FLESHERTON HAPPENINGS

the east back line, a pretty wedding took place on Tuesday evening of last week when Miss Nellie M. Hopps, eldest daughter of the late Mr. John Hopps, was married to Mr. William Phillips, of Osprey, eldest son of the late Mr. Silas Phillips. Rev. L. W. Thom, of this place, performed the ceremony which took place beneath a prettily decorated arch of evergreens and was witnessed by over thirty guests. Mrs. Thom played the Wedding March. The handsome bride, who was given away by her grandfather, Mr. Thomas Clark, was prettily attired in a navy blue cloth skirt and white silk waist. She carried a bouquet of white roses. Miss Mary Cation, of Brampton, was bridesmaid. She also wore navy blue cloth skirt and white silk waist and carried pink koses. The groom's cousin, Mr. Oscar Phillips, of this place, was best man. After the ceremony a dainty wedding supper was served. During the evening an event of interest was the baptism administered to the bride's little niece, Gladys Clark; and it is interesting to note that in the same house at the marriage of the bride's mother, the groom on this occasion was then: baptized. A large number of beautiful wedding presents were bestowed upon the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Phillips were accompanied to Flesherton station and left on the 9:30 train for Owen Sound, After a lake trip to Manitowaning and other points they will settle in their new home near Maxwell, We wish them much happiness and prosperity. While beating a carpet one day last week, a stick wielded by Mr. W. A. Edward Ross, switchman at Toronto Junction, slipped and had one foot run over by an engine on Thursday last. He was removed to the hospital and the injured limb amputated a few inches below the knee. Mr. Ross, who is 22 years of age, is the son of Mr. Wm. Ross, of Toronto Junction, formerly of this place. His friends here are sorry to hear of his great misfortune.

We regret to learn of the sore be reavement which befell Mr. Will Ludlow, of Port Huron, on Monday of last week by the death of his young wife. Two little ones are left to miss a mother's care. Mr. Ludlow, who is the second son of Mr. and Mrs. James Ludlow, formerly of this place, has numerous friends here who sincerely sympathize with him in his sorrow. Only seventeen months ago the bereft husband's brother, J. L., lost his young wife, who also left two little children.

Communion service was held in the Presbyterian Church on Sabbath when the pastor was assisted by Rev. W. -Russell, evangelist, who is assisting Mr. Thom in special services at Proton Station.
