EUPHRASIA PIONEER DEAD

Just at sunrise on Friday morning, March 22nd, the spirit of Mr. Jesse Dowding took its flight to the great beyond. He was born in Wiltshire, England, sixty-nine years ago, and came to Canada when a young man. In 1864 he took for his life-partner Priscilla Hudson, of Bolton, Ontario, who predeceased him on May .11, 1897.

Their house was the first built in the settlement of New England, on the 7th line of Euphrasia, where he resided till 6 years ago. They bore the toils of pioneer life and raised a large family, nine of whom are still living, four sons and four daughters in B. C. and Chas., with whom he resided in Osprey Township. Mrs. Allen, the inmate referred to our last items as being placed in solitary confinement for highly incarcerated on Friday last for a similar, retiring time, with the intention of releasing her, was met with a volley of foul invectives, and he decided to leave her in solitary confinement all night. This, however, had not the desired effect of cooling down the refractory spirit, or silencing her abusive tongue, for, on being visited next morning by the Manager, she rehearsed to him the in his behalf, a prayer from which we to anything so degrading, it becomes deplorable in the fullest meaning of the word, and all self respect or respect for others is entirely, gone:

Mrs. Criezer, recently referred to in this column, was returned to the Home on the 18th. The old lady seemed to greatly protest, but after having her say she was lifted from the conveyance and led, with what seemed to us much reluctance and a little unavailing resistance. to the interior of the house.
