

indas
dale.

Markdale Standard.

VOL. XXVII.—WHOLE NO. 1380.

MARKDALE, ONTARIO, THURSDAY, MARCH 21, 1907.

$100 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS

For Sale—A good organ. Apply at our office.

Good Organ for sale. Apply R. W. Evans, Markdale.

Hanover has nine churches and nearly half that many pipe organs.

Maple sugar and syrup making all out a thing of the past in this district.

Now is the time to leave your order with Harry Hedley for sap buckets, and avoid the rush.

For Sale—House and lot with stable on George street, Markdale. J. J. Gibson on the premises.

Latest Spring Styles in millinery at Miss S. De Le Re's, Walters Falls. Butter and Eggs taken as cash.

For Sale—One ladies bicycle, to be sold on cheap terms. Apply to nest McNabb, "The Oaks," Vaudreuil.

The evening train on Tuesday was delayed about three hours near Elora, owing to a breakdown on the engine.

For Sale—A good house and on Victoria Ave., with eight rooms and a good woodshed in connection. Inquire at this office.

Wanted—A man with good tools, as soon as spring opens up, apply at once to Hugh Baird, Peter Mills, Markdale.

Lost—A grey robe, supposed to have been Fletcher and Markdale. It is long and wide, with two corners. I would like to know or hear from one Mrs. C. A. Moore, who not long ago lived near Markdale. Write to above address or call on Markdale Postmaster.

For Sale—A limited number of packages of newspapers, about 30 in a package, at five cents a bundle. This office. Just the thing to put under a chair now at housecleaning time. They also make capital fire kindlers.

Timothy Seeds. All sizes. Standard at Turner's Drug store.

Mrs. Brady moved this week from farm on the 11th of Euphrasia and resided in the house recently built from Mrs. Shore on Friday.

We regret to learn that Mr. George Pilkey was taken ill with grippe two weeks ago while on a visit to his daughter, Mrs. Syme, in the suburbs, and is still in a critical condition. His daughter, Mrs. Montgomery, of Toronto, is here waiting on him.

The following good advice to pedestrians is quite appropriate at this season of the year, considering the present slippery condition of our sidewalks:

Vandale correspondence arrived too late for this week.

Two apprentices wanted to learn the millinery business. Mrs. K. Sprout.

Great bargain in a cook stove, coal or wood; will be sold cheap. H. Hedley, Markdale.

Vegetable, flower and field seeds.

Fresh, reliable and true to name at Turner's Drug Store.

STANDARD correspondents and would-be correspondents will please omit making a note of Sunday visiting.

Mr. W. W. Brown is in town to-day (Wednesday).

Mr. Johnston Lucas, of Arthur, is in town this week.

Mr. John M. Mercer is home on furlough for a brief stay.

Mr. Wm. Knox, of Dundalk, has joined McFarland &amp; Co.'s staff.

Mrs. F. Maher, of the Riviere House, visited in Owen Sound last week.

Mr. D. J. Henry and Miss Ursula visited Priceville friends last week.

Mr. Frank Maher was to Wartout last week harvesting ice for his fishing preserve.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart, of Owen Sound, visited their daughter, Miss M. Stewart, of McFarland &amp; Co.'s last Friday.

Just to hand at Turner's, a very superior line of pipes—the best seen in town for some time. It will pay you to inspect them. Prices range from $10 up.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Benson, late of Shelburne, were in town last Friday.

They purpose making their home in Owen Sound this summer.

Mr. W. J. Shortill is this week attending the A. O. U. W. Grand Lodge meeting in Toronto as representative of Markdale Lodge No. 141.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Armstrong left on Friday last for Strongfield, Sask. Mr. Armstrong shipped a car of settlers effects the previous day.

Mr. G. W. Armstrong left for Strongfield, Sask., on Wednesday on a hurried cruising trip and will be absent for some time.

Mr. A. accompanied him as far as Toronto where she will visit for a time.

Mrs. Peter Smith, of Harkaway, returned home Saturday before last from Brampton where she had gone to see her brother, Mr. T. A. Wilson, who was ill, and died the 1st March.

Deceased was highly respected. He had a stroke of paralysis eight months ago which finally took him off.

Mrs. Peter Smith, of Harkaway, returned home Saturday before last from Brampton where she had gone to see her brother, Mr. T. A. Wilson, who was ill, and died the 1st March.

Deceased was highly respected. He had a stroke of paralysis eight months ago which finally took him off.

Mrs. Peter Smith, of Harkaway, returned home Saturday before last from Brampton where she had gone to see her brother, Mr. T. A. Wilson, who was ill, and died the 1st March.

Deceased was highly respected. He had a stroke of paralysis eight months ago which finally took him off.

Mrs. Peter Smith, of Harkaway, returned home Saturday before last from Brampton where she had gone to see her brother, Mr. T. A. Wilson, who was ill, and died the 1st March.

Deceased was highly respected. He had a stroke of paralysis eight months ago which finally took him off.

Mrs. Peter Smith, of Harkaway, returned home Saturday before last from Brampton where she had gone to see her brother, Mr. T. A. Wilson, who was ill, and died the 1st March.

Deceased was highly respected. He had a stroke of paralysis eight months ago which finally took him off.

Mrs. Peter Smith, of Harkaway, returned home Saturday before last from Brampton where she had gone to see her brother, Mr. T. A. Wilson, who was ill, and died the 1st March.

Deceased was highly respected. He had a stroke of paralysis eight months ago which finally took him off.

Mrs. Peter Smith, of Harkaway, returned home Saturday before last from Brampton where she had gone to see her brother, Mr. T. A. Wilson, who was ill, and died the 1st March.

Deceased was highly respected. He had a stroke of paralysis eight months ago which finally took him off.

Mrs. Peter Smith, of Harkaway, returned home Saturday before last from Brampton where she had gone to see her brother, Mr. T. A. Wilson, who was ill, and died the 1st March.

Deceased was highly respected. He had a stroke of paralysis eight months ago which finally took him off.

Mrs. Peter Smith, of Harkaway, returned home Saturday before last from Brampton where she had gone to see her brother, Mr. T. A. Wilson, who was ill, and died the 1st March.

Deceased was highly respected. He had a stroke of paralysis eight months ago which finally took him off.

Mrs. Peter Smith, of Harkaway, returned home Saturday before last from Brampton where she had gone to see her brother, Mr. T. A. Wilson, who was ill, and died the 1st March.

Deceased was highly respected. He had a stroke of paralysis eight months ago which finally took him off.

Mrs. Peter Smith, of Harkaway, returned home Saturday before last from Brampton where she had gone to see her brother, Mr. T. A. Wilson, who was ill, and died the 1st March.

Deceased was highly respected. He had a stroke of paralysis eight months ago which finally took him off.

Mrs. Peter Smith, of Harkaway, returned home Saturday before last from Brampton where she had gone to see her brother, Mr. T. A. Wilson, who was ill, and died the 1st March.

Deceased was highly respected. He had a stroke of paralysis eight months ago which finally took him off.

Mrs. Peter Smith, of Harkaway, returned home Saturday before last from Brampton where she had gone to see her brother, Mr. T. A. Wilson, who was ill, and died the 1st March.

Deceased was highly respected. He had a stroke of paralysis eight months ago which finally took him off.

Mrs. Peter Smith, of Harkaway, returned home Saturday before last from Brampton where she had gone to see her brother, Mr. T. A. Wilson, who was ill, and died the 1st March.

Deceased was highly respected. He had a stroke of paralysis eight months ago which finally took him off.

Mrs. Peter Smith, of Harkaway, returned home Saturday before last from Brampton where she had gone to see her brother, Mr. T. A. Wilson, who was ill, and died the 1st March.

Deceased was highly respected. He had a stroke of paralysis eight months ago which finally took him off.

Mrs. Peter Smith, of Harkaway, returned home Saturday before last from Brampton where she had gone to see her brother, Mr. T. A. Wilson, who was ill, and died the 1st March.

Deceased was highly respected. He had a stroke of paralysis eight months ago which finally took him off.

Mrs. Peter Smith, of Harkaway, returned home Saturday before last from Brampton where she had gone to see her brother, Mr. T. A. Wilson, who was ill, and died the 1st March.

Deceased was highly respected. He had a stroke of paralysis eight months ago which finally took him off.

Mrs. Peter Smith, of Harkaway, returned home Saturday before last from Brampton where she had gone to see her brother, Mr. T. A. Wilson, who was ill, and died the 1st March.

Deceased was highly respected. He had a stroke of paralysis eight months ago which finally took him off.

Mrs. Peter Smith, of Harkaway, returned home Saturday before last from Brampton where she had gone to see her brother, Mr. T. A. Wilson, who was ill, and died the 1st March.

Deceased was highly respected. He had a stroke of paralysis eight months ago which finally took him off.

Mrs. Peter Smith, of Harkaway, returned home Saturday before last from Brampton where she had gone to see her brother, Mr. T. A. Wilson, who was ill, and died the 1st March.

Deceased was highly respected. He had a stroke of paralysis eight months ago which finally took him off.

Mrs. Peter Smith, of Harkaway, returned home Saturday before last from Brampton where she had gone to see her brother, Mr. T. A. Wilson, who was ill, and died the 1st March.

Deceased was highly respected. He had a stroke of paralysis eight months ago which finally took him off.

Mrs. Peter Smith, of Harkaway, returned home Saturday before last from Brampton where she had gone to see her brother, Mr. T. A. Wilson, who was ill, and died the 1st March.

Deceased was highly respected. He had a stroke of paralysis eight months ago which finally took him off.

Mrs. Peter Smith, of Harkaway, returned home Saturday before last from Brampton where she had gone to see her brother, Mr. T. A. Wilson, who was ill, and died the 1st March.

Deceased was highly respected. He had a stroke of paralysis eight months ago which finally took him off.

Mrs. Peter Smith, of Harkaway, returned home Saturday before last from Brampton where she had gone to see her brother, Mr. T. A. Wilson, who was ill, and died the 1st March.

Deceased was highly respected. He had a stroke of paralysis eight months ago which finally took him off.

Mrs. Peter Smith, of Harkaway, returned home Saturday before last from Brampton where she had gone to see her brother, Mr. T. A. Wilson, who was ill, and died the 1st March.

Deceased was highly respected. He had a stroke of paralysis eight months ago which finally took him off.

Mrs. Peter Smith, of Harkaway, returned home Saturday before last from Brampton where she had gone to see her brother, Mr. T. A. Wilson, who was ill, and died the 1st March.

Deceased was highly respected. He had a stroke of paralysis eight months ago which finally took him off.

Mrs. Peter Smith, of Harkaway, returned home Saturday before last from Brampton where she had gone to see her brother, Mr. T. A. Wilson, who was ill, and died the 1st March.

Deceased was highly respected. He had a stroke of paralysis eight months ago which finally took him off.

Mrs. Peter Smith, of Harkaway, returned home Saturday before last from Brampton where she had gone to see her brother, Mr. T. A. Wilson, who was ill, and died the 1st March.

Deceased was highly respected. He had a stroke of paralysis eight months ago which finally took him off.

Mrs. Peter Smith, of Harkaway, returned home Saturday before last from Brampton where she had gone to see her brother, Mr. T. A. Wilson, who was ill, and died the 1st March.

Deceased was highly respected. He had a stroke of paralysis eight months ago which finally took him off.

Mrs. Peter Smith, of Harkaway, returned home Saturday before last from Brampton where she had gone to see her brother, Mr. T. A. Wilson, who was ill, and died the 1st March.

Deceased was highly respected. He had a stroke of paralysis eight months ago which finally took him off.

Mrs. Peter Smith, of Harkaway, returned home Saturday before last from Brampton where she had gone to see her brother, Mr. T. A. Wilson, who was ill, and died the 1st March.

Deceased was highly respected. He had a stroke of paralysis eight months ago which finally took him off.

Mrs. Peter Smith, of Harkaway, returned home Saturday before last from Brampton where she had gone to see her brother, Mr. T. A. Wilson, who was ill, and died the 1st March.

Deceased was highly respected. He had a stroke of paralysis eight months ago which finally took him off.

Mrs. Peter Smith, of Harkaway, returned home Saturday before last from Brampton where she had gone to see her brother, Mr. T. A. Wilson, who was ill, and died the 1st March.

Deceased was highly respected. He had a stroke of paralysis eight months ago which finally took him off.

Mrs. Peter Smith, of Harkaway, returned home Saturday before last from Brampton where she had gone to see her brother, Mr. T. A. Wilson, who was ill, and died the 1st March.

Deceased was highly respected. He had a stroke of paralysis eight months ago which finally took him off.

Mrs. Peter Smith, of Harkaway, returned home Saturday before last from Brampton where she had gone to see her brother, Mr. T. A. Wilson, who was ill, and died the 1st March.

Deceased was highly respected. He had a stroke of paralysis eight months ago which finally took him off.

Mrs. Peter Smith, of Harkaway, returned home Saturday before last from Brampton where she had gone to see her brother, Mr. T. A. Wilson, who was ill, and died the 1st March.

Deceased was highly respected. He had a stroke of paralysis eight months ago which finally took him off.

Mrs. Peter Smith, of Harkaway, returned home Saturday before last from Brampton where she had gone to see her brother, Mr. T. A. Wilson, who was ill, and died the 1st March.

Deceased was highly respected. He had a stroke of paralysis eight months ago which finally took him off.

Mrs. Peter Smith, of Harkaway, returned home Saturday before last from Brampton where she had gone to see her brother, Mr. T. A. Wilson, who was ill, and died the 1st March.

Deceased was highly respected. He had a stroke of paralysis eight months ago which finally took him off.

Mrs. Peter Smith, of Harkaway, returned home Saturday before last from Brampton where she had gone to see her brother, Mr. T. A. Wilson, who was ill, and died the 1st March.

Deceased was highly respected. He had a stroke of paralysis eight months ago which finally took him off.

Mrs. Peter Smith, of Harkaway, returned home Saturday before last from Brampton where she had gone to see her brother, Mr. T. A. Wilson, who was ill, and died the 1st March.

Deceased was highly respected. He had a stroke of paralysis eight months ago which finally took him off.

Mrs. Peter Smith, of Harkaway, returned home Saturday before last from Brampton where she had gone to see her brother, Mr. T. A. Wilson, who was ill, and died the 1st March.

Deceased was highly respected. He had a stroke of paralysis eight months ago which finally took him off.

Mrs. Peter Smith, of Harkaway, returned home Saturday before last from Brampton where she had gone to see her brother, Mr. T. A. Wilson, who was ill, and died the 1st March.

Deceased was highly respected. He had a stroke of paralysis eight months ago which finally took him off.

Mrs. Peter Smith, of Harkaway, returned home Saturday before last from Brampton where she had gone to see her brother, Mr. T. A. Wilson, who was ill, and died the 1st March.

Deceased was highly respected. He had a stroke of paralysis eight months ago which finally took him off.

Mrs. Peter Smith, of Harkaway, returned home Saturday before last from Brampton where she had gone to see her brother, Mr. T. A. Wilson, who was ill, and died the 1st March.