Mr. F. Tucker, tailor, has added a new stock of tweeds, etc., to his business. A new grocery store is being opened in the top corner occupied by the Standard bank. Roy Kerr will be in charge. A new tin shop in Medical Hall is also to be opened by our young townsman, Mr. Peter Norris.

Mr. Walter Loucks, who has been at Mesford for some time, left recently to spend the summer in the Northwest.

April 23. The joy grasp of winter relaxed somewhat to-day and signs of spring are noticeable. Many farmers plowing this week report considerable frost under the surface.

Mr. J. Brodie, who purchased a house on the lot one W. G. Watson, is painting and refitting the premises and moving furniture in this week.

McLeod's sawmill is busy squaring switch ties (principally rock elm) for the railroad. Horses are scarce in town at present. Every house that is fit to live in is being bought up or rented. More building will undoubtedly be erected in the near future.

The Cement Co., of Owen Sound, that were building bridges for the Railway last fall have returned and are at work on some bridges west of here.

Remember the Women's Institute 1st Thursday in May, at Wm. Watson's residence.

We received the following items from Maple Grove on the north line.

Building operations in this locality for the coming summer promise to be quite extensive.

On Thursday evening at New England church a lecture will be given by the Rev. Mr. Adams on London and Sunday next.

This promises to be a very interesting and profitable lecture and for the sake of a paltry fifteen cents should not be missed by any one in the community.

Mr. Joseph Dennison has closed a successful clover-threshing season.

We are sorry to report Mr. P. Dennison on account of ill health.

Could some of the medical staff of Markdale advise us what the cause of so many complaining of bad colds? Owing to the death of one of our pioneer residents, our general mailman, Mr. Clarke, failed to make his regular trip Friday but was punctual on the following day.

Owing to the lively debate in the Harkaway Literary Society all spare time is utilized and our mail carrier states business along his line a little easier.

A dark cloud was cast over this locality last week when one of the old pioneers was called to his rest in the last ward in the person of Mr. Mark Madill. Mr. Madill emigrated from County Monaghan, Ireland, fifty-five years ago. After travelling around for some time he settled on his farm in Holland where he resided up to the time of his decease. Mr. Madill always enjoyed the best of health up till a few weeks ago. Mr. Madill was a Conservative in politics and although advanced in years could discuss the latest questions of the day with remarkable clearness. In religion he was a Methodist and his remains were interred in the Harkaway Cemetery. He leaves a widow, three sons, one daughter, all of whom reside at home besides the family, the chief mourners were Mr. Samuel Madill, Corbettson; his brothers-in-law, Mr. Adam Clarke, postmaster; Lily Oak; Mr. Robert Clarke, Grieresville; Mr. James Clarke, Harkaway; Mr. W. T. Clarke, Barrie. His four brothers-in-law and Mr. R. Clarke, Lily Oak, and Mr. John Nixon acted as pallbearers.

Grip Quickly Knocked Out.

"Some weeks ago during the severe winter we had both my wife and myself contracted severe colds which speedily developed into the worst kind of a gripe with all its miserable symptoms," says Mr. J. S. Eggleston, of Maple Lane, Iowa. "Stiffness and joints aching, muscles sore, head stood up, eyes and nose running, with alternate spells of chills and fever. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, adding the same with a double dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and by its liberal use soon completely knocked out the grip. Sold by R. L. Stephens.

Caught Cold while Hunting a Burglar

Mr. Wm. Thos. Lanagan, provincial Constable at Chapleau, Ontario, says: "I caught a severe cold while hunting a burglar in the forest swamp last fall. Remedy I tried it and after using two bottles, I was completely cured." This remedy is intended especially for coughs and colds. It will loosen and relieve a severe cold in less time than by any other treatment and is a favorite wherever its superior excellence has become known. For sale by R. L. Stephens.
