt nive grown since then." ing. I might have had d tears in the presence madhess of crime. TEACHERS COMING.

of Them to Visit Canada all and Winter.

Carlada next Fall, to study the educahese fountries. The Sir Alfred Mosely, der and capitalist, who h schools. The places will be selected by of Columbia Univer-

WHEAT CROP. Veve Never Better in the of the C. P. R. which crop were Lood. In all 150 staall were sanguine in if rainfall has been with exception of a mee Albert. the thanager of the gensiderable of the disappointment in 1 11 My material loss I string and seeded minable crop of these

SKY INDICTED. ment of the Officers of Bedovi, " ! tersburg says: '10 commanded tio buttle of the Sea ors of the torpedor of for surrendering the battle. The inhing arraignment of and cowardice of the their conduct with of the torpedo boat practically the same divi. lengaged and speda boat.

officiers has been penalty is death. ITH HAT PIN.

vo Quarrelling Girls, injured.

Liders Rillge, near arstab, with a hat plarating two girls partisan (beling) ran The game was be-".e the girl support team attempted to from the adherents ils that Ralston red. It is not known Injury. Physicians

DUCES NAVY s Ordered Stricken Effectives.

Berlin says: Four iser. Deutschland, on der Groose, buit! foundation of the e been ordered to avy. In the course tileships, four cruit of effectives.

Love Came Too Late;

A MAN'S FALSE HEART.

side of known.

Side of the past of the pa

to father, and her cousin, "All is fair in leve and war, my beauthe was besel with a thoutous Corine" he cried, boisterously. the way her father had "Why, I would have walked over redhoofing the to old Dr Baxter's farm-hot plowshares to be with you. Notice had meticed the immates of Linday and meticed the immates of Linday and meticed the immates of Linday and meticed the immates of Linday.

simil herself in a srange room have fled. It would be a great sight to have leisure to listen. hand herse heading over her, witness their consternation. You shall a ment can better be imagined leave a note with these few words writcaled. Her last recollection len on it, Corine: her jewelry and a few necescles to flee with her lover, who d Alien's comments on the book into the clear blue of her eyes.

She was young and impressi the had best not read, for it a fairy world to sit there in the soft, "You are mistaken," he retorted, brief-it is do just as the beautiful heroine he that diffic her lover was watting wished—they should her at the end of the lane. The night.

I so seed to suddenly seel around the face of Alice to fade away, and her voice to grow indistinct.

Though have fainted," mused Corine diestion is, did the swoon last 'me here? And was I brought father was in terror over the the of it, and wished to place the Iv. Baxler's care? Or did > would give worlds to know. d. burying her face in her lit-ner know of another's presvoice close beside her whisname ever so sollly:

Liber own vivid imagination. So desperately fond "turned abruptly about, she cange figure standing close She was about to utter a of terror, when the mon is hand with a warning ges-feld her lover for whom she was pining ate with such a gusto and evident 12 tar foolish little heart away—handsome lish, because of her self-imposed fast audachous Gilbert Forrester, "Now that I have revealed myself to amused.

"But why are you here in disguse, many years, Gilbert?", asked Corine, wonderingly, so many years, Gilbert?", asked Corine, wonderingly, so many years, the beside her. "I am afraid you will have so endeared her the "You dear, little, impeent darling!" he yourself to us, my dear, by cried. A should, think your intuition time your father comes for you, that would tell you that, but I will answer we will give you up with much relucwould tell you that, but I will answer you tunce."

After question. It is to be near you tunce."

What If I do not go home with my work to make the man said. They have fried to part us. Corine but father when he comes for me?" said lights, 1,261.

"Tried to part us?" whispered Corine.

"Tried to part us?" whispered Corine.

"Tried to part us?" whispered Corine. turning pale at the thought of her relief; nay, even joy," declared

"Yes." he said: Yout before I tell you and unring the mean, even wome said; sewers, about it explain to me why you falled talked and laughed so gayly, Corine to me at the edge of the lane was thinking of her lover, and the roll was waiting, not one hour, but mantic way in which he had come to Best and Corine told him just what had occurred. How she had fainted Ithough she o'd not tell hint the cause of her swoonl. and not recovered consciousness until the next day, and, to her amazement, found-she had in the interim been taken from her home, and brought to her present abode, and how she had been weepwill come to your father or cousin for your sake."

Then Gilbert Forrester told her how lie had, by the merest chance, overheard the plot to carry her away that at Corine's side.

"I was sitting on the lower step of the he soliloquized, lifting her tenderly in verandah, ami they did not see me," he his arms. said smoothly. He knew it would never do to tell Corine that he had been guilty of such a despicable think as eavesdropping Le-hind the portices of the library.

"Forewarned is forcarmed, they say."
he added; 'and forlung usually fayors fond lovers. I made excuses to leave the next morning, and, knowing there would be the deuce and all to pay if I showed myself here in my true guise, corcluded that the best way, and Ly for the converest manner of outwilling

I came as a gardened, securing the posiin forme found herself alone tion of the man who left recently, know-Mag there will her face buried in the ing that we should have plenty of op-less, frequent grass, she gave way to portunity to talk unobserved in the the transitioning is a young breast grounds and arrange for the parrying that which you are not, Gilbert?" asked the girl, dublously aed, "and I will carry out our original an hour's work. Iden Hall.

Hed to found out her secret that she scheme—bring a carriage quite as soon as it is dusk. The good people of the her story, the gardener had turned abruptly away.

Let be be the hor board regular propring both bird whom they wake in the her story to get back to hurry to get back to

Then followed half an hour have a conveyance ready at the fool's paradise for Corine, for Gilbert wouldn't dare carry so bold a message words she heard, and they filled the birds saw how he kissed the sweet, when she does, you shall have no end Make a dressing of bread crumbs and a 1 just borrowed a top hat,—it was glad to the do just as the beautiful heroine unit he had won from them the conings, and carriaga rides, too, maybe," salt, pepper, and any preferred the sent that everything should be as be awakening. Some one was coming ler," she declared. down the path calling to the girl. hastily, and sprang behind a clump of

CHAPTER XVII.

"There is no understanding young ghis." thought the dear old lady, gaz-Corine my love!" ing at her charge from over the top of tarted to her feet with a low her spectacles, and she did not wonder, lalked so gayly that her companion assured herself that the girl was perfectly luppy; she was not grieving over a troken love affair, as her father had leared she would do.

Was she mad or dream obnoxious lover, whom the father had to the ware her senses playing her pictured to them was out of the way. It was the voice of her lover, but "There is nothing like removing a young man standing before her, with red girl from such threatened danger; for mustache, was not he, but a it would be better were she to die than blom she had never beheld full a victim to a fortune hunter." At breakfast time Corine had refused The true he imittered again. I am absolutely to eat a morsel, much to the grad to the heart's core that the eyes distress of the good old doctor and is the have not pierced through these beite; but when she entered the farm bouse with Mrs. Baxter when the lunch-tones with Mrs. Baxter when the lunch-tones with Mrs. Baxter when the lunch-toneon bell rang, they were pleased to see her ado ample justice to the appewealed before her, she be tizing viands set before her; indeed, she

of the morning that they were vastly you thy love; I must replace my dis- And the girl seemed in such excellent glier lest we be suprised by some spirits, too; she wes like a veritable supleam in the old house, that had not known the sound of girlish laughter in Baxter. All during the meal, even where I was waiting, not one hour but mantie way in which he not bear her away—as in which he was to bear her away—as in which he was to bear her away—as in which he was to bear her away—as young Lochinvar did his bride to eternal love and happiness forever more. But the course of true love was not destined to run smoothly for Corine at present; for, upon sauntering out upon the porch after luncheon, a most traordinary occurrence took place, She was just in time to behold a rabbit, chased by the household cat, leap from a close by thicket and make diing her very eyes out on account of II from a close by thicket and make unrectly for the spot where she stood.

Fale punished them very quickly for the spot where she stood.

With a cry of terror, Corine sprang to the side, she did not notice how near standing to the edge of the side, she had been standing to the edge of the stood of the sto the piazza and over she went, headlong, into a pile of stones that marked a flower bed some three feet below.

Dr. Baxler had witnessed the accident, Passengers carrier and ere the time it takes to tell it he was

"Is she hur?" cried his wife, hurrying "I hope not; but that is what I must Three high schools, 35 teachers, 1,400 determine later on." he replied. "I have seen lesser falls than that dislocate a neck, break limbs, and cause, in other instances, lameness for life, Examina-lion proved that Corine would not get off as ensity as he had hoped; she had-what has just occurred? She is the apple of all eye, and to know that she was suffering in any way would just about worry him to death."

"To avoid that we must not inform.

him," responded the doctor, very prompt-For him to know would not mend matters, nor be producive of the least good; and might cause harm; as he is at the very height of his illness just now, I am informed. Miss Corne is young and vigorous, and, with the care shall give her, I predict that she will be as good as new within a fortnight. Of course, all the servants heard of the accident in no time, and Madge, the maid, hastened to confide the story of the young lady's inishap to the new gardener, whom she found strolling through the meadow an hour later.

Something very like a curse was ground out between his white teeth. For the second time he found himself alked by fale when he was just about to stretch forth his hand and grasp the Barlow millions, and, incidentally, with them the lawyer's daughter, as he could not well procure them without wedding her.

"The doctor says that she will be as well as ever within two weeks," went on the girl. "That is, if she does not worshe came to and discovered what had cake plays an important role is made and hang over the open window. It and white heiresses have no serious as follows:—Prepare either a lemon or will serious or will serious the open window. It and white heiresses have no grit about them at all; you ought to have seen the when I hurt my wrist; I never lost thought that her heart nearly taken upon themselves to watch and lengings over here; you shall tell me adoring lover will all about it at another time, when I can all about it at another time, when I can

> "Will you say to the young lady that tion for the top, surrounding the whip you met fine in the grounds, and told me about her accident, and I said I desert.
>
> The second of the second "Neither bolts nor hars can keep my me about her accident, and I said I was awfully sorry, and wanted to know it I could do anything for how?" it I could do anything for her?"

and of the lane in exactly an hour's wood her with all the ardor he was to the little haughty heiress; why, she capable disholding her hands and look would be mortally offended, I can tell egg, I tablespoon prepared mustard, 3

The great trees hid them from the will tip me very liberally for obeying view of those in the house, and only her instructions, before she leaves; and

"I'll be back in an hour's time or so,

During the next half hour Corine against the doctor's orders that flow ers of any kind should be permitted in a sleeping-room overnight.

entering with the huge boquet, it flash-

FACTS ABOUT TORONTO.

Interesting Figures Regarding the Capi . tal City of Ontario. Population, 262,749. Number of wards, 6:

Area of the city, 181/2 miles. Tax rate, 181/2 mills on the dollar. Assessment-Land, $65,386,502; buildings, $75,745,400; income, $8,838,786; business, $19,224,628; total, $169,195,3 6. Tax revenue, $3,064,914. Total revenue, $4,471,971. Annual post office receipts, $1,050,913.

Number of building permits issued in 1905, 3,753. · Value of buildings erected in 1905, $10,347,910.

Transfers of property in 1905, 7,863. Average death rate, 17.46 per 1,000. Police stations, 7; policemen, $25. Fire stations, 17; signal boxes, 200; fremen, 208. 535,000; tickets in use, '56,000. Street) gas lamps, 964; electric arc

Theatres, 5; churches, 254; hotels, Improved streets, 190 miles; proved, 75 miles; total, 265 miles. , Sewers, 240 miles; water pipe, 275 miles; gas mains, 287 miles; sidewalks,

Best annual exhibition in the world area of grounds, 160 acres; length of grand stand, 700 feet; seating capacity, 12,000. One of the finest city halls on continent. Cost, $2,500,000; total floor space, 5.40 acres; tower, 360 feet high; largest winding clock on continent; bell weighex- ing 11,618 pounds. ing 1905 by 3,400 vessels, representing

Twenty-five public parks, containing

Miles of street railway track, 94.69. transfers in 1905, 23,625,752; receipts, $21747.324; city's share, $366,688. Public schools, 53; pupils, 35,000; teachers, 708. Separate pupils, 5,297; teachers, 105. Orle technical school, 1,200 pupils, 24 teachers

Miss Yerne-"Her complexion is just dislocated her arm, and her ankle was lovely, I wish I had it. Miss Sharpe slightly sprained as well.

"Well, you know, the advertisement with whipped cream.

an orange jelly, and while it is cooling comes through., hollow out the centre of a square sponge. Do not spoil the effect of dafford cake, leaving the bottom and sides thick tulips, narcissi, and other spring blos enough to hold the jelly. When the soms by arranging them in glass vases jelly is beginning to grow thick pour it. These flowers never show to in, and set the plate as near the ice better advantage, than in the as possible. When it is ready to be sent florists' windows, where they standard the standard transfer. to the table hile some whipped cream in in straight earthenware jars. Take a small pyramid over the top. Chopped the hint and provide the simplest of nuts or bits of candied fruit are an at- flower, jars, cylindrical in shape and tractive addition to the felly, and a few quiet in color. A great many potteries bright bits of candied fruit as a decora-

will tip me very liberally for obeying person. Two pounds, if cut of the right purposely waited some half an hour et. In court with some half an hour et. In around after us. Ah! here she comes der, and the flavor of the dressing, stretched hand, went in search of Corine, saying to her. in search of me now; she has missed which goes through the ment, gives a self that the best panacea for the girl's me, and it would never do for me to taste much like that of a stuffed fowl.

skim it carefully. Cut into dice 2 opname ever so softly:

Coping my love!"

Lapted to her feet with above the long of the stairs she had course, and she did not wonder as she looked at the lovely rosebud face framed in that mass of fuffy, orinkling framed in that mass of fuffy, orinkling for the stairs and she did not worked. In such an of the stairs she had encountered of the stairs she had the stairs she had encountered of the stairs she had encountered of the stairs she had the stairs she had the stairs she had the stairs she had the stairs at seemed to me, I found the tongue of my childhood again. But when the meat the tongue of my childhood again, but awkward be of my childhood again. But a stairs she had countered of the stairs she had the stairs she had the stairs she had to my childhood again. But a stair she had the stairs she had the stairs she had the stairs at seemed to me, I found the tongue of my childhood again. But a stair she had to me, I found the tongue of my childhood again. But a stair she had to me, I found the tongue of my childhood again. But a stair she had to me, I found the tongue of my ment should not be

and stir in a scant cup of sweet milk. ever his features and broadened there, season with pepper and salt and pow- All at once I knew him. dered sage; if liked, a little lemon juice

Veal or mullon may be used instead of Ham Toast, No. 1.-Cut slices of bread and fry the slices in smoking hot bulter been out since six o'clock." ly on the pieces of fried bread, sprinkle each and place in the oven. Whe have become a delicate brown all over remove at once and serve.

Ham Toast, No. 2.—Remove part of ther fine and season with salt, pepper, tir in two or three wellbeaten eg.

ed tart apples. Put a heapn of butter in a saucepe and when hot turn in the apples and they are a delicate brown. Now add sugar to taste and a little water (perhaps half a cup) and a grating nutmeg, if liked. Cover closely cover and let the water evaporate. Butand fry brown on a hot griddle. Cover each slice with apples and serve at width of ring was produced varying fram once. Fried potatoes or poached eggs .11 to .15 inch. If, on the other hand, makes a nice accompaniment. Tomatoes With Toast. - Rub three small rainfall in any given year, this sieve, removing all seeds and fibre. growth in the following year. (if liked), ground celery seed and sage. Now add one cup of beef or chicken half a cup of hot water. Add this to did !"

the tomato mixture, cook for five min-utes and serve hot with buttered toast.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS. When mixing flour and water try using a fork instead of a spoon, and see dy much quicker it can be done. Heat milk and butter before adding le mashed polatoes. Also have the cream or milk for coffee warm before taking to he table in cold weather.

A narrow strip of muslin pinned around a cake will prevent the leing from dripping down the sides, as it too often does. After the fcing hardens the muslin may be removed remaining jelly, which should be rapid-ly growing thick. When all is firm, of cloth together and sewing three loops at the top edge. Put three nails in the

are to be had in lovely greens, yellows

KING FREDERICK AT HOME.

An Insight Into the Home Life of th King of Denmark.

The new King of Denmark, Frederik which she had best not read, for it a fairy world to sit there in the soft, method for head with romantic non-mellow shadow of the blossoming apple tree and listen to such words of love, and the strong, film, masterful hands one face bent over her, benevely, and the strong, film, masterful hands of the strong as it did the strong, film, masterful hands of the strong and the clasped her own so tenderly; and the clasped her own so tenderly; and the cark, brilliant eyes gazing down into so," and he added, to throw the maid cut about half inch lick as for steak, writer in the Outlook, he was invited by the suppose of the property of the track: "I think she and cut it into pieces suitable for one with his wife to done at Charlottenlund with Frederik, then crown prince, and

"I'll be back in an hour's time or so, with tooth picks, making a little more cutside Copennagen, on the back in an hour's time or so, and then I will gather one for her; if lightly drawn together at the ends than shore road. We hardly knew we were that time, you are down in the rose garden at the middle. Place very closely together in one layer in a greased pan, the place grounds, and the door of the "I'd love to come, but at that hour using one which they will just fill carriage was yanked open by lackeys we have a pleased in an hour's time or so, with tooth picks, making a little more cutside Copennagen, on the place road. We hardly knew we were the mistly, and sprang behind a clump of that time, you can help me with it—"gether in one layer in a greased pan, the place grounds, and the door of the using one which they will just fill carriage was yanked open by lackeys."

Sprinkle with tooth picks, making a little more cutside Copennagen, on the place to the pick in the place to the pick in the pic we are always the busiest," said the Sprinkle with flour, sail and pepper and who swarmed to help the ladies. In we maid, reufully, "old Mrs. Baxter does place in a hot oven. When they begin went, and almost before we could draw It was ald Mrs. Baxter who was make not give us many idle hours until af- to sizzle pour in bolling water to come breath a door was thrown wide open, ing her way down the path. She had ten our work is done, and she can have up half way of the birds, and bake for our names were announced, and the

"It was very good of you to come out beaving her face in her literage for the girl's michands and sobbing free latting with you."

Since hands and sobbing free latting with you."

She was not a little surprised to find a strong that it is almost a meal in the latting with you."

The most solution in her literage free latting with you."

The most solution in her latting with you."

The most solution was leaving with you."

The most solution was leaving with you."

The most solution in her latting with you."

The most solution was leaving with you."

The most solution was leaving with you."

The most solution in her latting with you."

The most solution in her latting with you."

The most solution in her latting with you."

The was not a little surprised to find am well established in it, he returned, if self. Put 3 hs. meaty shin of heef in less following close upon us, and in he was in no mood to hear a maid's a boil, let simmer a few minutes, then away during the ride that the Danish skim it carefully. Cut into dice 2 on greeting left me for the moment, dumb, It was just at dusk that the maid ions, 2 carrots, 2 parsnips, 2 turnips, 1 groping my way four thousand miles brought the boquet to Corine, with the head of celery (remove the heart stalks across the sed. Slowly and laboriously hour or so, for it was strictly pepper. (Add seasoning with the vegeainst the doctor's orders that flowtof any kind should be permitted in sleeping-room overnight.

Sleeping-room overnight. Half an hour-later remove the soup tion, and we all laughed together. The for comparison, the milk yields, before Quite as soon as Corine saw Madge kellle from the fire; blind slightly with a rext moment the room was filled with an after beginning the feeding of the sheep and colts can be turned out a ntering with the huge boquet, it flash-tablespoons each of flour and butter their children, and we were introduced the way to their children, and we were introduced the way to the country of t

They say that Erederik pever forgets eaten, as all the next met, in Ribe, my old lown on the soup meat with the polatoes as a second-restored after the wear and decay of nine centuries. I was coming out of our hole at seven in the morning, and in the square ran plumb into a gentleman in a military cloak, who had a young min for company, and a girl of fifteen or

"Good morning. Mr. Riis!" said he. "I grind it, through a meat chapper. Put a hope you are well, and your wife, since spoonful or two of butter into a sauce last we met." It surely must be that I am gelling ing teaspoon of minced onion for each old and foolish. The voice I knew, there cup of chopped meat. Now add a fea-spoon of flour, blend with the buter, stood and looked at him. A smile great

"But good gracious, your royal highor vinegar may be added. Simmer for ness." I said, "who would expect to find ten minutes and pour over the toast, you here before any one is up and stirring? You are really yourself to He laughed. "We are early risers

A FINE GUNNER.

Britisher Establishes a New Record in the Navy. Bombardier Edwin J. Nichol. Royal Marine Artillery, son of Mr. Edwin Nichol, fown postman at Worthing, a little grated cheese over the top of England, has become the champion shot they in the British navy. During the recent gun-laying tests on H.M.S. Hindustan; off the Portuguese coast, he made the most remarkable score of ten hits with the fat from cold boiled ham; chop raten rounds in two minutes with a 9.2 mace, and onion juice. Pull a spoonful ance was one of seven hits in two and or two of butter in a saucepan, add the a half minutes with nine rounds. B.L. gun. The previous best performninced meat and half a cup of sweet Admiral Percy Scott, who was on board milk for every sup of meat. When the Hindustan at the time, heartily conpoiled up well, remove gratulated Nichol on the fine perform ance, by which he not only became Pour over slices of crisp champion shot in the navy, but has established a "record" for the whole world.

> RAINFALL AND TREE GROWTH. which shows how closely the growth of until the day he is sold, would often tush at the side of the road." trees is dependent upon rainfall. Not make a record that would add to the only was this seen in the case of one and popularity of the dairy grade, and liketwo-year-old trees, but in an investigation extending over a period of twelve years, during which time the annual rings of growth were carefully examined. With an annual precipitation of from thirty to thirty-five inches a there was either an unusually large or

Mr. Misfit (savagely): "Before I mar-

SUNLIGHT

Wash oilcloths and linoleums with Sunlight Soap, rinse clean and wipe dry. The colors will be preserved and the surface unharmed

Common soaps fade the colors and injure the surface. Sunlight Soap cleans, freshens and preserves oilcloths and linoleums. Sunlight Soap washes clothes white without injury to the most delicate fabrics, or to the hands, for it contains nothing that can injure either clothes or hards. Sunlight Soap is better than other soaps, but is bes when used in the Sunligh way (follow directions). Equally good with hard or soft water. LEVER BROTHERS LIMITED, Toron

The Farm

*********** EARLIEST CROP FOR FEEDING. Among dairymen who soil instead of finix lime and fertilizer together before for feed earlier in the spring than any the comminding of soil in the act of other crop which farmers have been drilling being ample safeguard against able to grow on all classes of soils, and deterioration by action of the time, partially to a misconception of its actual value as a feed for dairy cows, effect is to fix and prevent dissipation of There is a belief, which might also be the ammoniacal qualities of the feptilicalled a superstition, among many zer. dairyman, that any fresh, green feed! Sow two seeds of clover, one on one commonly given to stock is more valu- plot, the other on another. As the clo-

most universally adopted as a profitable gen, but must use the stored mirate of forage crop. Only a few tests of its feed. the soil. ing value, compared with other representative feds, have been made. has been used as a solling crop at the Maryland experiment station every year since the stallon was started, but only comparatively recently has a good op-portunity for testing its feeding value

Recently, however, the herd was fed ting rye, and us this offered a chance, rubbed to a paste. It is understood that all round. It was all quite as neight parality results are necessarily given in as possible be kept up to their full flow soup is correctly made when allowed to borly and informal as if it had been at three divisions, as the cows prior to the finalk. ceding of the rye had been used in other leeding tests. If rye were a feed superior to silage, it should certainly show the fact in an must have a knowledge of the ways of increased milk yield, especially when the grain ration is kept up to the amount fed while the cows receive siluge. But instead of the expected increuse, there was a sudden and decided decrease in the milk flow.

The only possible explanation is, that the rye was so much less valuable than much more profitable to provide silage enough to carry up to a time when bettor feed than rye could be obtained.

PLEA FOR BETTER HERDS. which in my opinion is equally appli-cuble to all the dairy breeds, writes Prof. H. E. Van Norman. I believe that milk record; with a composite ful test, for at least six milkings each month. pounds or more of fat in a year.

tered stock, the call of such a caw sold wise the demand for sires from that breed:

feeders.

The idea of owning or breeding fancy their cows that would be a big step in advance of those in the home yerd, thus If created a demand for pure bred sires from the beef breeds

Land uncovered of crops up until the into good fifth with a disk, may be proitably planted to sugar corn, tiungarier grass, cow peas, say beans or rape. Under no circumstances would we is utilizing a part of the great ocean of This belief has made the earliest post nitrogen which flows over it. The other sible green crop for spring feeding na- clover plant without these nodules canturally welcome and rye has been al. not utilize this great gift, of free nitro-

LIVE, STOCK NOTES. The hard working animal should to time. We would the to have the cons on corn silege up to the time for cut- keep up d good appetite for there en-

> To raise driving houses running one must be a Lorn Jenseman, and different horses or brigids. Alogest any one can raise draught horses of he true to, for they are not so nervous and de I not require the special care that other lishman who is at present serving i.is country in northern Nigeria: "I had just-topped a long incline and was walking my pony, when, on com-ing around a corner of the read, ladden by some trees, I saw, seventy yards in A report of a year's production of fat front of me, basking in the sun on an and milk by a Jersey herd prompts the open patch of burned grass, a magninot strong, and he was very lazity de l.

> > LAZY, PEACEABLE LION.

Young Englishman's Unexpected Meet ing With the King of Beasts.

ink his tail from side to side. He had a short mane, and his eyes were a breeders who are able to give a year's levely amber red in the weak sunlight. "My first sensation was one of tonishment, profound a unicement and a for at least six minings each health delight at seeing such a since are in a position to sell their (bull was a beauty, and it seemed impossible calves at a price that will pay to raise was a beauty, and it seemed impossible calves at a price that will pay to raise that he was really wild as he with his lay on his side, looking at the with his Breeders should seek to get bull bend raised as a dog does when he hears his, master's footstep. He was fat as butter, sleek coated and glossy. "My pony, as the breeze was coming from the other direction, did not wind was walking on in front, about ten

HIS LUCID ANSWER.

One day as Pat halted at the top of the river bank, a man famous for his. inquisitive mind stopped and asked:

"From tin to fifteen sor you. How much water at this rate have his thumb backward towards the river,

"How shall we ever let her father know write direct to the manufacturer." "Dear, dear" exclaimed Mrs. Baxter.

The Home ************

Ginger Cookies.-One cup of molasses, one egg, one-half cup of brown sugar, one-half cup of butter, one teuspoonful of soda, one tublespoon ginger; flour to to the appearance of the cake. A jellied sponge cake makes an at when baked, first grease tims, then figure tractive looking dessert and is nice for them, lightly beating out all loose flour, a change. Bake a shallow sponge cake leaving only what clings to the grease. of pretty shape and prepare two or three thus doing away with the old form of pints of orange jelly. Into a flat-bot-lining with paper. pints of orange jelly. Into a flat-bot-tomed mould put about a quarier of the jelly, and when it is almost firm place keep the cellar closed during the heal he cake, freed from any hard crusts or of the day and open during the night. ragged edges upon it. Cover with the A curtain can be made to cover a cellar

Fish Salad.—Take cold fish of any kind, remove all'skin, bones, etc., and 'I separate the meat into small pieces. tablespoons Vinegor, 1 tablespoon butter, salt and pepper to taste. Put over:

intil he had won from them the conjugate rides, too, maybe." salt, pepper, and any preferred herbs, salt, pepper, and any preferred her

"She is so lovable and charming, is should not like to see harm come to had time to deliver to her the message which she understood perfectly.

"She is so lovable and charming, is should not like to see harm come to had time to deliver to her the message steadily simmer, not boil, if it is desired which she understood perfectly.

They would not like to see harm come to had time to deliver to her the message which she understood perfectly.

To be Continued.)

They would not like to see harm come to had time to deliver to her the message which she understood perfectly.

They would not like to see harm come to had time to deliver to her the message which she understood perfectly.

They would not like to see harm come to had time to deliver to her the message which she understood perfectly.

They would not like to see harm come to had time to deliver to her the message which she understood perfectly.

They would not like to see harm come to had time to deliver to her the message which she understood perfectly. soup is correctly made when allowed to borly and informal as if it had been at meat. When this is correctly done, the anything. I had proof of this when we nutritious; part has been extracted. North Sea, where he had come with the Consequently the custom of serving the royal household to open the Domkirke.

> course is inadvisable WAYS WITH PAST. a militar for com or roast beef fine with a sharp knife or; pan and let brown a little. A'dd a heap-half an inch thick; trim off the crusts or drippings, being careful not to burn. Grind some cold boiled ham through a meat chopper. The meat should be all lean or nearly so. Season with pepper leither cayenne or black), ground celery seed and powdered sage. Add a little salt if needed and moisten the ment with a little sweet crown. Spread thick

1.-Pare and slice five or ing tensp. water and cook, till tender; remove

e hot.

toast and

ried you, was there any doddering idiot broth. Rub a tablespoon of butter and gone on you?" Mrs. Missit: "There was two of flour together, moisten with a one." Mr. Missit: "I wish to goodness few spoonfuls of sweet cream and add you'd married him?" Mrs. Missit:

able for milk production than any of ver plants from one gets practically all the winter feeds. This belief is undoubtedly a relic of the time when cows, from the soil. The one has upon its received a decidedly unbalanced ration roots little nodules, little bulbs, little for dry feeds, and from this feel were warts in which there live minute plants jurged in the spring on a good pasture; with the unique ability of decimal week. turned in the spring on a good pasture, with the unique ability of decing spon which is the best of all feed and a nearly the nitrogen of the air and converting balanced ration. The results were so it into forms which can serve as food problems. pronounced that the conclusion was for plants. Wherever these nodules are naturally drawn that any green forage present you may be sure that the plant crop was better than all dry feeds.

life siluge as a dalay food that it was largely responsible for the loss in mills. This, is eniphasized by the fact that out of the 20 cows whose records were kept. 18 fell off in their milk, and the other two made very little gain. It seems that the value of green rye has been much stood and looked at him. A smile crept over-estimated and that it would be my children and L" he said. We have expression of opinion, given below;

calves from such cows as there, in the hands of dairymen who are keeping grade or scrub cows, and by making the price as low as will give a small profit over and above actual cost of turns and well as pricking up his ear's. My dog the use of pure bred dairy sires on common cows, by the dairyman who it was not until I was not un looks only at the dollars and cares not thing for the color or breed of his cows.

thing for the color or breed of his cows.

that I realized that if the lion took it that I realized that if the lion took it that I realized that if the lion took it that I realized that if the lion took it that I realized that if the lion took it that I realized that it the lion took it that I realized that it the lion took it that I realized that it the lion took it that I realized that it the lion took it that I realized that it the lion took it that I realized that it the lion took it that I realized that it the lion took it that I realized that it the lion took it that I realized that it the lion took it that I realized that it the lion took it that I realized that I re There are a great many good cows into his head to fancy a bit of white whose yearly production amounts to men I should be unable to dispute his. 275 pounds of fat, yet their breeding is right, not such as to command the interest of, "Af or high price from a breeder of regis

Notwithstanding the great interest of the breeders, feeders and general purpose farmers, in the magnificent, exhibit of breeding animals of the several beef brands, at the International stock show held in Chicago each fall, it has been well said that it is the exhibit of cups of canned tomatoes through a fine was followed by a corresponding tree rested the attention of the mass of "car load lots," of grades that has ar-animals; comes only as an unattain- you hauled in all, sir?" able dream for men in their circumtances. But when these same men crowd the open pens and see car loads and replied: it occurs to them that they might own now, sor pasture their herd, rye is perhaps the applying to the soil. The risk would be best known and most popular of the too great of less of ammonia. Should early crops grown for this purpose, and length of time chapse before using writes Prof. C. F. Doane. U. S. Dept. of Either drilled chaptered, no smaller how closely in time each ifollowed tig. tially, to the fact that it is large enough office in applying, would be all right, for feed enclosing the chapter than comminding of sail in the net of tite of many animals becomes less when bile in the pastures. Young cattle, ing; tearing beast of legendary de scription may be seen in the following

"After I had proceeded some 150 yard's the lion got up lefsurely and followed A report has recently been published for $5 above the cost of raising him ing about 100 yards, he turned into the

"How long have you hauled water for the village, my good man?". "Ah! How many loads do you take

The driver of the watering-cart jerked