OUR MAGIC AND INDIA'S

OPINION OF THE LATE CHARLES BERTRAM, THE CONJURER.

He Made Three Trips to the East to Study the Tricks of the Indian Jugglers. Charles Bertram, the English conjurer, whose death was recently announced, made three trips to India, where he studied the tricks for which the Indian jugglers have long been famous.

BIT OF IRISH BOYCOTTING

JURY REFUSED TO CONVICT THE PRISONERS. Gathering of Six Hundred Wayland Boys—Bitter Hatred Against Family. At the Leitrim Assizes, before Mr. Justice Kenny, according to a despatch from the London Times, the following eight persons were tried for a second time on a charge of having been concerned in an illegal assembly at Drumahaire on July 28, 1906.

THE COUNTRY UP

The Brads got some flour, meal, and other things and started for their return journey. The conjurer's trick was to draw out the cotton thread into his mouth, and he appeared to chew it.

POLITE DISSENT

A Traveller's Experience in Remote Brazil. The most provincial people, the Brazilians are inquisitive, but their native politeness will not allow them to receive any reply whatever that is not in accordance with the interior of that country.

PROFIT IN GHOST YARNS

NOT FOR THE ENGLISH PAPERS, BUT FOR THE OTHER YELLOWS.

No Less a Person Than Stephen Phillips the Post-Dramatist, Had the Experiences. There is likely to be a slump here in ghost stories and creepy tales of haunted houses for some time to come.

AN ALTERED VILLAGE

I've wandered to the village, Tom, squinted 'neath the tree. Where in the winter you and I used to go, now an office for a retail concern.

OWN YOUR OWN HOME!

Small Payments Once a Week. The churchyard, too, has changed. Tom, wherein is laid away the cold remains of many of our full playmates.

NO DOGS ALLOWED IN THE EXCEPT ON CHAIN!

The very streets have changed. Tom, huge billboards rear their heads on vacant lots, which say, "Skip 'em!"

A CHORUS OF SYRENS

After a triumphal progress, India and other dependencies of the British Empire, the future king, with his fair consort, the princess, arrived in London.
