FLESHERTON HAPPENINGS
(By our own Correspondents.)

On Wednesday of last week another resident of this place passed away in the person of Mrs. David McMillan, who has been an invalid since July, 1905, when she was seized with a paralytic stroke, which rendered her helpless. On Monday of last week another stroke occurred, which rendered her unconscious, remaining so until the end came. On Friday afternoon the funeral took place to the public cemetery, service being first conducted at the home by Rev. Dr. Caldwell. The pallbearers were: Jacob Holley, Wm. Orchard, Johnson Cullen, Jerr, Thompson, Joseph Blakely and Henry Wilson. The deceased, whose maiden name was Jane Madill, was born in Clark township 25 years ago. About 45 years ago she was married to this township to Mr. McMillan, who survived her along with the following sons and daughter, born to them: William J., in the Northwest; Samuel, east back for some time in Richmond; Port Law, and Mrs. Martin Tester of Kimberley. Mrs. Jacob Holley, of Markdale, is a sister of the deceased.

Messrs. J. & W. Boyd's and Mr. F. G. Karstedt's spring military opening last week were great attractions for the ladies, who went out in large numbers purchasing and viewing the beautiful creations prepared for their inspection. The show rooms were tastefully decorated and the tables were laden with very artistically trimmed headwear. For elderly ladies bonnets remain fashionable and chaste designs were shown. For the younger ladies the popular mushroom shape is a leader. Leather horns will also be much worn and the new sailor will be in great demand. For girls the top hat will be a favorite ribbon play leading to elaborate trimmings and gaiters, quills and wings are much used. The band was in attendance at Boyd's on Thursday evening and gave a pleasing program of music.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lewis, of Kimberley, met with a sad accident on Wednesday of last week by the death of their only son, three and a half years old. The little one was a great grandson of Mrs. John Olinson, of this place. The child took place to the public cemetery here and the burial service being conducted by the Rev. L. F. Kipp.

Mr. Emerson Adams entertained about twenty-five of his young friends in the village with an enjoyable party given one evening last week.

Mr. Becker moved his family to Berlin on Monday and Mrs. G. Wardrobe moved to Toronto on Tuesday. Mr. Wardrobe had a successful sale of household effects, conducted by R. J. Sroufe.

Rev. L. F. Kipp was at Princeville on Thursday night last attending a farewell and presentation given to one of the deacons of his church, who is moving away.

Mrs. Alex. McMullen, 43-line, who has been very ill for a month, is now on the mend. Her son, James, an eight-year-old daughter, Mabel, who has been ill with pneumonia, is now recovering. Mrs. F. G. Karstedt's eight-month-old son, who has been for some time languishing with pneumonia, has had a change for the better. Mr. John Thistlewaite was seized with appendicitis a week ago, but being a light attack and checked in good time, he is about again. Mrs. John Hainsford, of Toronto, is recovering slowly from a severe illness. Mrs. James Cargo, whose life was spared of a short time ago, has been on the mend recently and there is much hope for her recovery. Mr. Shaw has been confined to his room for about three weeks, but there is now some improvement in his condition.

The sermons in the churches here on Sunday were on appropriate resurrection themes and the musical part of the services was very good. On Monday, in the Presbyterian church Mr. J. McLeod, Knox College student, preached in the place of Rev. Mr. Ross, who was unable to be present. In the Methodist church the choir was assisted by Mr. Gallagher, a visitor who gave two excellent renditions of solos. The churches were appropriately decorated with Easter lilies, flowering plants, etc. In the Presbyterian Sunday School the children's day and a pleasing feature of the exercise was a very pretty duet by little Misses Muriel McTavish and Ruby Redley.

Mr. J. H. Duncan has been learning received assistance from the O. P. R. for land in dispute, being taken by the Company for their new branch tapping the main line at Boyd's mill.
