FLESHERTON HAPPENINGS

(By our own Correspondent.)

The Globe of Thursday last contained the following interesting wedding news: "In the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elizabeth Vanzant, 85 Sumner street, at half past two yesterday afternoon, the marriage of their youngest daughter, Miss Rita Irene Vanzant to Mr. Edward W. Holmes, of Toronto, was celebrated. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Redditt, Mr. Vanzant giving his daughter away. Miss Gertrude Vanzant, sister of the bride, attended as bridesmaid and Mr. Theodorus acted as groomsmen. Mr. and Mrs. Holmes left on the evening train for a trip through the eastern States and lower Canada. The young bride formerly resided here and we join her numerous friends in wishing her a happy life.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Magee, 8th con. Artemesia, was the scene of a quiet wedding on Wednesday afternoon of last week, when their eldest daughter, Emma, was married to Mr. Robert H. Redditt, of Toronto. Rev. J. B. Wass, M. A., of this place, performed the ceremony, only the immediate relatives and friends of the bride and groom being present. The bride was prettily attired in a pale blue cloth with silk blouse of same shade, trimmed with oriental and silver lace. The bridesmaid, Miss Ida Magee, sister of the bride, wore a skirt of grey and cream, blouse trimmed with silver lace. Mr. W. Russell was groomsmen. After a dainty wedding breakfast, Mr. and Mrs. Redditt left on the afternoon train to visit their friends and other points, after which they will return to their new home. The bride was the recipient of numerous wedding gifts, among them being a gold bracelet from the groom, whose gift to the bridesmaid was a pearl brooch and to the bridesmaid a tie pin.

The street row in Markdale, referred to in the Standard last week resulted in the following charges laid before Mr. A. S. Van Dusen, J.P., here, who disposed of them as follows: E. Berry vs. Penelton, assault, pleaded guilty, fined $1.00, costs $3.45; E. Berry vs. C. Banaley, assault, pleaded guilty, fined $2.00, costs $3.45; I. W. McArdle vs. B. Penelton, assault, pleaded guilty, fined $1.00, costs $3.75; I. W. McArdle vs. Penelton, profane language, pleaded guilty, fined $2.00, costs $3.75; McArdle vs. G. Banaley, assault, postponed till Saturday next.

Company arrived home in good form from Niagara on Saturday and report a very successful drill on the old historic grounds.

Mr. R. Trimble disposed of some of his household effects and other goods at an auction sale on Saturday, conducted by R. J. Sproule.

The lodges of Artemesia District L.O.L. will, with the exception of one or two, celebrate the 12th at Dundalk. We were reminded of the event with some stirring fife and drum music on the street on Monday evening.

Mr. Ed. Hutchinson, tailor, has removed to the shop recently vacated by Mr. Alexander.

A memorial service for the late Mrs. Wm. Smith was held in the Methodist church on Sunday afternoon, July 2nd, at 2 o'clock. An appropriate sermon was preached from Numbers 23: 10, "Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his." In the Presbyterian church Rev. Jas. Buchanan, of Dundalk, who exchanged with the pastor, preached an excellent sermon specially to the Sunday School, which occupied the entire service. The same church will celebrate its anniversary next Sabbath and the usual festival will be held on Monday evening.

Work is going on rapidly on the new hotel the foundation of which the masons expect to finish this week. The building has been let to Wright & McDonald, of this place, who are pushing forward the work of the Mitchell block.

The Temperance Division met on Wednesday evening last. The annual picnic which was to be held at Dunca's Lake on the 22nd has been postponed for a couple of weeks. It being cancelled, the following officers were elected: W. P. — Mae Douglas, W. A. — Ethel Waring, R. S. — Lundy Johnston, A. R. — E. C. Boland, F. W. — J. E. James, Treas. — Ida Holley, Chap. — Howard Graham, Con. — Charlie Boland, A. C. — Minnie Thompson, P. S. — Letitia Waring, O. S. — Cardwell Graham, Organist — W. L. Cullis.

For the good of the order there were speeches by Bros. R. Holley and L. Johnston of the trip to Niagara, which was very interesting. The next meeting will be on the 6th of July, when the above officers will be installed.

Eugenia

Fine growing weather. Prospects good for the west.

Mr. R. Purvis of Toronto paid a short visit to his friends at Eugenia recently.

Our brave volunteers returned home from camp at Niagara on Saturday evening. From this place went Henry Tudor, John Campbell, Art Walker, Wesley Armstrong, and Fred Graham.

Every one deeply regrets the serious illness of Miss Lily Graham, who recently returned from California. Her terrible experience during the earthquake and fire gave her nervous system a shock that since her return she has been very ill.

Another of our most popular young bachelors has joined the ranks of the benighted. Mr. Robert Gorley and Miss Emma Magee were united in matrimony on Wednesday last by the Rev. Mr. Buchanan, of Dundalk, the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Magee, of Salem. A large circle of friends witnessed the interesting event. After congratulations to the happy pair, all retired to the dining room where a beautiful and stable spread, which all did ample justice to, presented to the bride showed the high esteem in which she was held, they being both numerous and costly. The young couple took the evening train for Toronto and on their way to spend a couple of weeks. After their return they will reside on the valley farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruthven of Alliston are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hogg's of "Fern Villa," at present.

Rev. Mr. Buchanan of Dundalk preached the customary sermon in the Presbyterian Church on Sunday morning and evening. A large congregation was present. Mr. Thom took Mr. Buchanan's words to Dundalk. Henry Williams is building a fine barn at present.

Mr. John Dreyfuss has had erected a model log pen. Mr. John Walker of Creemore is the architect.

Mr. Duggett is putting up a summer kitchen to his already commodious house in Pleasant Valley.
