Nurses' and Mothers' Treasure

FAT LITTLE MAN WHO IS THE "SHADOW OF GOD ON EARTH."

Speaks No European Language and Is In No Sense an Educated Man.

A new Shah-in-Shah (King of Kings) is seated on the wonderful peacock throne of Persia. He is a fat little man, hardly matching his imposing titles, one of which is "The Shadow of God on Earth." He is now about 33.

CLEANSING LADIES'

WALKING OR OUTING

ST. W. H. B. shows How Use of Stimulant Helps Work.

The work of a lady is not, according to a series of experiments quoted in "The Woman's World" by Dr. Mary D. Johnson, as valuable to his employer as the amount of work she does, but the amount of work she does while taking alcohol in the form of stimulants.

THE CAREER OF THE LATE SHAH

showed how far his supposed despotic power fell short of being the real thing.

SAVED HIS LIFE.

A good story comes from China which would seem to point to the fact that John Chinaman has assimilated some Western ideas on the virtues of the art of medicine.

which Danolos usually returned from his game of dominoes at the cafe. They got into the apartment by a skeleton key and shut the door noisily behind them. Then while one of them prepared to strike a light the other groped his way a couple of feet forward in the anteroom of the apartment.

As he did so he jostled against something that gave way before him, the street came and he hit rather heavily, then he looked away again. The young burglar gasped. He stretched out his hands and felt a man's clothing and then the legs of a man inside and a chilly hand all striving horribly to and fro as he touched them.
